DEAR FELLOW PARISHIONERS AND FRIENDS OF ST. JOSEPHINE BAKHITA PARISH:

You may not be aware, but this month of July marks my 5th anniversary of my assignment to Rocky Hill by Archbishop Blair. The first year, I was assigned to St. Elizabeth Seton Church. The next four years, assigned to the merged churches of St. James and St. Elizabeth Seton now called St. Josephine Bakhita Parish. To be honest with you it has been a mixed bag of emotions and thoughts...but it has also been a rewarding and a most exciting time of my life as a priest. I believe that our coming together only brings us strength and makes us a brighter light of faith in our community.

The general success of our merger, although still challenging at times, is due to the openness and respect of all the parishioners, the staff, the volunteers, the deacons, etc. After these five years in town, I hope you have come to know me by my constant theme of gratitude. One parishioner reminded me that I don't have to say "thank you" all the time. It is just in my DNA to express my gratitude often and sincerely. I can hear the voice of my mother, Yvette, speaking to me even today, "George, don't forget to say thank you!!" I'm especially grateful for all the blessings that God has showered on me and this community.

I could go on for pages and pages listing the people, things, and reasons for my gratitude. But I will just point out the most recent reason for my gratitude. It is the awesome openness and generosity that many have shown in supporting the recent Bishops Foundation Campaign, "Forward With Faith". As of this past week we have reached 94% of our shared goal of $875,000. Indeed, our future, as a parish, and the future of the mission and ministry of the entire Archdiocese will be a bit more secure due to this generosity. I strongly believe we will meet our goal and exceed it in the weeks ahead. I always hesitate and shy away from saying that our future depends on financial support. For our true strength is in our personal and communal faith and spiritual lives. Of course, that is true! But, like you, I have a very practical side that realizes that our mission and ministry depend on good, honest, and solid stewardship of time, talent, and TREASURE.

I would like to encourage you, once again if you have not already done so, to consider and participate in the FORWARD WITH FAITH campaign that we embarked on for the sake of our parish and the Archdiocese of Hartford. It is a very real and concrete way of supporting our mission and ministry. Your substantial sacrificial gift or pledge will secure the continued forward movement of our parish. I am sincerely asking for your help and am very grateful to those who have already made the financial commitment. This past week brought us to 94% of our parish goal. Thank you!!

Peace and blessings,
Fr. George

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Steward's Work Is Never Done

Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock! When you hear these strong words from the Old Testament, you're probably thinking, thank goodness I don't have any sheep — dodged that bullet. Nobody misled here! No flock scattered on my watch! However, we are all shepherds of a kind, called to tend our own sheep: our families, our parishes, our communities.

But it's exhausting. Don't we all sometimes just want to take a break from being a steward? The excuses are so familiar: we're tired, we've done enough, we've given all we can, what more does the parish (or my spouse, or my kids, or my boss, or my friends, or my community) want? We give ourselves permission to be selfish. So, what if the flock scatters just a little? Jesus gets that. We can just imagine him weary with exhaustion, can't we? We see him on his boat, attempting to sneak away for a quick break — maybe just a chance to eat a bite of food in peace. He is God, but he was still human, after all. Even the most dedicated shepherds need to sleep. But people couldn't leave him alone. They were hungry for him. They needed what he could offer, and they needed it now.

As tough as it is, that's the example we are tasked with imitating. Everyday Stewardship demands accountability. It demands our showing up even when we are tired. It demands that we look at our lives, our time, our energies, our talents, our hearts, our bank accounts and think: where do I still have more to give?

WORLD DAY AGAINST TRAFFICKING IN PERSONS
JULY 30TH

JULY 30TH
INTERNATIONAL DAY AGAINST HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Viewed through the lens of Catholic social teaching, human trafficking is a crime against the most basic aspects of human dignity and human rights. I therefore invite & encourage you to participate in a recitation of the rosary at St Elizabeth Church at 6:30pm Friday evening on July 30th to pray for the victims of human trafficking. Barbara Gomez, member of the Human Trafficking Task Force at the Office for Catholic Social Justice Ministry of the Archdiocese of Hartford, & of St Josephine Bakhita Parish.

