Jesus knew how it would be. He knew we would stumble in the dark, grasping for answers. And so he sent us a light: the Holy Spirit, the illumination of all that is true. Dare we look into the light? Are we ready to see the truth?

First Reading: "When the Lord established the heavens I was there, when he marked out the vault over the face of the deep; when he made firm the skies above, when he fixed fast the foundations of the earth; (Prv 8:27)

Psalm: O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth! (Ps 8)

Second Reading: Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. (Rom 5:1)

Gospel: Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you." Jn 16:15)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

I am amazed at how my four siblings teach their many kids in age-appropriate ways. For example, now that my nephew Brandon is 24 years of age, they give him insights and freedoms that would have been positively confounding or even dangerous when he was a toddler. Imagine if they had taught him at age four how to drive a car, use a credit card online, or handle power tools. But eventually, they did, and he is a high functioning young man, I'm proud to say. They are good teachers.

This week we learn that Jesus teaches us in a similar way. He says to his Apostles, "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now" (John 16:12). How disappointing for them. But imagine at that moment, before his resurrection and ascension, if the Lord had started telling them about synods and sacraments, popes and parishes, martyrs and monasteries, rosaries and relics, catechisms and crucifixes? They would have been absolutely overwhelmed, confused, and discouraged. He tells them what they need to know, when it is time for them to know it.

So he does for us. Jesus has unceasingly taught the Church as she matures through the centuries, just as he teaches you and me through our lives in ways we can understand. Our task should be to learn what he is teaching us now, knowing that (although revelation per se is complete in him and his Apostles), he never ceases to teach us as we spiritually mature. Be confident: he knows what you are ready to learn now.

— Father John Muir

"Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that He will take from what is mine and declare it to you." (John 16:15)

The unity of the Holy Trinity invites us to participate in God's life and love. How might God be calling your children to embody this unity through a vocation? Perhaps He is leading them toward the sacred union of holy matrimony? If you would like more information and resources to share with your child, reach out to your priest, religious coordinator, or diocesan vocation director.

SPIRITUAL HOMEWORK: QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: Proverbs teaches us that the wisdom of God was present with God throughout creation, playing on earth and finding delight in humans. What brings delight to your life?

Second Reading: Paul encouraged believers that in Jesus we have peace with God and through the Holy Spirit we have the love of God in our hearts. Why do you think these fruits of the Holy Trinity have been given to us?

Gospel: Jesus taught his disciples that the Spirit gives to believers everything the Father has given to the Son. When have you been generous to others?

Q: "Is feminism compatible with Catholicism?" — Maria O., 18

A: It depends on what you mean by feminism. If you mean women should have the same basic human rights as men, then certainly Catholic teaching agrees. If by feminism you mean there should be no social distinctions between men and women or for true equality to exist between genders in the Church women must be ordained to the priesthood, then the answer is "no."

The latter view is sometimes called "secular" or "radical feminism." Some views commonly held by secular or radical feminists are actually contrary to true feminine dignity. For example, a woman's ability to conceive and bear children is a wonderful gift from God. Yet many radical feminists view child-bearing as little better than a curse. They support things which actually degrade women, such as contraception and abortion.

Catholic Life Explained: ROSARIES AS DECORATIONS?

Question: I've seen people hang rosaries over the rear-view mirrors in their cars and a few of them wear them around their necks. Is it OK to do that?

Answer: The practice of hanging a rosary or a religious medal off of the rearview mirror of one's car is a fairly popular custom across many cultures. While there is no particular rule approving or condemning this practice, we should also be mindful of the respect and reverence due to religious objects and devotional items (i.e. sacramentals).

An important point to consider would be the reason why one chooses to place a rosary or religious medal in our cars. Is it a reminder of the protection and intercession of Mary and the saints? Does it encourage us to be mindful of God's presence, even in such a mundane task as driving? Is it an outward expression of our more private devotions?

One advantage of having a rosary or religious medal in our cars is that it can also serve as a reminder to pray when we travel, asking for protection for ourselves and for other motorists or commuters. Certainly, invoking the protection and prayers of the saints is a wonderful practice for families, helping to reinforce our belief in the communion of saints and the care and concern we owe to one another.

Thank you to all who participated in making our new Cooper County directory! Thanks to Brenda Hodges & Lu Gerling from St. Joseph, Pilot Grove, and to Annamarie Smith, Pat Davis, Roz Gordon and Cheri Jones from SSPP. These ladies went above and beyond to help see this project through!

If you haven't picked up your reserved copy of the directory, please stop by the parish office. We will have a few extra copies available for $15. Currently, we are taking names for those until we are sure we have enough to sell.

Thanks to the generosity of our parish family at our annual baby shower, many items were donated to the Pregnancy Help Center, along with $410. Our donated items will be placed in their baby boutique. Just knowing about places like a free pregnancy help center can save the lives of unborn babies by providing for the needs of their parents. The PHC offers free and confidential services, pregnancy tests, a licensed counselor, and classes (prenatal care, parenting, life skills, after abortion healing, bible study, securing a job). Referrals for insurance, housing and adoption counseling are also provided.

Some parishioners asked about the address for mailing a donation: Pregnancy Help Center of Central Missouri, 1433 Southwest Blvd., Jefferson City, Mo. 65109

Much thanks for the many prayers said this past year for the sacredness of life from conception to end of life.

Congratulations Brian Lutz, ordained to the permanent diaconate!

I would like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to all of those who attended the ordination on Saturday and reception on Sunday. It means the absolute world to me as you all have been there for this entire journey (and some of you for my entire life). Your prayers, encouragement and love have carried me through this entire journey to my ordination.

A special thank you goes out to Fr. Mark for his support. I will always remember my first official Mass as a deacon alongside him. We are incredibly fortunate to have a parish office staff as dedicated and faithful as Diane, Theresa and Debbie. I thank them for their support and look forward to working alongside them in the coming years. And finally, to Deacon Dave and Suzi Miller: thank you for making the initial ask to consider the diaconate. The Holy Spirit prompted you to ask and the Holy Spirit called me to answer.

We are all called to serve and not be served. As a parish family you have been an incredible witness to that calling! Please know that each of you are in my prayers and please continue to pray that I may use the gifts of the Holy Spirit to love and serve the Lord.

Peace, Deacon Brian Lutz
