In life, there are so many “Marthas” — people and situations that distract us from God. But if we imitate Mary and sit calmly at the feet of Jesus, his Word will guard our hearts from the anxiety of the world.

First Reading: They asked Abraham, "Where is your wife Sarah?" He replied, "There in the tent." One of them said, "I will surely return to you about this time next year, and Sarah will then have a son." (Gn 18:10)

Psalm: He who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord. (Ps 15)

Second Reading: It is Christ in you, the hope for glory. It is he whom we proclaim. (Col 1:27-28)

Gospel: The Lord said to her in reply, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her." (Lk 10:42)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

One of my close friends is a hermit priest who lives on a desert mountain. Recently I found myself in a group conversation about him. One vehemently objected, "What does he do up there all day? Nothing! Priests are down here working, running parishes, making a difference, and he...he is doing nothing! What a waste." The words dripped with indignation and resentment. Most of the group quietly nodded in silent agreement. Were they correct? No! To see why, consider a similar scenario in this week's gospel. Jesus visits his friends Martha and Mary. A hardworking and exasperated Martha complains to Jesus that her sister is attending to him rather than to urgent household tasks. Our Lord, rather than praising hospitality, explicitly celebrates the less-productive sister for doing the "one necessary thing." He praises her for she "has chosen the better part" (Luke 10:42). Mary is busy doing what matters.

Before we freak out like Martha, consider that all work—domestic, manual, professional, ministerial, contemplative—is done to help us (sooner or later) to experience the love that makes us happy. We should be thankful for those who focus on the "better part" of radical, ceaseless prayer. They invite us to remember the purpose of all work is the enjoyment of love. Contemplatives, hermits, anyone fervently committed to prayer—they invite us to cast aside our forgetful, resentful, and self-aggrandizing attitudes in exchange for hearts ready to do what is finally necessary.

The Pope's July Prayer Intention is for formation in discernment: Let us pray that we might again learn how to discern, to know how to choose paths of life, and reject everything that leads us away from Christ and the Gospel.

Prayer For Focus

Lord, help me to remember what matters and who matters. And then help me to prioritize rightly and wisely, with Your heaven as my guide. Amen.

SPIRITUAL HOMEWORK: QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: Abraham's treatment of the three strangers modeled the value of hospitality in the ancient world. What are some ways you show kindness and warmth to others?

Second Reading: Paul found reasons to rejoice despite suffering for his faith in Christ and his mission to the Gentiles. How do you find joy and hope in difficult situations?

Gospel: Jesus teaches Martha that her anxiety and worry can be calmed by listening to his words. How can you be present this week to an anxious friend or co-worker?

We will start thinking about the 2025 Turkey Dinner very soon!
 Please prayerfully consider how you and your family would like to be involved this year. We have many chair people who have been working this for years and they are eager to train new people! We will also be looking for a couple willing to be turkey dinner coordinators or co-coordinators.

The SSPP annual turkey dinner is a fun way to get to know your parish family and can be a great thing for your whole family to be involved with.

Please email Kelly Rohrbach at kelschuster@gmail.com or call the parish office, 882-6468, if you have questions or want more information on how you can help out this year!

Please pray for our diocese as we await the appointment of a new Bishop and for Msgr. Kurwicki as he serves as diocesan administrator in the interim.
Let us pray to the Lord.

PRAYER FOR A NEW BISHOP

O God, eternal shepherd, who governs your flock with unflinching care, grant in your boundless fatherly love a pastor for your Church who will please you by his holiness and to us show watchful care. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Q: “What does the devil look like?” — Jimmy C., 14

A: As a spirit, Satan has no physical appearance. Nevertheless, he is often depicted as a malevolent beast. And like other angels, he can assume an earthly appearance.

In Genesis, Satan is described as a beguiling serpent (Gen. 3:1); in the book of Revelation, a dragon (Rev. 12:3). In art he is often depicted as a beast with horns or a dark, bat-like figure, sometimes with a goat’s head. Saints such as John Vianney and Stanislaus have seen him in the form of a dog.

But the dangerous form the devil assumes is as an angel of light (2 Cor. 11:14). In this way, he appears to be good but in fact remains evil.

Images of the devil as imps with pitchforks and tails can also be dangerous if they cause us not to take the devil seriously. That, of course, is part of Satan’s plan. He is never so successful as when we make light of, or deny, his existence. As C.S. Lewis noted, the devil’s greatest success is to get us to deny that he exists. Why? Because then we shall not be on guard against him.

Catholic Life Explained: MARY MAGDALEN

Question: July 22 is the feast of Mary Magdalene. I've heard a lot of stories about her, but who was she really?

Answer: Mary Magdalene has been the subject of speculation and scholarship over the last 2,000 years. Mary Magdalene makes her first named appearance in Luke 8:2. She is one of several women following Jesus. Luke specifically mentions that Mary had previously been delivered from demonic possession. Whatever her life looked like before she met Jesus, it wasn't good! Because of this association with being a repentant sinner, Mary Magdalene has been associated with other similar stories in the Gospel, such as the woman caught in adultery or the woman who bathes Jesus' feet with her tears. Mary Magdalene shows up again by name at the end of the Gospels, when she stands with the Blessed Virgin Mary at the foot of the Cross. Mary is also present in the garden of the resurrection. She is one of the women who goes to bring spices to Jesus' tomb, where they find the stone rolled away. Mary stays in the garden weeping, believing his body has been stolen. Jesus approaches her and calls her by name, and she becomes the first witness to the resurrection! While many of the details of Mary Magdalene's life have been lost to time, she is an example of powerful conversion, deep faith, and intimate love for Christ.
