As he sends his disciples into the world to proclaim his name, Jesus tells them to be bold. He tells them to be flexible. To be forgiving. To be faithful. As we enter this week, let's remember these instructions. It's good advice, in any century.

First Reading: Lo, I will spread prosperity over Jerusalem like a river, and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing torrent. (Is 66:12)

Psalm: Let all the earth cry out to God with joy. (Ps 66)

Second Reading: From now on, let no one make troubles for me; for I bear the marks of Jesus on my body. (Gal 6:17)

Gospel: Nevertheless, do not rejoice because the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice because your names are written in heaven." (Lk 10:20)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

In the days after the awful 2020 killing of George Floyd, a Catholic friend remarked, "Racism is today's great evil. We should put all our energy into fighting it." I admired her intuition that the church must stand firmly against evil. Amen, I thought. At the same time, something felt wrong. As months went by, I saw her steadily slide into bitterness and anger. Soon, despondency. She spoke of giving up the fight. Don't we too wonder how to fight evil without losing our joy or energy?

Jesus' words this week help. He says, "Rejoice not that you have power over demons, but that your names are written in heaven" (Luke 10:20). Notice the asymmetry in where he wants our focus: on the latter, not the former. Should we confidently embrace our God-given power to overcome evil? Absolutely. But even more so, we should emphasize the positive element of our relationship to God. It is tempting but dangerous to define ourselves by what we oppose. It is better to define ourselves by—to rejoice in—what we celebrate: in Jesus, God has written our names in heaven. This sustains our battles.

This week, our marching orders are: fight evil. But more deeply, rejoice that God knows and loves us personally, individually. We allow this joyful knowledge to undergird our fight against the darkness of our day. Then we enjoy long-term stability to be cheerful warriors, who never forget the reason for the contests we are called to fight and win: love.

— Father John Muir

The Pope's July Prayer Intention is for formation in discernment: Let us pray that we might again learn how to discern, to know how to choose paths of life, and reject everything that leads us away from Christ and the Gospel.

OBSERVANCES THIS WEEK

Sunday: 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wednesday: St. Augustine Zhao Rong, Priest, and Companions, Martyrs

Friday: St. Benedict, Abbot

Next Sunday: 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 6, 2025

"The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few." (Luke 10:2)

God's vineyard is overflowing with opportunities, and there is a heartfelt need for dedicated laborers. Might Christ be inviting your child to join this vital work? Suggest that they consider a vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life, as their unique gifts could profoundly impact others. Talk to your priest, religious coordinator, or diocesan vocation director.

SPIRITUAL HOMEWORK: QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: Isaiah speaks of God's love and care for Jerusalem as a loving mother who feeds and comforts her child. What are some favorite memories or images you have of your mother?

Second Reading: Paul ends his letter to the Galatians emphasizing that believers are part of God's "new creation," no longer defined by circumcision and uncircumcision. How does your faith community encourage or energize you to think differently?

Gospel: The 72 followers of Jesus succeeded in their work to preach the kingdom of God and heal the sick and demon possessed. What does a successful parish look like today?

We will start thinking about the 2025 Turkey Dinner very soon!

Please prayerfully consider how you and your family would like to be involved this year. We have many chair people who have been working this for years and they are eager to train new people! We will also be looking for a couple willing to be turkey dinner coordinators or co-coordinators.

The SSPP annual turkey dinner is a fun way to get to know your parish family and can be a great thing for your whole family to be involved with.

Please email Kelly Rohrbach at kelschuster@gmail.com or call the parish office, 882-6468, if you have questions or want more information on how you can help out this year!

Q: "Can we lose our guardian angels?" — Maria O., 18

A: No. Angels are a wonderful gift from God designed to protect and pray for us. They are more faithful and loving than any human being could conceive of being because they are pure spirits committed to the Will of God. The Will of God is for all to be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth (1 Tim. 2:4). Therefore, God would never withdraw their support. We can, however, resist their efforts and avoid God's grace. But they will continually be there, in good times and bad.

Prayer For Evangelization

As You reach out to the world, Lord, let us be Your hands!

As You answer those crying, send us.
Let us be Your people,
answer to prayers prayed,
comfort to the afflicted.
May we be laborers in
Your harvest.

Amen.

Copies of "The Mission of the Seventy-Two" are available at each of the church entrances for those interested in learning more about evangelization.

Catholic Life Explained: CARRY YOUR CROSS

Question: As Catholics, we talk a lot about “redemptive suffering” and “carrying your cross.” What does that mean practically in daily life?

Answer: When Jesus spoke these words, they would have sounded quite intense to his hearers. “Pick up your cross daily and follow me.”

At the time, Jesus hadn’t yet been crucified. A cross was a Roman torture instrument. “Pick up the thing that tortures you the most,” Jesus seemed to say.

Unfortunately, most of us have no real shortage of these in our life. To take up the cross isn’t to seek out new sufferings in our life. It’s to accept the life we have.

Of course, unjust or unhealthy circumstances should be rectified when possible. But there are always circumstances that remain out of our immediate control. It could be pain management, the defiance of our teenage child, or an unhealthy work environment ... but you need the paycheck to pay the bills.

In difficult circumstances, it can be easier to blame, complain, or daydream our way out of it. None of these are real solutions, since none of them accept the reality of the situation at hand. Those options only add to our suffering, since they damage relationships, fixate on the problem, or set up unrealistic expectations.

Instead, Jesus invites us to take up our cross — to look at the uncomfortable situation square in the eyes, take a deep breath, and do our best to be present to God’s grace in the moment. To love those in our path. To take things one step at a time.

For our diocese as we await the appointment of a new Bishop and for Msgr. Kurwicki as he serves as diocesan administrator in the interim.

Let us pray to the Lord.

PRAYER FOR A NEW BISHOP

O God, eternal shepherd,
who governs your flock with unfailing care,
grant in your boundless fatherly love
a pastor for your Church who will please you by his holiness and to us show watchful care.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Farewell & thank you, Father Mark!

Many thanks to all who helped with the planning, cooking, coordination, and clean-up for Father Mark's Farewell Picnic, held June 15 at the Cooper County Youth Fairgrounds! It was wonderful to have many volunteers from both parishes hosting the event, and to have so many people in attendance on such a busy weekend! Fortunately, disaster was averted when someone almost forgot the table service! May God bless you all! (P.S. Dan Schuster & Father Kevin sure seem to like having their pictures taken! 😊)

TOTUS TUUS COMING TO SSP JULY 20-25!

St. Michael Prayer, Explained!

The prayer to St. Michael invokes the protection of the archangel Michael in the ongoing spiritual battle for the souls of all mankind. This prayer was composed by Pope Leo XIII and its use was instituted in 1886 at the end of Low Mass, a tradition which continued until the liturgical reforms of the Second Vatican Council. A popular story regarding its origin claims that the Pope wrote this prayer after having a vision of demonic spirits descending on Rome.

Michael is mentioned as one of God's seven archangels in the Book of Enoch and is presented by Revelations 12:7-12 as the warrior angel who cast Satan from heaven. He is therefore traditionally venerated as a protector against the forces of evil and a guardian of the Church.

The Prayer to St. Michael is still commonly said at the end of the rosary and by some parishes after the conclusion of Mass.
