33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Let the Church always be a place of MERCY and HOPE, where EVERYONE is WELCOMED, LOVED and FORGIVEN."

-Pope Francis

Anointing of the Sick Next Weekend - As previously announced, we will celebrate the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick after all weekend Masses next weekend, November 19 & 20. Mass will take place as usual and then after the closing hymn is finished those wishing to receive the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will move to the front of the new wing (at Sacred Heart just come to the front of church) and be seated in EVERY OTHER row so that the priests can easily come to you for the laying on of hands and the actual anointing with the Oil of the Sick which will take place on your foreheads and the palms of your hands. If you are not sure if you should receive the Sacrament I refer you to last weekend's bulletin where that was discussed. If still unsure just ask one of the Friars.

Children's Mass - Beginning next Sunday, November 20th at the 10:30am Mass, we will begin having a Sunday liturgy geared more towards the children who are at that Mass. Some of our younger parishioners will take on some of the liturgical roles at the Mass, our burgeoning Children's Choir will provide some of the music, and the homily will be geared more to the youth in attendance. Initially this will be at one Sunday Mass a month and the Mass will rotate among the Sunday morning Masses at St. Paul except the 7:30am Mass.

1, 2, 3, Thank You! - We have a dedicated group of volunteers who count the weekly in pew collections every week. A member of this crew, Elva Stregowski, has opened her last envelope and counted her last dollar after doing this for at least a dozen years, maybe even a baker's dozen! Elva, thank you for your loyal and dedicated service to this ministry and for upholding the trust and responsibility that each counter carries in fulfilling their duties. Over the years Elva has also been involved in the Ladies' Guild and New Britain Council of Catholic Women. She has also been one of our famed bakers having been chairwoman of the Ladies' Guild bake sale for a few years. She has also helped out at other parish events including the Parish Picnic. Thank you Elva!

Charity Starts at Home - If you know of a family in the parish or in the neighborhood who is in need of help please let us know. You can put their name and address on a piece of paper and drop it off at the office or put it in the collection basket or mail it in to the parish office.

Angel Giving Tree - The Angel Giving Tree will be set up before Masses next weekend (Nov. 19/20/). You are invited to take an angel(s) from the tree and buy the item(s) listed so that the recipient(s) will be able to share a bit of joy in receiving a gift at Christmas that they would not otherwise receive. This outreach to the less fortunate is part of the good work that our Social Action Ministry undertakes. A small tree will also be set up at Sacred Heart. Sacred Heart Church is open for private prayer on Sundays from 10am to 3pm, Wednesdays from 5:30 to 8:30pm and on Saturdays from 9 to 11am. There will also be some angels on line as of November 19th as well. All gifts will need to be received by December 11th.

Forward With Faith Update - Due to the generosity of our parishioners we are now over $1 million dollars in pledges and donations! A reminder, that since we have exceeded our goal of $975,000 the parish now receives back 80% of all donations to help us with projects that have been outlined for the parish. As of Monday, November 7th pledges and donations now total $1,029,468 which is 86% of our need of $1.2 million. Pledge forms can be dropped off at the parish office, mailed in or you may place them in the collection basket. If you are including a payment please make all checks payable to Forward with Faith. Once again thank you to all of the donors and may the Lord bless you abundantly for your goodness!

Berlin Fair Wrap Up - As with the Raffle Report last week, this one has been waiting in the wings for space too. The Berlin Fair had an exceptional four day run this year aided considerably by perfect weather. Once again dozens of parishioners put in lots of time and effort over the four days. The number of volunteers and the total number of hours that the volunteers put into this effort is such a wonderful thing to behold. Thank you to each of you, the long time veterans as well as the new volunteers this year!

For those who give leadership to this endeavor, it is not just the weekend, but all of the work that goes into it before and after the Fair opens and closes. The complexity of the Fair and its administration continues to increase and thus so does the work for the leadership team. Please join me in offering a personal word of gratitude to those who gave leadership to this year's Berlin Fair: Amy Audette, Andrea Cofrancesco, Helen deRito, Linda Stickel, Eileen Thurston, Nancy Timbrell, and Ewa Whiteside. Their extensive planning and prudent decision making help the parish benefit greatly. Thanks to all who supported them in these efforts as well.

