Fifth Sunday of Lent

"Let the Church always be a place of MERCY and HOPE, where EVERYONE is WELCOMED, LOVED and FORGIVEN."

-Pope Francis

Holy Week is Next Week - Included in this bulletin on page 4 is our complete schedule for Holy Week beginning with Palm Sunday. We will follow our regular Sunday schedule next week-end and palms will be distributed at all of the Masses. There will not be any other distribution of palms.

Life is often filled with routine and busyness. If we allow that busyness to dictate our lives we can often miss out on important moments. The same is true if we never think to change up the routine of our lives. I encourage you to look over the Holy Week schedule carefully and plan now to enter into this very special time of prayer and reflection. May it be an opportunity to receive God's grace and be drawn deeper into the Paschal Mystery of the Lord's Passion, Death, and Resurrection.

Sacrament of Reconciliation - During Lent, more than any other time of year, we see so clearly how much Jesus loves us as we meditate on his death on the Cross for the forgiveness of our sins. I invite you to avail yourself to God's mercy by making a good confession before Easter.

When someone comes into the confessional who has been away for a while 5, 12, 26, 40+ years (just this season 60 years) the reasons vary widely why they have been away, but my response always begins with, "Welcome Back." All that is important at that point is that the person is there now, not that they have been away. Last week's gospel of the Prodigal Son and Merciful Father made that point. The experience will be different for each, but there is almost always a real sense of satisfaction and feeling a whole lot better with the words of absolution.

As numerous as the reasons why someone has not been to confession are the reasons why they have come back. One reason why people come back to the Sacrament of Reconciliation that might surprise you is because someone close to them (spouse, sibling, good friend) provided the example for them and in some cases actually invited them to accompany them when they were going to confession. Did you ever consider, in a kind, gentle, non-judgmental way think about inviting someone to join you when you are coming to confession? The buddy system can work. Maybe the Lord could use you to bring someone closer to Him?

Mercy Mondays - We have two Mercy Mondays left this lent. Four Friars will be available this Monday and next to hear confessions from 7pm to 8pm. Every parish in the Archdiocese will also have time for confessions on the Mondays of Lent. Go to <http://www.Confessionmondays.com> to find out those times and places. I remind you that we also hear confessions every Saturday from 8:30 to 9:30am and then again from 3:00 to 4:00pm. On the Mercy Mondays we also have Eucharistic Adoration. Come and spend some time in prayer.

Ushers and Greeters Meeting Thursday - In preparation for Holy Week and Easter there will be a meeting for all current ushers and greeters and anyone who would like to become an usher or a greeter this Thursday, April 7 at 6:30pm in St. Paul

Church. Please contact Deacon Don to let us know if you would like to be a Greeter or an Usher at any of the Masses: deacondon@stpaulkensington.org or 413-320-5778

Update on the Ukraine Collection - As of Tuesday, March 29th we received another $3,165 in donations to help the people of Ukraine bringing the total thus far donated to more than $18,000. These donations have been and will continue to be forwarded onto the Franciscan Friars serving in Poland and Ukraine. Thanks also to those who made a donation through the Knights of Columbus. The information for how to give is once again in this week's bulletin.

Stronger Together - As of March 28th, 282 of our parishioners had made donations and pledges totaling $47,946 which is 44% of our $108,000 goal towards this year's Archbishop's Annual Appeal. The average gift of those who have given is $170. Last year 597 parishioners donated $128,124. If you have not made your pledge or one time gift, please prayerfully consider how you can help. I especially encourage those who have not supported the appeal in the past, to make a gift this year. So far we have 14 first time givers to the AAA. Thank you to the 1st timers and all who have donated! Please remember all gifts, no matter the amount, are important and helpful!

Ministry Fair - Like many things the last two years we have not been able to hold our annual Ministry Fair. I am very happy to say the Ministry Fair will be back this year on the weekend of Pentecost, June 4 & 5. So save the date and begin to listen for how the Holy Spirit might be calling you to share your God-given gifts and talents with the parish and larger community. Much more information will come, but it will be held after all Masses that weekend in the school gym.

St. Paul School Auction - Before COVID, the school normally held its yearly auction on the last Saturday of March, but this year it was decided to hold it in May in case it had to be outside again as it was last year under the tent on the Parish Green Parking lot. The auction date this year is May 14. Watch for more information in coming bulletins.

Final Thoughts - I will be able to watch the NCAA Men's Final in relaxation as I have Duke in the Final Four in one bracket and Kansas in another, but I do not have either winning. I am rooting for Coach K and Duke. The Lady Huskies are making another run after the double OT game against NC State, but did they get past Stanford? The Bills are getting a new $1.4 billion dollar stadium and thus staying put for the next 30 years. Will that be enough time to win that elusive Super Bowl? They certainly want

Von Miller to help them get it this year. Meanwhile the Orioles are still looking for a legitimate starting rotation. Only two weeks of Lent left so let us put some extra effort in our lenten practices this week. Have a good week and hopefully warmer! - Fr. Joe

Confession and "Easter Duty"

Catholics beyond the age of discretion are obliged to confess all mortal sins at least once a year and are recommended to do the same with venial sins (Canons 989 & 988.2). All Catholics are also obliged to receive Holy Communion at least once a year and specifically during Easter time ("Easter Duty"), that is between the Feasts of Easter (April 17) and Pentecost (June 5) (Canon 920).

Gospel: John 8:1-11

Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. But early in the morning he arrived again in the temple area, and all the people started coming to him, and he sat down and taught them. Then the scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery and made her stand in the middle. They said to him, "Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery. Now in the law, Moses commanded us to stone such women. So what do you say?" They said this to test him, so that they could have some charge to bring against him. Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with his finger. But when they continued asking him, he straightened up and said to them, "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." Again he bent down and wrote on the ground. And in response, they went away one by one, beginning with the elders. So he was left alone with the woman before him. Then Jesus straightened up and said to her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?" She replied, "No one, sir." Then Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin any more."

CROSSWORD

Across

- The place where people gathered to hear Jesus speak.

Down

- Today is the Fifth Sunday of ____.
- Another word for rock.
- The Gospel is from the Gospel according to ____
