Jesus tells us that he has come to set fire to the earth. What can we give him as kindling? Let us look into our souls and see where the fire of Christ can be ignited, and pray that our souls may be consumed by its life-giving flames.

First Reading: Then the king ordered Ebed-melech the Cushite to take three men along with him, and draw the prophet Jeremiah out of the cistern before he should die. (Jer 38:10)

Psalm: Lord, come to my aid! (Ps 40)

Second Reading: Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us rid ourselves of every burden and sin that clings to us and persevere in running the race that lies before us. (Heb 12:1)

Gospel: Jesus said to his disciples: "I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing!" (Lk 12:49)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

During my baseball career, my best coach often said, "You shouldn't be worried if I yell at you. Be worried if I don't. If I stop pushing you, it means I don't think you have any more potential." He demanded a lot, and I knew it meant he saw that I could be something special on the baseball field.

Jesus says some demanding words to us this week. "Do you think I have come to establish peace on the earth?" he asks, "No, tell you, but rather division" (Luke 12:51). He wants you and me—in fact, all the earth—to participate in the luminous glory of God. That's why he speaks of himself as a divine arsonist. Divine fire is like a good coach: it demands the removal of all that obstructs the achievement of the lofty goal.

How is your life demanding right now? That inconvenient family situation, the unfair boss at work, the kids who reject their parents' wishes, the nagging health issue? Maybe things would be more peaceful devoid of these seemingly arbitrary difficulties. But for us who believe in the one who comes to set the earth of fire, we should be much more worried if he stops demanding so much from us. In fact, let's thank him for it. He sees how glorious we can become.

— Father John Muir

The Pope's August Prayer Intention is for mutual coexistence: Let us pray that societies where coexistence seems more difficult might not succumb to the temptation of confrontation for ethnic, political, religious, or ideological reasons.

Prayer For Generosity

Dear God,

In the moments when my faith is met with others' disdain or ridicule, give me the grace to be grounded in You. Remind me that Your mission matters, and that You alone bring comfort, healing, and salvation.

Amen

Catholic Life Explained: QUEENSHIP OF MARY

Question: Why do we have a feast for the Queenship of Mary?

Answer: For many of us, the language of kings and queens may seem like they belong to history or a medieval movie. Royalty have absolute authority over a kingdom and their subjects, a concept that is foreign to many of us today. While Jesus doesn't rule a political kingdom, we honor and recognize him as the King of Kings, Lord of Heaven and Earth. To God alone belongs absolute authority over all of existence.

We may think of queens as the spouse of the king, but there is another key relationship: the king's mother. In Biblical history, we see instances where the mother of the king is given due as a queen herself, complete with a throne! Mary's guiding influence over her Son is seen most notably in the Wedding Feast at Cana. Mary is not Queen on her own merit. She is "full of grace" and "blessed" in "all ages" because of the reign of her Son.

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Vernon Zeller who died August 3.

The Diocese of Jefferson City mourns the unexpected passing of Richard Kampeter, who died August 8, 2025, at the age of 84. A parishioner of St. Stanislaus Parish in Wardsville, Mr. Kampeter and his family have been important supporters and benefactors of our parishes, the diocese and the Catholic Church.

"I ask that all in our diocese join me in praying for the repose of Richard's soul and for the comfort of his family in this time of loss," said Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Diocesan Administrator. "Please keep his family in your prayers, that they may be strengthened by the hope of the Resurrection and the promise of eternal life."

Mr. Kampeter leaves a legacy of faith, generosity, and service that will continue to bless our Church for generations to come. "Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace."

Q: "Are Catholics allowed to have an abortion for any reason?" — Katie V., 14

A: Since abortion is the direct taking of an innocent human life, one may not deliberately have an abortion or assist another in doing so for any reason. I realize there are difficult situations, such as when a pregnancy jeopardizes the mother's life, the child is conceived through a rape or incest or if the child is severely handicapped. These hardships should not be minimized. But, as difficult (even tragic) as they may be, such circumstances do not justify killing an innocent human being.

Furthermore, thanks to modern medicine, situations where the life of the mother is truly at risk are extremely rare.

