7TH
SUNDAY OF EASTER

Dear Fellow Parishioners & Friends of St. Josephine Bakhita Parish:

In recent weeks, the Sunday gospel readings have focused intensely on love, and we have come to understand that to love someone is to help that person thrive and flourish. And what do we call people like that? Friends. I wonder...what does a friend look like? A friend invests themselves in their friends. Their joys and sorrows, their successes and failures become their own. A real friend is a liberator. They help their friends break free of old habits, old fears, old hates and from thoughts that have grown too small. An awesome friend knows how to tell the truth, but always gives the truth as a gift, not as a punishment, a "put-down" or in revenge. And until they can give that truth as a gift, they remain silent. A true friend is smart. They know what seems to really matter and what does not. They know when to listen, see and act. When appropriate. They remember how much they do not know, too.

And finally, a good friend is faithful and knows how to forgive and forgive...just as the Lord does for us.

What other marks of a true friend would you consider as essential to this powerful relationship?

Whether we are young or old, parent, spouse, clergy, single or a kid, being a true friend is heavy lifting and takes heart, commitment, and patience. If our friendship with all humanity is to take hold, we first must be rooted in the love and friendship with our God. And unless we learn how to befriend one another, the big family of creation we long for will never come to be; Jesus' coming will have been a waste of time; and our lives will have been a tragic failure.

Take time this week, in the glow of Easter, and ponder the meaning of friendship and how it can be a blessing for you, your family and God's big family. It is what we were created for, and it brings with it a taste of that awesome joy that is uniquely God's! Finally, I promised to many of you that I would share and publish here a quote I recently used in my homily by Fr. Karl Rahner, SJ and may be vaguely appropriate to the reflection I just shared about friendship: "The number one cause of atheism is Christians. Those who proclaim him with their mouths and deny him with their actions is what an unbelieving world finds unbelievable." Wow, that is thought provoking! Yikes!

Peace and blessings,
Fr. George

SO YOU'RE THINKING ABOUT Becoming Catholic?

Times such as those we are living through now often prompt people to examine what we believe, how we make sense of the world & examine just what we live by, & why, & where "all seems to be going". If you are interested in how Catholic Christian faith may relate to these questions, explore these realities & the possibility of becoming a Catholic, we are certainly happy & eager to help. Maybe you know someone who may be interested as well. We're glad to help them out too if we are able. If so contact Dcn. Michael at dcnmichael@sjnrh.org (best) or call 860-529-3222 Ext 14 leave a message & we'll get back to you.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

There's No Place Like Home

Where do you get the best night's sleep? For me, it's in my own bed. I don't even really know why. There's something about the texture of the sheets, the groove I've worn in the pillow. The mattress seems to recognize my shape. I've got a job that sees me traveling often and I've stayed in plenty of nice places. But there's just no sleep like the sleep you get at home.

There's a feeling that we have when we're at home. Our bodies seem to recognize it when we walk in the door. There's a relaxation that kicks in, a peace that falls over us. I think that's what Heaven will be like. It won't be pleasure or happiness — those words aren't enough to describe what it feels like to be at home, are they? It's more than that. If you ever wonder why there is pain in this world, it's because we're not at home.

That's not to say we don't belong here. Through God's mercy, this beautiful world is where we live out our earthly existence, and those existences can be filled with amazing relationships and profound experiences. In fact, we might enjoy our time here so much that we don't want to leave. But there's a reason this life has so many things that don't make sense: loss, fear, anger, sickness, hatred. It's because we weren't made for this place. For our souls, it's like a never-ending night in a hotel bed.

REFLECTIONS: Religious Orders

Question: What is the meaning of the letters that professed religious have after their names?

Answer: The Catholic Church includes hundreds of religious communities. The priests, religious brothers, religious sisters, and nuns of these communities (which are often referred to as "religious orders") are committed to particular spiritual traditions and often to a particular charism (such as teaching, healthcare, social work, or pastoral care).

