

12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?"

Happy Father's Day

I want to wish all fathers, grandfathers, godfathers and step-fathers a Happy Father's Day. Today is your special day! May God bless you and keep you strong. May he continue to shed countless blessings upon you, your spouses and your children.

(Below is an article written by Deacon Mike Monagle as he reflects on Father's Day. I thought you would enjoy it.)

As I reflect on Father's Day, the word that comes to mind is "thankfulness". Among the many things I'm thankful to my father for is teaching me how to hunt and fish; how to shoot a basketball; how to change a flat tire; how to play cribbage; for assistance when I needed help; the importance of self-discipline and hard work; how to be respectful to others; and how to live out the vocation of husband and fatherhood. Most of all, I'm thankful for his role in sowing the seeds of faith in my life.

As a father myself, I know that all dads want the best for their children – a good education, self-confidence, success, prosperity and happiness. As a Catholic man and father, my deepest desire is that my children come to establish a deep and lasting relationship with Jesus Christ and His Church. Yet I know from the polls, discussions with other dads, and my own experience, that only about 20% of our young adults who were raised Catholic attend Mass on a regular basis, and over 1/3 of them no longer identify with any religion. What's a father to do?

Our readings for Father's Day give us some guidance. In the first reading from the prophet Ezekiel, the Lord tells us, "I, the LORD, bring low the high tree, lift high the lowly tree, wither up the green tree, and make the withered tree bloom." Jesus repeats this message in Mark's Gospel, "This is how it is with the kingdom of God; it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land and would sleep and rise night and day and through it all the seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how." What our God is telling us is that He is the one who is in charge of the growth of the Kingdom of God. My role as a father is to plant the seeds, then trust that God's love will make that seed sprout and grow.

As fathers, our mission is to bring our children up in the Church – sowing the seeds of faith and making sure they are watered by the sacraments. For some, the seeds will sprout straight away. For others, it may take longer. For still others, there may be a long period of drought before the seed springs forth, but we dads will continue to courageously pray and patiently trust in our God that His Spirit will gradually surge up and yield fruit. So...thank-you to my earthly father for planting those seeds and faithfully praying that they one day might bear fruit, and thank-you to my Heavenly Father for giving me the grace to allow it to happen, and His forgiveness for those times when I got in His way.

The Journey to the Priesthood

Dear St. Mary's,

After the ordination to the priesthood this weekend, I will be moving out of the rectory soon and into another assignment for the summer. Although I don't yet know where this assignment will be, I'm sure the information will be posted when it is made public later this week.

Please know of my deep appreciation for your kindness and generous support over these past two summers. You have seen me through the important years of ordination to the diaconate, the final year of seminary, and now ordination to the priesthood. It all started on the livestreamed Masses while the church was closed last year for Lent, and now, thank God, I've been able to see many of you in-person over the past month. My sincere thanks go especially to Fr. Tom for giving me the opportunity to become a part of the parish during these years.

My vocation to the priesthood began at my home parish of Corpus Christi and is strengthened through praying and interacting with parishioners like you here at St. Mary's. Please continue your prayers for me and the seminarians and priests of our Diocese and be assured of my prayers for you. I'll be in Rome for another two years for further studies, so if you're headed over there, feel free to get in touch!

God bless all of you. St. Mary's and Glens Falls will remain an important part of my story.

Special Volunteer Ministry

We have a Special Volunteer ministry that is good for our retired men and women with flexible schedules. We need volunteers to join our special group of Sextons. Sextons are needed to set for Funeral Masses and Wedding Masses. Funerals are celebrated usually on weekday mornings, and weddings usually on weekends. If you feel called to this ministry, contact the Rectory or Deacon Dave at 518-792-0989. We will show you everything you need to know.

Media Update

We hope that our communications continue to reach our parishioners and our surrounding community. During May, the Facebook post with the most reach had over 1010 people reached, with 106 engagements. This means that there were more than 1000 unique visitors who viewed the post, and 106 people were "engaged" with the post (liked, shared, tagged, etc.). On average, St. Mary's Church has had 328 viewers per Livestream Mass on our Facebook page, and has been keeping steady throughout the return to in-person Mass. In the past 30 days on Flocknote, our main method of communication with the community, 24 notes were sent, and 82% of our members on Flocknote were reached. On our website, the ability to purchase Mass cards and schedule Mass Intentions online has been a positive step, and last month, we were able to schedule 10 Mass cards through the service. We encourage those who have not signed up for Flocknote to do so at <https://stmarysglensfalls.flocknote.com/everyone> (or scan the QR code). St. Mary's loves being able to keep in touch with you and your family!

Do you know someone homebound?

