

Saint Josephine Bakhita Parish

15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them. - Mk 6:7, 13

Parish Giving

Due to Early July 4th Holiday submissions of the bulletin, you will notice our Parish Giving total will be delayed.

Carrie and Pam
Rectory Office Staff

DEAR FELLOW PARISHIONERS AND FRIENDS OF ST. JOSEPHINE BAKHITA PARISH:

I heard recently that there was a small ad in a local newspaper that got lots of attention: "For sale: one pine coffin, unused, $400. Changed plans!"

If we learned anything this past pandemic year is that plans do change. Don't they ever! I think life ceaselessly confronts us with unexpected turns of events. Again and again, we have high hopes for amazing projects, and then unforeseen things intervene.

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus talks about one such experience. He sends out his apostles—with high hopes—to share the Good News. But he tells them in advance: No matter how good your news is, some are not going to be interested; some will be angry at you for even raising the subject! And boy oh boy was Jesus right.

So, what are we to do when our best efforts at sharing our gifts, or our insights, or our faith are rejected, sometimes with brutal coldness? What are we to do, especially when those who are brushing us off are people we really care about and love?

The Gospel for this 15th Sunday in ordinary time seems to suggest an answer from Jesus. He tells us that after we have done our best, and we are sure that there is nothing more that can be done, "shake the dust of the place off your feet," and move on. Put it in God's hands, and let it go! Not with ugly words or hateful glares, but with a peaceful heart. Give your disappointment, your hurt, your anger, to God, and let it go.

Does that mean we give up on people or cut them out of our lives? I think not! I think it means that we are learning to recognize the situation when we have truly done our best, and then facing the hard fact that all we may have left to give is our quiet good example and our prayers.

The dust we are asked to shake off our feet is not the other person, or even our hopes. It is our disappointment, our feelings of rejection, our nagging, and perhaps even a little judgmental anger. Those do have to go, and that can be very hard to do. Peace!

I would like to encourage you to consider and participate in the FORWARD WITH FAITH campaign that we embarked on for the sake of our parish and the Archdiocese of Hartford. It is a very real and concrete way of supporting our mission and ministry. Your substantial sacrificial gift or pledge will secure the continued forward movement of our parish. I am sincerely asking for your help and am very grateful to those who have already made the financial commitment. This past week brought us to 83% of our parish goal. Thank you!!

Peace and blessings,

Fr. George

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE BY BUD OZAR

JULY 11, 2021

Jesus sent out His apostles without many "things" because THINGS distract. We collect, argue about and protect our "things." Garage sales only transfer "things." We even ignore each other because we have "things" to do. What "things" are separating you from your family?

CONGRATULATIONS to all the students in our parish who have recently graduated! We ask God's blessing upon all of you and pray that God will continue to be by your side through all of your life's journeys. Your parish community will always be here for you and be a place to call home as you continue on your path in life.
Wishing you Peace and Joy!

Prayer for Graduates

Thank you, Lord!

For the reaching of this end

And for this new beginning

For the joy in finished aims and goals

And the evidence of winning

Have mercy on these graduates

As they bask in their successes

Please guide them to their destinies

And show them love that blesses

We ask for You to lead each one

Through missteps they may suffer

On the road to gaining wisdom

Finding faith and hope that buffers

Please touch each heart with joy and peace

As Commencement gives promotion

And fill each life with love's increase

Of strength and deep devotion

For this eager class of graduates

Beribboned with degrees

Please bless them at this starting gate

With all the keys they'll need.

Thank you, Lord

- Linda Germain

JULY 30TH INTERNATIONAL DAY AGAINST HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Viewed through the lens of Catholic social teaching, human trafficking is a crime against the most basic aspects of human dignity and human rights. I therefore invite & encourage you to participate in a recitation of the rosary at St Elizabeth Church at 6:30pm Friday evening on July 30th to pray for the victims of human trafficking. Barbara

Gomez, member of the Human Trafficking Task Force at the Office for Catholic Social Justice Ministry of the Archdiocese of Hartford, & of St Josephine Bakhita Parish.

"I urgently appeal to all men and women of good will and all those near or far,,,not to turn away from the suffering of our brothers and sisters, our fellow human beings, who are deprived of their freedom and dignity. Instead, may we have the courage to touch the suffering flesh of Christ, revealed in the faces of those countless persons whom he calls "the least of these my brethren." " (Mt 25:40,45)

Pope Francis, World Day of Peace Message,2015

Sincerely, Barbara Gomez

Join Our Ministry of Greeters

Our parish greeters are entrusted with promoting a sense of community and warmth to all who come to worship. They are the first point of contact for the celebration of the Liturgy and play a vital role in creating a feeling of welcome and a sense of belonging. Join our ministry.

