"Whoever loves me will keep my word," Jesus tells his disciples, "and my Father...will come to him and make our dwelling with him." We know what's at stake. We know what we have to do. So when the Father comes, will He make His dwelling with us?

First Reading: Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. (Acts 2:3)

Psalm: Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth. (Ps 104) Or: Alleluia.

Second Reading: As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. (1 Cor 12:12)

Gospel: Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." (Jn 20:21)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

When I was a seminarian almost 20 years ago, a bank vice president taught us etiquette classes. She said, "Gentlemen, please make sure your breath isn't bad. Take some breath mints before you hear confessions, okay?" We nervously laughed because the proximity that makes breath noticeable (whether pleasant or not) can be a bit awkward.

When Jesus breathes on his Apostles (John 20:22), he must have been within inches of at least some of them. This closeness of his breath has a purpose: the purpose of forgiveness of sins. "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them" (John 20:23). Why in the world would the almost uncomfortable closeness of his breath forgive sins?

In the Bible, breath is spirit or wind. It comes from above and makes that which is below to have identity. To not have a single identity is to be multiple, divided. The word "sin" comes from an ancient word that means "to split" or "render asunder." Sin divides us sinners and the world around us; our spiritual "breath" leaves us and our identity splinters. Only breath from above restores. For example, a shattered vase is rendered whole because the craftsman breathes the spirit of the vase back into it when he repairs it. A human being shattered by sin is made whole by the breath of God, breathed by Jesus through his priests. His breath alone forgives sins. It's always done with his gentle, loving closeness.

— Father John Muir

Catholic Life Explained: LECTIO DIVINA?

Question: Why do we use incense at Mass?

Answer: The use of incense in religious ceremonies and worship is a practice that predates Christianity, and which is also found in many other religious traditions today.

Incense, which is made from resin infused with aromatic spices and oils, is one of those fundamentally human symbols that incorporates more than one of our senses, helping us to reflect on realities that transcend the everyday details of our lives.

The use of incense in the Church's liturgy — in the Mass, as well as in devotions to the Eucharist and the Liturgy of the Hours — is inspired by the use of incense in the Jewish tradition. In the writings of the Old Testament, we hear about incense being used in the worship of the temple, and Psalm 141 asks, "Let my prayer be incense before you; my uplifted hands an evening offering" (vs. 2). The image here is that, as the incense gently rises to heaven, our prayers also rise to God as something sweet and pleasant.

Another ancient use of incense that has also become part of our Catholic tradition is the idea that when we incense something, it's because it is something special or sacred. This is why the Book of the Gospel is incensed during the Liturgy of the Word and the bread, wine, priest celebrant, and congregation are incensed at the presentation of the gifts. To this, we can also add the incensing of the Blessed Sacrament during eucharistic adoration and benediction, and the body of the deceased at the end of the Mass of the Resurrection (the Funeral Mass).

Q: "Why aren't women more respected in the Church when the greatest of all women gave birth to Jesus? — Clark K., 14

A: Women are held in very high esteem in the Church. In fact, 85 percent of all Church positions are held by women, according to Catholic Update, a national newsletter. Pope John Paul II said in his letter Women Teachers of Peace: "When women are able fully to share their gifts with the whole community, the very way in which society understands and organizes itself is improved ... The growing presence of women in social, economic, and political life ... is thus a very positive development ... This acknowledgement of their public roles however should not detract from their role within the family ... Here their contribution to the welfare and progress of society, even if its importance is not sufficiently appreciated, is truly incalculable."

Countless holy women have established religious orders, built monasteries, hospitals, and orphanages; and they have taught tens of millions of our children. In fact, someone once told me that Catholic nuns were running schools before women in the secular world were allowed to even attend them.

Although some members of the Church have made mistakes regarding the role of women in the past, the Church has been far ahead of society in acknowledging their true importance and allowing them to share their gifts with the Church.

CARE FUND: A Ministry of Compassionate Stewardship
As Catholic stewards, we are called not only to worship, but to live our faith through prayer, participation, and sacrificial giving. The Care Fund is one way our parish community lives out this call — responding with compassion to the unexpected financial hardships that can affect the dignity and stability of our community members.

This ministry has provided emergency assistance to help families avoid eviction, help with medical bills, support respite care, restore utilities, and meet other essential needs.

If you or someone you know is experiencing a sudden hardship, we invite you to apply for support. Through the Care Fund, we live out our discipleship by lifting up the vulnerable, affirming the dignity of life, and being the hearts of Ss. Peter & Paul in times of need. Thank you for supporting this ministry.
