32nd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury."

SAINT JOSEPHINE BAKHITA PARISH
WEEKLY SUPPORT *10/31/2021

Weekly Offertory:	$ 7,866.00
Online (weekly & maintenance):	$ 3,960.00

DEAR FELLOW PARISHIONERS AND FRIENDS OF ST. JOSEPHINE BAKHITA PARISH:

Greetings and blessings!

Monday, we celebrated the Feast of All Saints....the folks who have graced our own lives with their holiness. And I believe we have all known saints, men and women who lived the Beatitudes (Matthew 5:1-12) …the gospel we read for the Feast Day…. that may not be on the official list of the 10,000 canonized saints. And so let us reflect a bit on the Beatitudes as a way of reflecting on those saints from the past and who live among us now:

With gratitude, we honor this All Saints Day "the poor in spirit": those who taught us that the important things in life are the things of God: compassion, gratitude, mercy, and generosity.

We honor those who "mourned," who inspired us by their courage in dealing with illness and loss and who comforted us in our sorrows.

We give thanks for the "meek" in our lives, who did so much good for us and others by the humble but joyful simplicity of their lives.

We remember those who taught us to seek justice and mercy for all.

We count among God's saints the "pure of heart": those who showed us how to pray not only in words but in actions, who taught us by the example of their lives how to become the sacrament we receive at the Lord's table.

And we seek the continued help and wisdom of the "peacemakers" we have known, who always brought comfort, solace and unity to our families, church, and communities.

This All Saints Day is the time to realize the continued presence of these holy men and women in our lives: to give thanks to God for these saints who, in our memories of them, continue to bless and grace our lives with the lights of God's compassion and peace as we struggle to become, like them, people of the Beatitudes.

Two questions: Of the many canonized saints…who inspires you the most? Of the people in the circle of your present day lives…who (the uncanonized) inspires you the most?

Peace, Fr. George

CONTEMPLATIVE DIALOGUE ADVENT SERIES

Come and join fellow parishioners for this 5-week series that will be held on Mondays from 7:15 - 8:30 beginning on November 29th. First time participants are asked to arrive 15 minutes early (7 pm) for a brief orientation. We will be reading 'bridges to contemplative living with Thomas Merton'. Each week, there are selected passages that participants read and reflect on in silence. There is then a sharing period when members may choose to share how certain parts of the readings were meaningful and relevant in their lives. Everyone is asked to listen to each other's sharing respectfully. To listen deeply is to cultivate inner silence.

These sessions will be hybrid - both in person in Classroom G at the SES bldg and on Zoom. If you would like to participate, please sign up on the sheets located at the rear of St. Elizabeth Seton or St. James by November 7th to allow sufficient time to order and receive books before our initial session. Please contact Maryann Lonergan (at 860-635-7726 or mca0711@sbcglobal.net) with any questions or for more information.

THANKSGIVING FOOD BASKETS We're Back! Now that Covid 19 has calmed down a little, we at Saint Josephine Bakhita Parish will be collecting Thanksgiving food "baskets" for families within our community on the weekend of November 20/21 so that they can be delivered before Thanksgiving. Rocky Hill Human Services is asking for "generic" baskets for families of four to six people. If your family or group would like to donate a basket, please sign up on the sheet located in the Foyer of either church so we know how many to plan for. If we get enough, some will also be donated to Catholic Worker in Hartford. Please bring your basket (any container is acceptable as long as it looks nice) to the Rectory garage at Saint Elizabeth Seton's or Father Shea hall at St James on Saturday afternoon or Sunday Morning. A list of suggested items is available in the Foyers to help you with your shopping. Please do not include perishable foods. People will be given gift certificates to use for their turkey etc.

During this weekend we will also be collecting grocery store gift certificates which Rocky Hill Human Services will add to the baskets when they are distributed. Please bring the gift certificates to Mass November 20/21 and place them in the collection basket or mail them to the church office in time to be there that weekend.

Trick or Treat - Sweet Feet Repeat Last year our Confirmation classes collected candy and new socks as part of their Sweet Feet Project. They filled men, women and children's socks with candy and delivered them to numerous agencies as a special gift for Christmas. The project was huge success, and we would like to "repeat" it again this year but need lots of donated candy and socks. From now until the beginning of December, drop new socks and candy in the boxes labeled Sweet Feet Project located in the foyers of both churches. Thank you for making Christmas a little "sweeter" for others. Questions? Contact Carol Rizzo at confirmation@sjbrh.com

This is depleting the nations blood supply. All eligible donors are encouraged to schedule appointments now.
