2nd Sunday of Lent

"Let the Church always be a place of MERCY and HOPE, where EVERYONE is WELCOMED, LOVED and FORGIVEN."

-Pope Francis

Lenten Evenings of Reflection - A reminder that our Lenten Evenings of Reflection, whose theme is "The Sermon on the Mount and the Lord's Call to Ongoing Conversion", will be held next week on March 14, 15 and 16. See page 7 for the schedule for those evenings. All are welcome to join for all or some of the evenings. While the theme centers on the Sermon on the Mount, each evening's reflection is independent of the other as is each day's Mass. One of the Friars will celebrate the Mass and give a brief homily on that day's readings and another Friar will then lead each evening's reflection. At the end of the last evening there will be a social in the Church Hall on the eve of the Feast of St. Patrick.

Lent and Almsgiving - Prayer, fasting and almsgiving are the three pillars of our Lenten practices. Like fasting and prayer, there are many different ways for us to practice almsgiving. Locally, as a parish, we have our ongoing collections for our St. Clare's Food Pantry see page 7 for the items that are currently needed. In addition, our Social Action Ministry kicked off its Lenten Collection on Ash Wednesday. Once again this year the Lenten Collection is supporting the Prudence Crandall Center, Family Promise of Central CT and Underground New England (UGNE) which is a faith-based initiative working to end sex trafficking and sexual exploitation. UGNE provides prevention tools and awareness, but also directly supports victims and survivors during a period of transition in their lives. This collection is not food, but other basic necessities that are needed. See the article on page 8 for more information. There are posters and containers at the entrances where you can drop off your donations at both worship sites.

Last week we listened to Archbishop Blair's homily and the importance of the Archbishop's Annual Appeal, His Sacrifice, and ours. We as a parish have a very important role in providing for needs that extend beyond our parish and which the Archdiocese is better equipped to provide than we are. Please be as generous as you were last year in your support, and a bit more if you can, and if you have not made a donation to the AAA in the past I encourage you to do so this year.

Lastly, we will also be asked to help those in need on the national and international level. There will be a second collection on March 18/19 for Catholic Relief Services (CRS). The CRS Mission "promotes human development by responding to major emergencies, fighting disease and poverty, and nurturing peaceful and just societies." CRS always responds to large natural disasters and that is currently the case in Turkey and Syria. "CRS will support emergency relief efforts led by local partners in both Syria and Turkey with Caritas Internationalis, Caritas Syria in Aleppo and Lattakia—where extensive damage has been reported—and other local partners. Already in Turkey, Caritas Internationalis, in coordination with authorities, is bringing displaced people to safe, open spaces and distributing hot meals and clothing."

Paschal Candle Memorial Available - The preeminent symbol of the Easter season is the Paschal Candle which stands tall in the sanctuary during the Easter Season and then is used primarily at all Baptisms and funeral Masses throughout the year. We do not purchase a new Paschal Candle for Sacred Heart Church every year since its use is much more limited, but our current one at SH has become puny looking. If you would like to make a Memorial Donation in honor of a loved one for the Paschal Candle for use at Sacred Heart Church, contact the Parish Office. The cost of the candle this year is $150. Months ago a parishioner asked about making a memorial gift for the St. Paul Paschal Candle and so that one is already taken.

1st Confessions Coming Up - Keep our third graders in your prayers this week as they prepare for their first confessions on Saturday, March 11th. They have been preparing at home and in class to receive the benefits of Jesus' love and mercy through the Sacrament of Reconciliation. The children will come in two groups at 9:30 and 11:00 on Saturday. As a result we will not be able to have any funerals on March 12th.

Confirmation Students - Our 2nd year Confirmation candidates had their retreat last Sunday in preparation for their Confirmation on May 6th at the Cathedral of St. Joseph in Hartford. Their sponsors joined them for the last part of the day which concluded with time to talk among themselves and for prayer before the Blessed Sacrament. Their sponsors will be accompanying them and praying for them especially in this time leading up to their Confirmation. But, I also ask that each of us also prays for them as well. We know well the challenges they face in the world of today and so let us pray for them and for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon them.

Rite of Sending Catechumens and Candidates to Continuing Conversion - Last Sunday at the 9:00 am Mass in a Rite of Sending, we formally sent our catechumens Myreon Colon, Jeffrey Kemper and Angelica Rodriguez to the Cathedral to participate in the Rite of Election conducted by Archbishop Blair. The Rite of Election closes the Period of the Catechumenate. At this rite, upon the testimony of sponsors and catechists and the catechumens' affirmation of their intention to join the Church, the Church makes its "election" of these catechumens to receive the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist) to which they will be admitted at the upcoming Easter Vigil on April 8th. In addition, we also sent Alexander Dionne to the Rite of Calling Candidates (those baptized in another Christian denomination or a baptized Catholic who never received any religious instruction as is the case for Alex).

