Five loaves and two fish: a measly portion of food for such a large crowd of people. But we must remember that it doesn't matter what the size of our offering is. If we only lay it before Christ, he will take it and make it a mighty bounty.

First Reading: "Blessed be Abram by God Most High, the creator of heaven and earth; and blessed be God Most High, who delivered your foes into your hand." (Gn 14:19-20)

Psalms: You are a priest forever, in the line of Melchizedek. (Ps 110)

Second Reading: For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes. (1 Cor 11:26)

Gospel: Jesus spoke to the crowds about the kingdom of God, and he healed those who needed to be cured. (Lk 9:11b)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

A Catholic friend of mine occasionally says, "The Eucharist is not a noun. It's a verb." In so saying, he is making the point that the Eucharist isn't simply Jesus' bodily presence given to us in Holy Communion. It also manifests the dynamic pattern by which Christ actively loves and saves us. He teaches us to cooperate with that pattern. This Eucharist actually embodies four verbs: Jesus takes, blesses, breaks, and gives. Let's consider each one.

He takes: Do we acknowledge that we are totally in God's hands? Do we receive everything in our lives as a gift, and act responsibly with it?

He blesses: Do we actively reflect that Jesus makes us holy in our baptism? Do we embrace our bodies and souls as temples of God, worthy of love, peace, and joy?

He breaks: Do we run from failure and disappointment, from getting old or being ignored? Are we too worried about getting hurt or sick? Do we embrace our sufferings with confidence?

He gives: Are we willing to make our lives a gift for others? Are we confident that we will always have enough love to give to others, that God will always provide enough for us? Do we rejoice in giving away what we have to others, expecting nothing in return? This is the dynamic life the Eucharist empowers us to live.

"He spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and He healed those who needed to be cured." (Luke 9:11b)

Just as Christ ministered to those around Him, your children may be called to bring spiritual healing and proclaim God's kingdom.

If you sense they are being invited to follow in Jesus' footsteps by serving the Church through the priesthood, consider reaching out to your priest, religious coordinator, or diocesan vocation director.

SPIRITUAL HOMEWORK: QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: In reaction to the thanksgiving meal of bread and wine, Abram generously gave Melchizedek a tenth of his possessions. What could you give back to God this week out of gratitude?

Second Reading: Paul tells us from the very beginning the early Church celebrated the Eucharistic meal as a remembrance of Jesus' death and as central to our faith. How does the Eucharist strengthen your faith?

Gospel: The miracle of the feeding of the 5,000 underscores Jesus' desire to feed us. What do you find yourself hungry for today?

Catholic Life Explained: SIGN BEFORE THE GOSPEL

Question: I have been going to Mass for years and have always wondered: why do we make the three signs of the cross before the Gospel?

Answer: Certainly, many people go to Mass or other devotions, doing and saying things out of habit or reverence and not really understanding the reasons behind some of these things. But everything we do has a meaning or purpose that helps us to worship better, proclaim our beliefs, or focus the attention of the people on something that has a greater importance or significance. A review of the meaning of various gestures and practices can help us have a deeper appreciation for what we do. There is a little prayer that goes with the three crosses before the Gospel: "May the words of the Holy Gospel be on my mind, on my lips and in my heart."

In standing to hear the Gospel, we acknowledge that Jesus is present, and the words of the Gospel are addressed to us. All of the gestures and special postures we adopt before the Gospel are intended to help us prepare for hearing the Word as well as act on it. The incense, the Alleluia, the deacon or priest, and the special dialogue and announcement that introduces the Gospel help us focus our attention on the Good News we are about to hear. The three signs of the cross show our desire and good intention to hear and live the Gospel.

Breaking the Silence of Abuse: As a diocese, we are committed to breaking the silence of abuse. When someone is reporting abuse, we must acknowledge their pain and how difficult it is to talk about it. False allegations are very rare. Our initial response to someone who is disclosing abuse for the first time must be compassionate.

For those who need to report abuse, encourage them to contact our Victims Assistance Coordinator, Jacqueline Baldwin, (573-694-3199) and to make use of the appropriate State of Missouri hotline (1-800-392-3738) or the Attorney General's clergy abuse online form. All of this information is also on our website, under the 'report abuse' tab.

For those who want information or want to convey a message to the Diocesan Administrator, please encourage them to write to us at reportabuse@diojeffcity.org.

Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicky, Diocesan Administrator of Jefferson City, recently appointed DEACON BRIAN LUTZ, newly ordained, to diaconal ministry assisting Rev. Mark Smith at Ss. Peter & Paul Parish, Boonville and St. Joseph Parish, Pilot Grove, effective 7 June 2025.

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Rita Stone, sister of Leo Kraus and sister-in-law of Thelma Kraus, who died June 14. "Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace."

Blackbaud is making plans to migrate all parish websites in the diocese over to a new server to increase performance, security and reliability. This is an exciting change, but there will be a brief period of time when the websites will be down completely. To make this upgrade possible, please know that the parish website to unavailable from June 24 to June 26. The website will not be viewable by the public.

We will start thinking about the 2025 Turkey Dinner very soon! Please prayerfully consider how you and your family would like to be involved this year. We have many chair people who have been working this for years and they are eager to train new people! We will also be looking for a couple willing to be turkey dinner coordinators or co-coordinators.

The SSPP annual turkey dinner is a fun way to get to know your parish family and can be a great thing for your whole family to be involved with.

Please email Kelly Rohrbach at kelschuster@gmail.com or call the parish office, 882-6468, if you have questions or want more information on how you can help out this year!

Q: "Are angels male, female, both or neither?" — Maria O., 18

A: We have no evidence from revelation that angels are male or female. Being pure spirits, they cannot possess the bodily traits of gender. Even so, angels are sometimes depicted in male and female forms. This is probably so we can better relate to them on a human level. When on the rare occasion an angel appears to human beings, it comes in the form of a male or female human being, even though it is a pure spirit without a body.