Our parish is trying to update its list of homebound parishioners. We need your help. If you know of someone who is confined to their home and who might want us to check in on them, please call the office and let the Secretary know. Occasional visits by pastoral ministers or our clergy might be very much appreciated. Currently, we have about two dozen names but we know there are a lot more in our community whom we might assist. Let us know if we've forgotten or overlooked someone.

Make an Impact—Donate

The contributions you make to St. Mary's make a difference to our parish and extended community. There are various ways you can donate. Baskets are set out during services and electronic giving is available for 24/7 donations. See our website stmarysglensfalls.org. "Honor the Lord with your wealth, with the first fruits of all your crops" (Proverbs 3:9).

How to react to change

Everything changes. Then it changes again. Life is change. We change as we grow. We all like to stay in our comfort zone and stick to what we already know, so change can be very challenging and daunting. In fact, we're hardwired to resist circumstances where the outcome is uncertain, and we naturally look to more predictable and comfortable events. But managing and embracing change is a key factor to a happy life. Whether it be a new job or place to live, new technologies to learn, new leaders or unpredictable events like the pandemic we've gone through, change is inevitable and will appear in most aspects of life. We need to accept and embrace it, and not be afraid of it. Change can be a great benefit. It brings great surprises and opens up new horizons. It keeps us young, flexible and challenged. It makes life an exciting adventure as we take part in a journey of mystery, discovery and differing viewpoints.

Liturgy of the Word this weekend: In today's Gospel, we hear Jesus calm the raging sea as his disciples cling to the storm-tossed boat. The disciples were terrified that they would die, but Jesus suggests that their faith should have reassured them. Many of us can probably recall a time when our father came to our rescue, protecting or supporting us, making everything all right. Today, we honor our dads, our grandfathers, godfathers, uncles, and all who have acted as fathers in our lives. May their protection and constancy be a model of God's care for us. Amen.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

As we look at our lives and world events, do we ever find ourselves wondering if God is sleeping? After all, maybe God's patient, unconditional love has run its course and He is finally fed up with humanity's reluctance to accept the truth about who we are. God really can't be that patient! All throughout human history, many have prayed to God for intervention or for particular needs. Because their prayers were not answered in the way they wanted or anticipated, they felt that God may have abandoned them. Were they right? It seems that we are continuing, at a rapid rate, down a path of destruction. Do you not care, God, that we may be perishing? When the boats of our lives are rocking and the seas tumultuous, we want to know that we have God's attention. Even more so, we want God's intervention.

Maybe the storms and the waves are necessary. If we listen, they can teach us valuable lessons. Without them, we would never learn that we have the strength to endure, understand the uselessness of fear and worry, or develop the ability to really trust. If God immediately rushed in and simply calmed things down before they got difficult, what good would that really be? We would miss opportunities to learn how to drink more deeply of life, treasure its complexity, irony, and beauty and fully engage ourselves in surrendering to the love of our Creator. It is easy to walk on the surface of life without immersing ourselves in its messiness. Life has to burn its way through us in order to bring us to a place of secure trust. It is unfortunate that some prefer a shallower journey.

That's the balancing act that comes with faith. It is not God's job to prevent us from encountering the torrential rains and winds of life. Many believe that if faith is done the right way, that God will provide for smooth sailing. That's not how it works. God permits us to ride out the difficult stuff knowing that the storm will eventually be calmed. Do we not have faith that God will do this? True faith trusts in the steadfastness of God's love when the seas are calm and when they are choppy. God's unconditional loving presence shines through all of it and endures forever. Knowing this allows us to put our boats out into uncharted waters without hesitation. Knowing that we prefer the comfort and safety of what we know to be still waters, how do we feel when Jesus says, "Let us cross to the other side"?

"Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. They were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?" - Mk 4:38c-39, 41

Scripture Readings for the Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Jb 38:1, 8-11

The Lord addressed Job out of the storm and said: Who shut within doors the sea, when it burst forth from the womb; when I made the clouds its garment and thick darkness its swaddling bands? When I set limits for it and fastened the bar of its door, and said: Thus far shall you come but no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stilled!

Second Reading: 2 Cor 5:14-17

Brothers and sisters: The love of Christ impels us, once we have come to the conviction that one died for all; therefore, all have died. He indeed died for all, so that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. Consequently, from now on we regard no one according to the flesh; even if we once knew Christ according to the flesh, yet now we know him so no longer. So whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come.

Gospel: Mk 4:35-41

On that day, as evening drew on, Jesus said to his disciples: "Let us cross to the other side." Leaving the crowd, they took Jesus with them in the boat just as he was. And other boats were with him. A violent squall came up and waves were breaking over the boat, so that it was already filling up. Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion. They woke him and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" They were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?"

Summer hours for Adoration and Exposition of the Most Blessed Sacrament are 1:00 -6 :00 PM on Wednesdays.
