We are the servants and God is our master. He has told us His will, and given us all that we need to carry out His directions. Do we have the courage to act as our master desires? Do we have what it takes to be stewards of God's grace?

First Reading: The night of the passover was known beforehand to our fathers, that, with sure knowledge of the oaths in which they put their faith, they might have courage. (Wis 18:6-7)

Psalm: Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own. (Ps 33)

Second Reading: Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen. (Heb 11:1)

Gospel: Much will be required of the person entrusted with much, and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more." (Lk 12:48)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

There was a young mother in my parish community who was depressed due to financial strain. She prayed for help. One morning before Mass, she placed on the counter a zip-lock bag filled with jewelry and old coins. Smiling, she explained she had been fixing an old cabinet and found the items hidden deep within the walls of her home. One particular coin could be worth as much as $900,000. The contents of the bag—previously unknown to them—were now their prized possession. Their plans changed that week. They had to learn how much it was worth.

This week, the Lord tells us, "For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be" (Luke 12:34). Our lives revolve around what we treasure. When we discover the treasure the Father gives us—the kingdom of God—everything changes. We might not know its precise value, but we rearrange our lives around it. The joy of this discovery should never be far from our minds.

Sometimes we go through times when we can't find this treasure. It seems hidden. Or it appears like dirty old coins and worthless jewelry in a Ziploc bag. But how crazy would my parishioners be if they tossed it away without knowing the cash value? How much crazier are we if we center our hearts on any treasure except that of Jesus and his kingdom?

Remember, the Father is pleased to give it to us. That's why we put our hearts there, even when it is hidden.

— Father John Muir

"You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come." (Luke 12:40)

The call to serve can come in unexpected ways. Show your children the importance of staying open to God's voice by helping them recognize opportunities to serve in the Church. Talking to a priest, religious coordinator, or diocesan vocation director can be a great step for them to understand how to listen to God's direction in their lives.

Catholic Life Explained: PARISH REGISTRATION

Question: Why is it so important that we register in a parish? Isn't it good enough that we go to Mass?

Answer: Registration is the official way we join a parish community. Many people think that because they attend a particular parish they automatically belong. At times, young adults who have moved away for years think they are still signed up under their parents. But membership requires signing up, formally enrolling yourself in a parish. Registration is a commitment to a community, a way to be included in the religious, social, and ministerial activities of your parish. Your registration affects the parish in many ways. Census numbers can determine how many priests are assigned to a church, what benefits and obligations the community has to the diocese, and how Masses, Confessions, and devotions are planned and scheduled.

Registration shows you belong. It is also necessary for certain benefits, like scheduling sacraments, obtaining sponsor certificates, and getting donation statements for taxes. Most importantly, it lets the parish count on you, to call on you to assist in its mission. Registering in your parish is a statement of faith and confidence in the life and work of your parish.

Totus Tuus Day Program

Totus Tuus Night Program

Totus Tuus Day Program Helpers

Hands-down this was one of our best Totus Tuus' ever, even with the overlap of the Cooper County Youth Fair! A good part of the success of the week was of course due to the ministry team – this group was truly one of the best we've had! The impact of their witness, enthusiasm, catechesis, and joyful spirit cannot be measured. This year's program focused on the Joyful Mysteries and the seven sacraments.

The Day Program is for children entering grades 1-6 in the fall. We had 44 children registered and nine student helpers, averaging about 50 students total each day. Becky Brittingham volunteered to be an adult helper all-day, each day, which was amazing! Free hot lunches were provided each day thanks to Mary Herzog (summer care coordinator) and the summer food program at the YCMA which is possible due to federal funding. This was our third year to offer hot lunches. Most children ate (and loved the hot lunches) but some students did bring their own lunches from home.

The Night Program is for students entering grades 7-12. We had 18 students registered. This year, the missionary team opted to meet in the parish office basement which offered a cozier setting and more of a "youth group feel" than meeting at school. It's also closer to church which was nice for evening prayer.

Many thanks to the parishioners who helped in many ways:

- Housing: Father Greg & Karen Hsu
- Lunches: Bredeaux Pizza, Annamarie Smith, Kelsey Slaughter, Hadley Rapp
- Dinners: KaLyn Fuemmeler, Diane Brimer, Jessica Hoskins, Joyce Schuster, and Kathy Lang. (The missionaries certainly ate well while they were here!)
- Monetary Donations: Knights of Columbus, Ladies Auxiliary, Daughters of Isabella, Ellyn Williams, and Linda Grissum.

PARENTS: Save the Date for Totus Tuus in July 2026! It's one of the best weeks of the year!

Q: "Why do altars contain relics within them?" — Ed H., 18

A: The Eucharist is the sacrificial offering of Christ to the Father for us. By means of the Holy Spirit, martyrs united themselves and their sacrifices with the sacrifice of Christ on Calvary. Hence it was fitting that the Eucharist be celebrated over their burial sites. Also, the Eucharist is the presence of the Risen Christ. Offering the Mass at Christian burial sites pointed to the Christian expectation of the resurrection of the body.

As time passed, there were more churches than holy sites. So the Church decided to bring the relic to the church instead of the church to the site of the relic. It was decided to place small pieces of relics in the actual altars in churches.

This Week on Formed

Week of August 10, 2025

Life for Life: Maximilian Kolbe

After escaping from Auschwitz, a man hears the tragic news about ten random inmates sentenced by the Nazis to death as a punishment for his escape—one of whom is Fr. Maximilian Kolbe.

Clare and Francis

This outstanding movie is unique among films about St. Francis because of the historical accuracy of the story and its authentic spirit of joy and piety so characteristic of Francis, as well as the major role played by Clare. Both founded major religious orders, and together they inspired many to follow their radical call to live the Gospel.

The Assumption of Mary

The Assumption of Mary, body and soul in Heavenly glory, highlights the power of God and Christ's victory over sin and death for Mary's soul. Learn about this great mystery in Mysteries of the Rosary.

Our parish has a Formed subscription.
Visit signup.formed.org and select our parish name.

An offering from the AUGUSTINE INSTITUTE

The SSPP Prolife group will meet Monday, August 18, 10:30 a.m. in the parish office basement, to discuss activities for the 2025-26 year. Last year's events will be discussed as the group looks at the needs to protect the joy and dignity of all life, especially, those of the unborn.

The Prolife group hopes to serve the unborn by helping them and their mothers with the resources that are available in Missouri. Over the years concern for mothers who need healing from abortions is being addressed at pregnancy help centers with counseling programs and other organizations such as supportafterabortion.com (844-289-HOPE) and rachelsvineyard.org.

The 2025 Missouri legislation helped protect mothers and babies in Missouri. More information will be placed in future bulletins.

Parishioners can help Boonville's Baby Grace Boutique by donating baby wipes and size 5 pull ups. Donations may be left in the bins at the front entrance of church.

The Baby Grace ministry distributes diapers, baby wipes, and clothing (newborn through age 5) to parents needing assistance to provide for their children. The distribution is held the third Thursday of each month from 5-7 p.m. in the blond brick building to the west of the Nelson United Methodist Church, 407 E. Spring St.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Don't miss the opportunity to visit the Prolife booth at the Missouri State Fair in the Varied Industries Building, Booth 21, at the west end of the building. Pre-born baby models will be on display and prolife swag bags will be available.

The annual My Life Clinic fundraising banquet will be held Friday, September 12 at 5:30 p.m. in Columbia. The Pregnancy Help Center in Jefferson City will host their banquet Thursday, October 16 at 6:30 p.m. at the Capitol Plaza Hotel in Jefferson City.