"I urgently appeal to all men and women of good will and all those near or far ,,not to turn away from the suffering of our brothers and sisters, our fellow human beings, who are deprived of their freedom and dignity. Instead, may we have the courage to touch the suffering flesh of Christ, revealed in the faces of those countless persons whom he calls "the least of these my brethren." " (Mt 25:40,45)

Pope Francis, World Day of Peace Message, 2015

Sincerely, Barbara Gomez

Faith in Marriage

Question:

What kind of religious practices should we begin, once we marry, to help us practice our faith each day?

Answer:

Your spiritual life as a couple is important. The sacrament of Marriage is a gift and a grace, but living it well isn't always easy! It requires intentionality and perseverance. Growing your spiritual life as a couple also requires a plan. Life can be incredibly busy. There's never "enough time" for everything we want to do. But we can live by our priorities. If we don't prioritize prayer, we'll find it slowly disappear from our lives.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE BY BUD OZAR
JULY 18, 2021

In today's gospel, "the apostles gathered around and told Jesus all they had done." Listening allows the other person to express, understand and appreciate their experiences. Whether it is the excited chatter of a young child or the repetitious stories of an aging grandparent, listening is important. It is not just time spent, it is sacred time.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE July 18, 2021— 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

There's an ordinary pine grove located on a tree farm not too far from town where life's stresses and demands seem to melt away. It is here that all that seemed so important out there no longer is and one can get lost in the rows of trees and majestic beauty. God is here and all is good. We need to connect with the Divine Source of all that is in order to understand what it is we are doing and why we are doing it. Otherwise, things stop making sense and bitterness can overcome one's spirit. It's okay to play once in a while and to discover that place of profound life and peace. People always have needs and there is constantly something to do. And while all of that is necessary and we are needed, there is also that inner solitude within that needs to be celebrated and released. We all need a pine grove. It's that little place we can go and leave all that consumes us behind. It's a place where technology can be set aside and wonder, and awe given some time. We don't have to text, calculate, or orchestrate anything in the pine grove. It is a somewhat deserted place where all of that can be set aside and we can just be. The anger, frustration, exhaustion, discouragement, helplessness, and occasional apathy, all can fall to the ground like all of those pine needles that once held their place on the branch of a Fraser Fir. The needles can let go. We can let go. We are beings connected with Being and we all need to remember what really matters, who really matters and what life is truly all about. We need to find that place where we can rest and let go of all of the barnacles we accumulate. Rest, breathe, seek, and love. The world will need us again when we leave the pine grove. It will all be waiting for us, beckoning for our attention. But we will have prayed and will have marveled at the silence and the beauty of goodness. We can go back, ready, and eager to listen, to help, to heal, to cry, to embrace, and attend to all that is asked of us. But, having let go of the distractions in that deserted place we will have a renewed sense of purpose. We will know better Who it is we serve and what we are meant to do. It will all be clearer now that we have been Divinely touched and refreshed.

Not Baptized, and want to be, or do you know someone who is interested?

Because the questions that our Catholic faith addresses are perennial, constantly present in our lives, there are always people interested. Who am I? Why am I here? What am I, or all of us, to do? Is “this” all there is to life? Pray, huh? What does God, and this Jesus, & the Catholic Church have to do with all of this? Wrestling with & responding to these questions & more are part & parcel of coming to the Catholic faith. If you, or someone you know, is on a search like this we can help with that.

Contact Dcn. Michael at: dcnmichael@sjbrh.org or call 860-529-3222 Ext.14 & leave a message.

“NOT CONFIRMED?... WANT TO BE?”

Well...it’s never too late. Even if you are way “past the age”..or even a little;) ...and not yet Confirmed...you can be. You certainly are not alone. Many, for a variety of reasons, find themselves in this situation. We can help with that!

If you have not yet received the Sacrament of Confirmation Saint Josephine Bakhita will be offering preparation sessions for those who may wish to be confirmed this spring. Contact Dcn. Michael for details at :

dcnmichael@sjbrh.org or call 860-529-3222 Ext.14 & leave a message.