Verse Before the Gospel: Cf. John 4:42, 15

Lord, you are truly the Savior of the world;
give me living water, that I may never thirst again.

Gospel: John 4:5-42

Jesus came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of land that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there. Jesus, tired from his journey, sat down there at the well. It was about noon. A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." His disciples had gone into the town to buy food. The Samaritan woman said to him, "How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?" —For Jews use nothing in common with Samaritans.— Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, 'Give me a drink, ' you would have asked him and he would have given you living water." The woman said to him, "Sir, you do not even have a bucket and the cistern is deep; where then can you get this living water? Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us this cistern and drank from it himself with his children and his flocks?" Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again; but whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life." The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may not be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water." Jesus said to her, "Go call your husband and come back." The woman answered and said to him, "I do not have a husband." Jesus answered her, "You are right in saying, 'I do not have a husband.' For you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true." The woman said to him, "Sir, I can see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain; but you people say that the place to worship is in Jerusalem." Jesus said to her, "Believe me, woman, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You people worship what you do not understand; we worship what we understand, because salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when true worshipers will worship the Father in Spirit and truth; and indeed the Father seeks such people to worship him. God is Spirit, and those who worship him must worship in Spirit and truth." The woman said to him, "I know that the Messiah is coming, the one called the Christ; when he comes, he will tell us everything." Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one speaking with you." At that moment his

They now begin a Period of Purification and Enlightenment — the final, intense preparation for the reception of the Sacraments of Initiation. On the 3rd, 4th, and 5th Sundays of Lent, the catechumens will participate in three scrutinies (rites for self-searching and repentance) and the presentations of the Creed and Lord's Prayer take place. I ask all parishioners to remember Myreon, Jeffrey, Angelica and Alex in your prayers.

St. Patrick's Day and a Friday of Lent - In that St. Patrick's Day falls on a Friday this year, Archbishop Blair offered this statement: "I formally dispense those for whom this is an especially joyful celebration from the Lenten obligation to abstain from meat that day. Inasmuch as fasting is a spiritual good, meant, in the words of the Catechism, "to help us acquire mastery over our instincts and freedom of heart," I encourage them to choose another day during that week on which to transfer the Lenten abstinence."

Final Thoughts - March is here and so the Madness will soon begin. The tournament never seems to disappoint. Spring training games are already showing a quickened pace. The game might become "watchable" again. Let's bear down on our lenten practices. Have a blessed week. - Fr. Joe disciples returned, and were amazed that he was talking with a woman, but still no one said, "What are you looking for?" or "Why are you talking with her?" The woman left her water jar and went into the town and said to the people, "Come see a man who told me everything I have done. Could he possibly be the Christ?" They went out of the town and came to him. Meanwhile, the disciples urged him, "Rabbi, eat." But he said to them, "I have food to eat of which you do not know." So the disciples said to one another, "Could someone have brought him something to eat?" Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of the one who sent me and to finish his work. Do you not say, 'In four months the harvest will be here'? I tell you, look up and see the fields ripe for the harvest. The reaper is already receiving payment and gathering crops for eternal life, so that the sower and reaper can rejoice together. For here the saying is verified that 'One sows and another reaps.' I sent you to reap what you have not worked for; others have done the work, and you are sharing the fruits of their work." Many of the Samaritans of that town began to believe in him because of the word of the woman who testified, "He told me everything I have done." When the Samaritans came to him, they invited him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days. Many more began to believe in him because of his word, and they said to the woman, "We no longer believe because of your word; for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the savior of the world."

Our 10th graders attended their 2nd year Confirmation Retreat on February 26 here at St. Paul. It was truly a blessed time! A huge thank you to our grade 10 catechists and helpers who volunteered to lead small group talks - Todd Cusano (who was also a speaker), Micaela Fitzsimmons, Suzy Gujda (who was also a speaker), Milena Miele, Bob Fischer, John Norton, and Denise Nowakowski; Stephanie Spinetti who provided us with her beautiful voice during Eucharistic adoration; Fr. Joe and Fr. Michael; and Dan Tome, our Youth Minister, who helped organize the event. As part of the retreat, the confirmand's sponsors joined the students at the end of the retreat for Eucharistic adoration after they enjoyed dinner and an enrichment session led by Fr. Joe.

Our St. Paul Parish CHILDREN'S CHOIR rehearses on Wednesday evenings in church from 6:00-6:30pm. All are welcome to join! If you would like your child to sing with the choir or if you have any questions, please contact Cheryl Kramer-Tierney 19ckt64@gmail.com