The gross income from the two booths was $45,486 while the expenses to operate both booths totaled $22,881. So the net profit from the two booths during the Fair itself was $22,605 which is a $1,170 increase over 2021. During the course of the year we had repair and maintenance expenses for the two booths of $798 so the overall net for the year is $21,807. Let us give thanks to the Lord for the blessings he has shared with us from the success of the Berlin Fair for the community and our parish.

Saint Michael the Archangel,

Defend us in battle.

Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou,

O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits,

who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Thanksgiving Schedule - The Parish Office will be closed Wednesday, Thursday and Friday (Nov. 23-25) for the Thanksgiving holiday. There will be one Mass on Thanksgiving Day at 9am and one Mass on the day after Thanksgiving at 8am.

6th Annual Lighting of the Parish Green - This year's Lighting of the Parish Green will be Saturday, December 3rd following the 4pm Mass. The form for the Luminaries is in the bulletin. So please join in the festivities that will include the walkways lighted with the luminaries, carols, complimentary cookies and hot chocolate, and of course the Lighting of the Green, Manger Scene and the Christmas tree. In order for your luminary to be printed in the program it must be received by December 1. See page 8 for all of the info you need!

Save the Date - The Parish Christmas Concert and Greccio, Franciscan re-enactment of the birth of Jesus, will be held on Sunday, December 18 at 5:00 p.m. in St. Paul Church.

Final Thoughts - The Astros won the last three games to take the WS in six games. (Even a blind squirrel finds a nut every so often!) The current state of the game was on full display in the WS as a pitcher throwing a no hitter through six innings gets taken out of the game. In the "I have to trust the analytics and not my eyes" world of baseball, Zack Wheeler is pitching a great game for the Phils also to get yanked. Managers seem to be managed by the analytics office too much. The only place the Bills are having trouble is in their own division (0-2). Five teams in the AFC have six wins at the half way point (BUF, KC, MIA, BAL, NYJ). Will they all make the playoffs? Have a blessed week everyone! - Fr. Joe

Gospel: Luke 21:5-19

While some people were speaking about how the temple was adorned with costly stones and votive offerings, Jesus said, "All that you see here-- the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone that will not be thrown down." Then they asked him, "Teacher, when will this happen? And what sign will there be when all these things are about to happen?" He answered, "See that you not be deceived, for many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he,' and 'The time has come.' Do not follow them! When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for such things must happen first, but it will not immediately be the end." Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be powerful earthquakes, famines, and plagues from place to place; and awesome sights and mighty signs will come from the sky. "Before all this happens, however, they will seize and persecute you, they will hand you over to the synagogues and to prisons, and they will have you led before kings and governors because of my name. It will lead to your giving testimony. Remember, you are not to prepare your defense beforehand, for I myself shall give you a wisdom in speaking that all your adversaries will be powerless to resist or refute. You will even be handed over by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends, and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance you will secure your lives."

The Culture of Life Ministry would like to extend a huge "thank you" to all who participated in the Fall 2022 40 Days for Life Campaign activities and baby item drive! We have been blown away by the generosity of our parishioners. You all really showed up in a big way for these mothers and their babies! Your kindness will make such a difference in the day-to-day lives of the families in our surrounding towns. Every little bit truly counts, and we are just so thankful to you for your prayers, presence, and joyful giving! May God continue to bless you and our parish as we look ahead to the next big event - The 50th Annual March for Life in Washington, DC on January 20, 2023! Stay tuned!" [Photos are from the Laying of Flowers at the Memorial to the Unborn on Nov. 5th.]

ANGEL TREES Our 2022 Angel Trees will be up next weekend, Nov. 19/20, in both St. Paul & Sacred Heart Churches. All are invited to take an Angel (or a few) from the tree, purchase and wrap the gift noted on the back of the Angel, and return the gift, with the Angel attached, by Dec. 11th.

The gifts will be distributed to several local organizations including the Klingberg Family Center, Worthington Manor Retirement Center, Ledgecrest Health Care Center, CCARC, and more. The gifts listed on the Angels were specifically requested by clients/residents at these local facilities

The Angel Tree Project will also support the Boxes to Boots organization this year. Parishioners are invited to purchase $25 Amazon gift cards for this charity. (Boxes to Boots was formerly named Hero Boxes and was established by Berlin's Karen Cote in 2015.)

More details will be shared next weekend in the bulletin and on our website.