To help identify a person as a member of a particular religious community, the custom developed of including post-nominal letters that provide a sort of shorthand for the name of the community that the priest, brother, sister or nun is part of. So, for example OSB after a person's name would indicate that they are a member of the Order of St. Benedict (the Benedictines), just as SJ would indicate that a priest or brother is a member of the Society of Jesus (the Jesuits) or RSM would show that a woman is a Sister of Mercy.

Other common examples include:

DC = Daughters of Charity

FSC = The Brothers of the Christian Schools/Christian Brothers

OCist = The Order of Cistercians

OCD = Order of Discalced Carmelites

OFM = The Order of Friars Minor (the Franciscans)

OFM Cap = The Capuchin Franciscans

OP = The Order of Preachers (Dominicans)

OSF=Franciscan Sisters

SC = Sisters of Charity

SDS = Society of the Divine Savior (Salvatorian Priests and Brothers and Salvatorian Sisters)

SSND = School Sisters of Notre Dame

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

May 16, 2021 - 7th Sunday of Easter

God remains where love remains. When a believer realizes without doubt that God is love, it is a powerful moment. Being able to place our resurrection trust in this fundamental truth allows us to experience God's presence in all of our experiences: the good and the bad, positive and negative, life enriching and destructive events we encounter. It is no wonder that St. Paul so accurately tells us that it is love that endures all things and lasts. How can God not endure or ever fade away? Because he is God, Jesus also guarded and protected his disciples as the endearing shepherd who always had their best interest at heart. If we become too immersed in the world, we lose touch with these deeper realities. We can become so preoccupied with preserving what we have created or think that we need, forgetting that it is not building our city that really matters, but God's. Jesus clearly did not belong to the world and, by virtue of his resurrection, he tries to get us to understand that we do not either. The truth brings us to other worldly, more divine places and takes our eyes off of the concerns that often captivate our fears and storm our senses. Life can easily erode our faith. Think of your life over the last couple of weeks. What challenged your faith and distracted your divine glance? Even being overly stimulated with technology and social media can erode our sense of confidence and cause us to forget who we really are. We need to distance ourselves from the world in order to experience the joy that Christ offers. The world will never like the word of God. It is too challenging and too perplexing. The world mistakenly believes that it can survive on its own. It is a mistaken judgment that may cost people a lot in the end. It is all so very simple: God remains when we love one another. If in all the business of our lives and all that each day brings, the good and the bad, we follow the call and path of love, we will walk with God. There is nothing to fear and anxiety finds no home.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE BY BUD OZAR
MAY 16, 2021 - 7TH SUNDAY OF EASTER
Jesus was worried about His disciples and He turned to prayer. No matter how much time we spent trying to "guard and protect" our children, each day they become less dependent on us and we must let go and let God. Prayer and parenting go together.

Seeking Gardening Help at St. James

There are two projects for people with greenish thumbs.

You’ll note that flowers from the property are used to decorate the altar area now through the Fall. I would like help in propagating the flowers. There is a fallow area near the rectory that could be put to use as a flower garden, with your assistance. For our other project, parishioner, Mary Roche, who kindly took care of flowers in the front of the building is no longer able to help. We thank her for her assistance and the beautiful pots that she brought each season to decorate our entrance. If you would like to help in maintaining this small area or if you want to start a flower garden, Call Joy at 860-529-8655 X17 or email Joy@SJBRH.org. Thanks!

All BULLETIN announcements must be submitted to the Rectory office by Friday at Noon to be included in the following weekend’s bulletin - please remember to submit early due to available space—we always try to honor all submissions possible. You may email your request to Pam and Carrie at office@sjbrh.org

Catholic Facts - Did you Know?

While the cross is a predominant Catholic symbol, it actually greatly pre-dates Christianity and, is, in fact, one of the most ancient human symbols. It may be seen as the union of divinity (the vertical line) and the world (horizontal line).

Important Reminder: Weekly Offertory Envelopes

Please remember when dropping off weekly offertory envelopes at the Rectory office to use the slot in the front office door-safe and secure. Please Do Not place in the regular USPS mailbox-the postal carriers will take your envelope thinking it is outgoing mail and may become lost with no postage on it. Thank you in advance for your help! We are grateful for your generosity.