Direct abortion should be distinguished from indirect abortion, where an unborn child's death is an indirect consequence, and therefore unintentional, due to a necessary intervention to treat a dangerous medical condition. One such condition is the ectopic pregnancy, or a "tubal pregnancy," where the child implants and develops outside the uterus (usually the fallopian tube) and where there can be a serious threat to the mother's life.

Under the moral principle of "double effect," dangerously pathological maternal tissue of the fallopian tube can be removed as a threat to the mother's life, even if the tissue is also the location of the implanted fetus. The death of the fetus is an unfortunate and unintended (although foreseen) consequence of removing the diseased tissue.

Although certain principles can be stated regarding procedures addressing situations such as ectopic pregnancies, the moral evaluation of medical procedures in specific cases can differ. Consultation with a sound Catholic moralist and a medical doctor would be advised in this type of case.

Regarding rape or incest, statistics show the woman carrying the baby will much sooner forget the rape or incest than the abortion. Women know deep down that abortion is wrong. This is why so many women suffer depression and other psychological problems after abortions.

Regarding handicapped children, it is a very dangerous thing when individuals are allowed to decide whether someone else should live simply because that person is perceived to be of less value because of a physical ailment. Since when is someone's value determined by what they do or what they are like? People with handicaps have much to offer society. And even if the person is severely handicapped and unable to function on his or her own, that person is still a gift from God who can bring about tremendous love in the family if they are embraced and viewed with the respect and value they deserve.

We should also be reminded that our Lord wants all involved with the sin of abortion to seek forgiveness. Those who have had abortions are welcomed with open arms if they turn back to God.

COMMUNITY NEEDS ASSESSMENT

Your voice is key to making a difference! The insights you share will directly shape our next three-year strategic plan, helping us better understand the real challenges families face across our 38-county region, so we can design programs that truly empower our neighbors to move from crisis to stability.

Take the 10-minute assessment today.

SSPP families are invited to join the PSR program at St. Joseph in Pilot Grove. This program, for students in K-8th grade, meets Wednesday evenings. Registration and a parent meeting will be held Wednesday, August 27, 7 p.m., in the St. Joseph church basement. There is a registration fee of $20. For more information, contact Regina Reuter: reuter401@gmail.com.

To all who lovingly made/donated meals to Totus Tuus:

A huge, HUGE thank you! We were do well-fed during the week. Your donations of time/love/energy/money have been so gratefully received — everything was tasty and so filling! Without it we could not have performed our mission half as well!

God bless! — Jo, Anna, Harper, and Joe

The SSPP ProLife group will meet Monday, August 18, 10:30 a.m. in the parish office basement, to discuss activities for the 2025-26 year. Last year's events will be discussed as the group looks at the needs to protect the joy and dignity of all life, especially, those of the unborn.

The ProLife group hopes to serve the unborn by helping them and their mothers with the resources that are available in Missouri. Over the years concern for mothers who need healing from abortions is being addressed at pregnancy help centers with counseling programs and other organizations such as supportafterabortion.com (844-289-HOPE) and rachelsvineyard.org.

The 2025 Missouri legislation helped protect mothers and babies in Missouri. More information will be placed in future bulletins.

Parishioners can help Boonville's Baby Grace Boutique by donating baby wipes and size 5 pull ups. Donations may be left in the bins at the front entrance of church.

The Baby Grace ministry distributes diapers, baby wipes, and clothing (newborn through age 5) to parents needing assistance to provide for their children. The distribution is held the third Thursday of each month from 5-7 p.m. in the blond brick building to the west of the Nelson United Methodist Church, 407 E. Spring St.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Don't miss the opportunity to visit the ProLife booth at the Missouri State Fair in the Varied Industries Building, Booth 21, at the west end of the building. Pre-born baby models will be on display and prolife swag bags will be available.

The annual My Life Clinic fundraising banquet will be held Friday, September 12 at 5:30 p.m. in Columbia. The Pregnancy Help Center in Jefferson City will host their banquet Thursday, October 16 at 6:30 p.m. at the Capitol Plaza Hotel in Jefferson City. Please contact Connie Gerling if you are interested in attending either of these events.

Everyone is welcome to join the group and/or participate in any of the activities to protect life. Don't hesitate to give us suggestions.
