Special Welcome to Our First Communicants - Last weekend and this weekend at the 4:00pm and 10:30am Masses, 90 of our 3rd graders are receiving their 1st Holy Communions. We are so happy to welcome them, their parents, godparents, grandparents and indeed all who are visiting our parish this week as they celebrate this very important day with our 1st Communicants. These are very special moments for our 3rd graders as well as for the parish. Might I suggest that if you see one or another of them all dressed up that you personally congratulate them as well. I will have more to share next week about them and all who helped them arrive at this special day.

Lord Jesus Christ, bless the children coming forward to receive Holy Communion for the first time. May this day be the step toward a life-long love of the Eucharist. Give them a hunger for this sacred food so that they turn to you for comfort, guidance, and wisdom as they grow into full discipleship. Thank you for their innocence and goodness. May their hands, extended to receive you, inspire all of us to cherish even more this most sacred Sacrament. Amen.

Happy Mother's Day - On this Mother's Day we lift up in prayer and remember with gratitude and affection all of our mothers, who as an instrument of God, brought us into the world. May our Blessed Mother, to whom this month is dedicated, intercede for all of our moms living and deceased. Once again this year I include the two Mother's Day prayers that follow. The first, A Mother's Prayer below, is by an anonymous author. The second, on page 4, is an adapted version of a prayer whose author is also not known. Happy Mother's Day to all moms! May the Lord bless you abundantly and for those who have gone before us, may they now be at peace.

A Mother's Prayer

Lord, give me strength just for today
To lead my children in your way;
Oh, give me wisdom, Lord, and grace
To show to them your precious face!

And help me, Lord, to teach them, too,
The things of Christ so rich and true,
Just let them see in me, dear Lord,
Your holiness in life and word.

Keep me from sinning with my tongue,
From harsh, quick words that might have stung
Their tender hearts that trust me so
And watch to see which way I go.

Dear Father, keep my thoughts so pure
That they will always know for sure
My Lord has led me all the way,
Lord, grant my prayer just for today.

Mother's Day Memorials - In the bulletin today is the listing of all who donated toward the Mother's Day Memorials. We will print any memorials that were received after the May 3rd deadline in a future bulletin. The nine Mother's Day Novena Masses are for all of these intentions.

May Crowning - The school children will have their annual May Crowning of Mary this Tuesday, May 14th during a school wide Mass at 8:45 am. All parishioners are invited to attend the Mass and May Crowning.

Knights of Columbus Mother's Day Flower Sale - The Knights of Columbus are having their annual flower sale this weekend under the gazebo on the Parish Green. After the Masses they will also have some flowers in the school parking lot near the playground. Take care of mom and support the Knights too for all the good work they do for the parish.

Next Weekend is Pentecost & our Parish Ministry Fair - "As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit." (1 Cor. 12: 12 - 13) As you can see on page 6 of the bulletin, all is set for our Ministry Fair next weekend in the school gym to be held after all of the Masses as we celebrate the Feast of Pentecost. The Pastoral Council, led by Mary Corrigan and her committee, has been working hard on this event to make known the many different ministries, programs, and organizations of the parish. On Saturday come over to the gym for some free pizza and beverages while also perusing the displays for all of the parish ministries and organizations. On Sunday, the Knights of Columbus will serve a FREE hot breakfast after all of the Masses.

Come and explore how you can share the gifts that the Holy Spirit has given to you with your fellow parishioners and the larger community. You and I are parts of the One Body of Christ and each of us is important to building up that same Body of Christ. Jesus tells us that we are to be the Light of the World. Do not hide your light under a bushel basket. Rather, allow the Holy Spirit to show you how you can be that light right here in our parish! So come and talk to your fellow parishioners about what they both give and receive through the various parish ministries and organizations. There will be a ministry booklet for everyone to take, and each ministry will have a handout for you take with you. Take the information home and pray a bit about what the Lord might be asking you to do. No one needs to commit to anything at the Fair. There will be no hard sells or arm twisting, just an opportunity to learn more about your parish and see how you can share the gifts of the Holy Spirit for the building up of God's kingdom. Continued on page 4

TO REQUEST A LOW GLUTEN HOST Please arrive for Mass about 10 minutes early, go to the sacristy and let them know you need a low gluten host. Sit near the front of the new wing. Before Communion, look for a Eucharistic Minister to come forward with a consecrated host for you.

Saint Michael the Archangel,

Defend us in battle.

Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,

and do thou,

O Prince of the heavenly hosts,

by the power of God,

thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits,

who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

PRESENTATION OF THE GIFTS Those who have made the offering for the intention for each Mass are invited to present the bread and wine during the Offertory for that Mass. To do so, please arrive at least ten minutes before the start time of the Mass, go to the sacristy and let the sacristan know you would like to bring up the gifts. If no one comes forward by that time, others will be invited to present the gifts.

At the same time, the Ministry Fair is a two way street. What do I mean? I invite you to use the Ministry Fair as an opportunity to see how these same organizations, programs and ministries could be a service to you or a loved one. After all that is what this is about, service. Sometimes we do the serving and sometimes we make use of the services available.

The liturgical color next weekend is RED. So I invite you to wear some red as a way of trying to unite an inward openness to the workings and gifts of the Holy Spirit in your life with an external expression of faith. Red or no red, I look forward to seeing you at the Ministry Fair! Thanks in advance to the Pastoral Council for the work they have already done!!

A Time to Plant - Our faithful and dedicated Garden Club members are going to be planting some annuals around the property this Friday, May 17th beginning at 9 am. The rain date will be Saturday, May 18th. They could use a few more helpers to get the job done. If you can help out, please meet in front of the Parish Center and bring gloves and a hand spade. Please contact Kathy or Carl Ginotti 860-828-1996 if you can lend a hand. They estimate that this is a two to three hour project. Of course, the more spades in the dirt the work will be done sooner! Thanks in advance for making our property look so very nice!

Final Thoughts - Bruins fans were taken to the brink of elimination in the first round again. The baseball season is very long and the Orioles and Yankees will meet nine more times including three times in the last week of the season in the Bronx. The release of the NFL schedule continues to get later and later. A very Happy Mother's Day to all Moms! Your nickname is Mom. But your real name is Moooooooooom! Have a blessed week everyone! - Fr. Joe

First Reading: Acts 2:1-11

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34

Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

Alleluia:

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel: John 20:19-23

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

A Prayer for Mothers

Heavenly Father, thank you for your special gift of mothers and for the example of Your unconditional love they share with their children.

Lord, today we pray that you will protect and guide mothers everywhere; that you will grant them Your wisdom in loving and teaching their children.

Today, may children everywhere remember the warm caresses and whispers in the night; the tears dried, band-aids placed, the hugs and kisses, and the laughter too. Thank you for the mothers who played with us and prayed with and for us.

Today, may we remember Mom's beauty when we were young and her loveliness discovered as we aged.

Lord, today draw especially close the mothers who are alone, for whatever reason, and grant them Your comfort, Your Peace. And for the children who are alone, because of distance, death, or indifference, may any good memories flood their minds. And if they're not good memories, may forgiveness burst forth from their hearts and revive in them long lost joy.

Today as we honor, celebrate, or simply reflect on the woman who raised us, we thank you, Lord, for Life and for Mom!

We make our prayer through Mary's son, Jesus.

SAINT PAUL SCHOOL

God Bless all of our third graders on their First Holy Communion! (We will share a group photo next week.)

Mrs. Gujda's 4th grade class did a great job on their recent biography projects. For the presentation part of the project, tradition has students coming to school dressed up as the person they studied.

So much talent on display at our recent Talent Show! We are so proud of all who performed!

At our recent Grandparents Day event, Mrs. Angela Caravaca and Mr. John Grant enjoyed a conversation about "old times" at Saint Paul School. Both of these educators are parents of SPS graduates.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The first three of our five First Communion Masses took place last weekend. Below are a few snap shots.

The professional photos from parish volunteer, Sebby Sorrentino, will be posted soon on our parish website for families to download and share.

Above: Mrs. Kara Satalino, 3rd grade catechist, at the 9 am Mass on May 5 with some of her students. At Right: God bless Isabella, who broke her collar bone falling out of a hand-stand less than two weeks before Communion. Mom found a white sling, added some bling, and created a fashionable addition to her beautiful dress.

CHILDREN'S MASS The next Children's Mass will be on Sunday, May 19 at 10:30 am. All children are invited to participate in any of the following roles: Greeter, Lector, Prayers of the Faithful, Gift Bearer. Parents, to sign up your child, scan the QR code or use this link:

"Do not be troubled or weighed down with grief. Do not fear any illness or vexation, anxiety or pain.

Am I not here who am your Mother? Are you not under my shadow and protection?

Am I not your fountain of life? Are you not in the folds of my mantle? In the crossing of my arms?

Is there anything else you need?"

Our Lady of Guadalupe, to St. Juan Diego:
