From Father Tom

First Sunday of Lent

Last weekend, at the 4:00 PM and 11:15 AM Masses, I spoke about trying to deepen our prayer-life this Lent. I passed out a prayer-guide to help. I thought I would print that prayer-guide in this bulletin for those who were at the 8:30 AM Mass and for those who did not take a copy of the guide with them to use at home.

Find a quiet place where you will be undisturbed. Sit in a comfortable chair. Note the time and then aim for staying in place for a half hour. Place yourself in the presence of God and visualize yourself in the company of Christ. Then follow this format.

Consider these words as coming from the Lord: “My son/daughter, it is not necessary to know much to please me, it suffices to remain in my company and to love me. Speak to me as you would do to your intimate friend.

Have you no one to talk to me about? Tell me the names of your spouse, your children, your grandchildren, your relatives, your brothers, your sisters. After each of these names, tell me what you wish me to do for them. Ask much for them. Ask much. I love generous hearts who forget themselves for others.

Tell me about the sick and the poor that you want me to comfort. Tell me about those you see suffering. Tell me about the stray sheep you see wandering. Tell me about the wicked you wish converted, the persons you have quarreled with, those whom you wish to reconcile with. Say a short prayer for them now. Remember I have promised to hear every prayer coming from your heart.

Have you not some graces to ask for yourself? Tell me all the wants of your soul. If you wish, write them down and read them to me. If not, speak them to me.

Then tell me how you fall short of your hope of living holy life in my image. Don't be discouraged by your sins and faults but look at yourself realistically – a child of God but weak and tempted. Tell me about how sensual, proud, susceptible, selfish, cowardly and lazy you can be. Ask me to come and help you overcome all these failings. Don't blush. There are many of the saints in heaven who had all these faults and asked me to cure them of them and who, little by little, overcame themselves.

Don't hesitate to ask me for the good of the body and the mind: health, memory and success. I can give all, and I give when it is to render the soul more holy. What do you wish today, my son/daughter? If only you knew how I long to do you good!

Tell me about your work and your projects...Tell me all the details, what you think of, what you hope for. Is it to make a living, to give pleasure to your relatives or to those who depend on you? And for me, will you not wish something? Will you not wish to do a little good to the souls of your family and friends whom you love and who perhaps forget me?

Tell me in what do you interest yourself. Explain to me your want of success. I will show you the cause. Whom would you like to have joined you in your plan? I am the Master of all hearts, my son/daughter, and I lead them where I will. I will place those necessary for you near to you, be assured. Tell me about your troubles. Who has pained you? Who has hurt your pride? Who doesn't like you? Tell me, and finish up by saying you will try to forgive and try to reconcile.

Do you fear some trouble? Do you have some fear with reason perhaps but which torments your heart? Confide in me, I am there, I know all and I can help you. Have you family or friends around you who seem less kind, indifferent to you, without, as far as you know, any just cause? Pray for them to me. I will bring them back if they are necessary for your comfort.

Have you no joys to tell me about? You and I know there are countless blessings around. Since yesterday, what gave you pleasure...an unexpected call or visit which cheered you, a fear dispersed, a mark of affection, a note, a present, a trial lifted? All these, I send. Say out loud the words "Thank you". Gratitude brings down blessings and this giver loves to be reminded of your love.

I read the bottom of your heart. You know I do. Know that I am with you always and I see in you the beauty that a father sees in his children. Resolve again to avoid sin, imitate me and stay on the path of life. Stay away from people and things that do you harm, things which excite your imaginations and trouble your peace of soul. Be amiable and gentle with the "rough spirits" you come across in your life. Be silent, modest, submissive to the order of the things I have set in place, and be charitable. Remember you have a Mother in heaven who loves you too and works for your good. And come again tomorrow. I'll be here, waiting. I will have ready for you new favors, new graces and my loving embrace." -- Adapted from "Straight From the Heart" by Fr. Maria Ladra.

News from the RCIA program

One of the goals of Lenten season is to prepare, in a more intensive way, those in the RCIA program for Baptism and entrance into the Church at the Easter Vigil. Our parish's RCIA program currently has 7 people who are in the process of entering full communion in the Catholic Church. The group meets every two weeks for formation, discussion and fellowship, either on Zoom or in-person in the Rectory. Our group is a lively bunch and members are at various stages in the process. This year, we're happy that Robert Cieply will be baptized, receive First Communion and be confirmed at our Easter Vigil on April 3rd here in St. Mary's. He has prepared well, attends Mass each week, and is looking forward to being one with the Lord and with us. We congratulate him and welcome him with open hearts! Parishioners Gordon and Jean Paul have recently been named co-leaders of the program. We thank them for their commitment.

Marriage Congratulations

Congratulations to Madeline Campbell and Alexander Wright who were married in our church on February 13th by Father Liam Condon. May God bless you abundantly as you begin your married life together.

Baptismal Congratulations

Congratulations to the Dailey family on the occasion of the baptism of their infant daughter, Olivia, who was baptized in our church on February 7th by Deacon David Powers.

Forty Days for Life

40 Days for Life 2021 will run from February 17 - March 28. 40 Days for Life is a focused pro-life campaign with a vision to access God's power through prayer, fasting and peaceful vigil to end abortion. The campaign mission is to bring together the body of Christ in a spirit of unity during a focused 40 days of peaceful activism with the purpose of repentance, to seek God's favor to turn hearts and minds from a culture of death to a culture of life. Please contact John O'Brien for information, 518-480-9740.

Liturgy of the Word this weekend: Forty days from now we will find ourselves at the foot of the cross. How can we prepare ourselves for this? Jesus' words at the beginning of his ministry are apt: "Repent, and believe in the gospel." Let us ask ourselves how we have sinned. Let us feel remorse for those times we have fallen short. Let us resolve to turn back to God and live out the gospel in our day-to-day lives. Let us find ourselves able to approach the cross forty days from today with profound gratitude for what our Lord has done for us. Amen.

Stations of the Cross

Stations of the Cross will be held at St. Mary's every Friday at 6:30 PM during Lent. Stations will be led by individuals, and Covid-19 policies will be followed.

Walking with Purpose

The Walking with Purpose parish program at St. Mary's Church would like to extend an invitation to any interested woman to attend our next Connect Coffee talk on Feb 24, 2021, (5:30-7:00 pm) either virtually or in person (adhering to all social distancing guidelines). If in person, we meet at 'The Meeting Place' (33 Lawrence Street, Glens Falls). The topic for this lesson is: What is the Role of Suffering in my Life? Walking with Purpose is a Catholic Bible study that aims to bring women to a deeper, personal relationship with Christ through personal study and small group discussions that link our everyday challenges with solutions given to us through the teachings of Christ and the Catholic Church. As our past participants have said "it allows for many to get to know Christ in an intimate way, such that your love and faith grows stronger" and "... it will change your life in a positive manner, grow your faith and allow you to make meaningful friendships" For more information please contact Kathy McNulty @ 518-502-3974 or at kmcnulty5@hotmail.com. We hope to see you soon!

Just who is "an active parishioner"?

We want all our parishioners to be active members of our community. Don't sit by the sidelines and feel disconnected. Here are some criteria to become a more active member of our parish: (1) attend Sunday Mass each week, (2) attend Mass on Holy Days of Obligation, (3) volunteer to help on the annual Festival or other parish events, (4) get involved in an ongoing parish ministry (Parish Council, Lectors, Extraordinary Ministers, Sacristans, Ushers, Faith Formation catechist, etc.) (5) attend the spiritual enhancement programs in the parish, (6) weekly or monthly use of parish envelopes or commitment to ongoing financial giving, (7) get on the list of The Evangelist, the diocesan newspaper, by calling the Rectory (it is free).

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

St. Oscar Romero said, "Aspire not to have more, but to be more." These powerful words provide the perfect framework for a conversion oriented Lenten experience. God is giving us this Lenten sign to stop being concerned about what you have and focus on who you are. This requires that we create a desert space and listen more attentively for God to reveal His presence. It is all so wonderfully simple on the one hand and so incredibly challenging on the other. The message is simple: love God, neighbor, and self. Those simple words make great sense, but we struggle translating them into reality. Our attachments, compulsions, obsessions, addictions, routines, and busyness all anchor us to the "idol of the self," keeping us mired in our compulsive need for self-aggrandizement. It's not about us!

God vowed, long ago, to nurture, sustain and protect the relationship He has with His people. He called us into being, nurtures us in being, and sustains us in being. Without the Loving Divine Presence, all life would cease. Once we slow down a bit and clear away some of the clutter, we can see how the journey of our life is unfolding. We can see what brings us in and out of tune with God's love and how we can better imitate God's loving fidelity in our relationship with Him. In short, we will see our myopic short sightedness and figure out how we can better share the Divine Fire within with others. Lent isn't just about giving stuff up for forty days and indulging again at Easter. We need to push things much farther and wrestle with the question of how we can be more. "Being more" means becoming more fully alive and in touch with the holiness of life and the divinity that lives in and empowers all beings and things. It is realizing that the "quality" of our presence is crucial to being an effective witness and herald of God's unconditional love.

The illusion we have bought into causes us to believe that the wrong things and systems matter. We tirelessly fight to keep things the way they are, to return to the former ways of doing things or restore some nostalgic fantasy memory of "life in the good old days." Lent isn't about maintaining what we have or returning to something that is gone. It's about becoming something new. It's about being more focused, centered, convicted, and grounded so that we can be a person who truly loves and treasures being made in the image of God. The secret to Gospel living is not found in accumulating anything for ourselves, even merit points for heaven. Gospel living means learning how to live with less so that others can live with more. The thought of permanently giving something up makes us feel uncomfortable. Truth often does.

After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel." - Mk 1:14-15

Scripture Readings for the First Sunday of Lent

Sunday, February 21, 2021

First Reading: Gn 9:8-15

God said to Noah and to his sons with him: "See, I am now establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you and with every living creature that was with you: all the birds, and the various tame and wild animals that were with you and came out of the ark. I will establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all bodily creatures be destroyed by the waters of a flood; there shall not be another flood to devastate the earth." God added: "This is the sign that I am giving for all ages to come, of the covenant between me and you and every living creature with you: I set my bow in the clouds to serve as a sign of the covenant between me and the earth. When I bring clouds over the earth, and the bow appears in the clouds, I will recall the covenant I have made between me and you and all living beings, so that the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all mortal beings."

Second Reading: 1 Pt 3:18-22

Beloved: Christ suffered for sins once, the righteous for the sake of the unrighteous, that he might lead you to God. Put to death in the flesh, he was brought to life in the Spirit. In it he also went to preach to the spirits in prison, who had once been disobedient while God patiently waited in the days of Noah during the building of the ark, in which a few persons, eight in all, were saved through water. This prefigured baptism, which saves you now. It is not a removal of dirt from the body but an appeal to God for a clear conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers subject to him.

Gospel: Mk 1:12-15

The Spirit drove Jesus out into the desert, and he remained in the desert for forty days, tempted by Satan. He was among wild beasts, and the angels ministered to him. After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel."

Your ways are love and truth. Psalm 25

Something to think about

"Never throw away hastily any old faith tradition or convention... they are the result of the experience of many generations."

- Sir Oliver Lodge

GOSPEL

Every day turn back to God. If your bedroom is messy, straighten it up. If you push your sister off her bike, help her get up and ride again. If you tear down your brother's blocks, help him build something new. If you disobey your parents, go and do the right thing right now. Ask God to help you stay close to him today. Then you will be close to him in heaven forever.

PRAYER

Holy Spirit, help me remember to obey you every day.
