“Lord, teach us to pray.” The disciples are asking how to approach God, how to communicate with Him. Jesus’ answer? Have no fear, and have no embarrassment. God waits at the door. Knock. The conversation is yours to start.

First Reading: Far be it from you to do such a thing, to make the innocent die with the guilty so that the innocent and the guilty would be treated alike! Should not the judge of all the world act with justice?" (Gn 18:25)
Psalm: Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me. (Ps 138)

Second Reading: You were buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the power of God. (Col 2:12)

Gospel: “And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.” (Lk 11:9)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Once I went to a hospice facility to celebrate Last Rites for an elderly dying man. His family had told me that he had been uncommunicative for days. At the conclusion of the ritual, we began to recite the Our Father prayer. To everyone’s surprise, his lips moved, clearly mouthing the words to the Lord’s prayer. Stripped of most of his faculties, the man could still pray those precious God-given petitions. A lifetime of prayer had planted the words even deeper than his failing consciousness.

Do we want the Lord’s prayer to be as deeply embedded in us? If we want to be people of hope, we should. Recall that our Lord immediately follows the prayer by saying: “Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you” (Luke 11:9). We only ask, search and knock because we hope that the request is not in vain. Everything we could possibly hope for is contained in the prayer. Praying the Our Father deepens our hope.

We should consciously pour all our hopes into the Lord’s prayer; we should allow it to be an expression of hope, not simply rote words. Then, over time, it builds up our hope in God. It sinks deep into our souls and bodies. How blessed we are when these words of hope are on our lips, even when everything else seems to fail.

— Father John Muir

The Pope's July Prayer Intention is for formation in discernment: Let us pray that we might again learn how to discern, to know how to choose paths of life, and reject everything that leads us away from Christ and the Gospel.

Prayer For Hope

Lord, Restore my hope!

Where I fear the future, write a new script in my heart.

Where I doubt Your goodness, fill me anew.

Give me steadfast hope for a beautiful tomorrow. Amen.

First Reading: Abraham questions God about how He passes judgment on people. What questions do you have for the Lord?

Catholic Life Explained: WEDDINGS

Question: This time of year, I attend a lot of weddings. Why do Catholic weddings need to take place in a church?

Answer: Technically, there is a clause in Church law that could allow for weddings to take place outside of a church, in a suitable space under special circumstances, but it requires the rare permission of the bishop. But the meaning of marriage goes very, very deep, and the Church has a vested interest in protecting that meaning. As Catholics, we don't see a wedding as an event that needs a pleasing backdrop.

Marriage is a sacrament, both an occasion of joyful promise and symbolic solemnity. It is a spiritual event. The loving bond of marriage symbolizes the mystical union between Christ and his Church. The man and woman profess lifelong vows of fidelity, and they receive supernatural grace from God to keep their promises. Receiving the sacrament of Marriage in a church has broader symbolic meaning for the couple as well. Marriage isn't simply two people in isolation from the world around them. Marriage is the joining of families and the beginning of a new, holy mission in the life of the couple. Weddings are sacred occasions, and it's fitting that they occur in sacred spaces.

We will start thinking about the 2025 Turkey Dinner very soon! Please prayerfully consider how you and your family would like to be involved this year. We have many chair people who have been working this for years and they are eager to train new people! We will also be looking for a couple willing to be turkey dinner coordinators or co-coordinators.

The SSPP annual turkey dinner is a fun way to get to know your parish family and can be a great thing for your whole family to be involved with.

Q: "Is the Catholic religion the only religion that has saints?" — David A., 15

A: All who have made it to heaven are saints. They also happen to be Catholic saints, even if they were originally from another religion, because they now understand and accept the truth, which is Catholicism.

The Eastern Orthodox faith (which broke off from the Catholic Church in the year 1054) also recognizes saints. Protestant faiths and many non-Christian religions have "holy men and women" whom they recognize & honor, but these people are not formally recognized as canonized saints by the Catholic Church, even though they may be in heaven.