SEWERS, KNITTERS & CROCHETERS: THE PARISH NEEDLE MINISTRIES INVITE YOU

The Saint Josephine Bakhita Parish Knit, Crochet, Sew & Pray Ministries have resumed in person gatherings.

The Knit, Crochet & Sew Good Works Ministry meets every Wednesday in Fr. Shea Hall at St. James Church from 1pm to 4pm. The sewers will meet inside Fr. Shea Hall and the knitters and crocheters will meet outside in the shade (weather permitting).

Contact: Sandy Rokosz at sandyrokosz7@hotmail.com

The Prayer Shawl Ministry meets at St. Elizabeth Seton. The morning group will meet on the 4th Monday of each month at 9am and the evening group will meet on the 1st Monday of each month at 7pm.

Morning Group Contact:

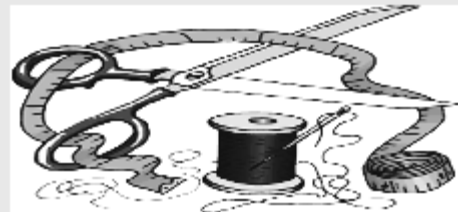

Betty Catelli at catellib64@gmail.com

Evening Group Contact:

Laura Pentland at lpent57@gmail.com

Our Needle Ministries are open to anyone who has the skills to sew, knit or crochet or would like to learn how. Whether you knit or crochet quickly or slowly, your help is welcome to fulfill the mission of spreading God's love through our craft. It is our hope that those who receive our crafts will feel the love that goes into making each and everyone of them. Our time together begins and ends with prayer and all creations are prayed over and blessed prior to being gifted.

Need a prayer shawl or lap blanket for yourself or someone else? Please contact Laura Pentland, Betty Catelli or Sandy Rokosz.

Giving Garden Needs Help

We need help picking and delivering vegetables when our committed team members take some time off this summer.

There are weeks in July and Aug where we need someone, once/week. If you can't pick but can drive the veggies to St. Vincent de Paul in Middletown, or vice versa any help would be appreciated. Many of our volunteers say that delivering is the best part of the ministry as you get to meet the chefs who are so grateful. If you can help, please email Claire at ckdalidowitz@snet.net

Office Hours: The parish office at St. James campus is open for business. You may stop by between the hours of 9:00am and 2:30pm (Monday thru Friday)

Not Baptized, and want to be, or do you know someone who is interested?

Because the questions that our Catholic faith addresses are perennial, constantly present in our lives, there are always people interested. Who am I? Why am I here? What am I, or all of us, to do? Is "this" all there is to life? Pray, huh? What does God, and this Jesus, & the Catholic Church have to do with all of this? Wrestling with & responding to these questions & more are part & parcel of coming to the Catholic faith. If you, or someone you know, is on a search like this we can help with that.

Contact Dcn. Michael at: dcnmichael@sjbrh.org or call 860-529-3222 Ext.14 & leave a message.

"NOT CONFIRMED?...
WANT TO BE?"

Well...it's never too late. Even if you are way "past the age"...or even a little;) ...and not yet Confirmed...you can be. You certainly are not alone. Many, for a variety of reasons, find themselves in this situation. We can help with that!

If you have not yet received the Sacrament of Confirmation Saint Josephine Bakhita will be offering preparation sessions for those who may wish to be confirmed this spring. Contact Dcn. Michael for details at :

dcnmichael@sjbrh.org or call 860-529-3222 Ext.14 & leave a message.

Are you looking for some Spring reading? Food for thought? Chicken Soup for the soul? Please check out the selections in our Little Free Libraries located on the campuses of St. James & St. Elizabeth Seton. Take a book, leave a book, enjoy reading!

All BULLETIN announcements must be submitted to the Rectory office by THURSDAY AT NOON to be included in the following week-end's bulletin - please remember to submit early due to available space—we always try to honor all submissions possible. You may email your request to Pam & Carrie at office@sjbrh.org

Important Reminder:
Weekly Offertory Envelopes

Please remember when dropping off weekly offertory envelopes at the Rectory office to use the slot in the front office door - safe and secure. Please Do Not place in the regular USPS mailbox the postal carriers will take your envelope thinking it is outgoing mail and may become lost with no postage on it.
