To do so, please arrive at least ten minutes before the start time of the Mass, go to the sacristy and let the sacristan know you would like to bring up the gifts. If no one comes forward by that time, others will be invited to present the gifts.

CHRISTMAS 2024

My friends, I am pleased to share with you this first Christmas pastoral letter as your Archbishop. Many of you are regular Mass goers. Some of you come occasionally, once a month or so. Some come once or twice a year on the major holidays of Christmas or Easter. For others, this may be the first time you have been in a church for years or maybe even for the first time. To all of you, I say, “Welcome and merry Christmas.”

Whatever your relationship with the Church may be, I invite you to consider how the moment of the Incarnation – God becoming man in Jesus Christ – has graced all of creation with the saving power of God. Throughout the course of the Church’s history, great saints and poets have authored heartfelt praise to the mystery of the Incarnation in which they tried to capture what it meant that God, the Supreme Creator of all that is, became one like us. Writing in the 4th c., St. Gregory Nazianzen came close to offering a perfect blend of the poetic and the theological when he wrote:

“The very Son of God, older than the ages, the invisible, the incomprehensible, the incorporeal, the beginning of beginning, the light of light, the fountain of life and immortality, the image of the archetype, the immovable seal, the perfect likeness, the definition and word of the Father: he it is who comes... ..to take to himself all that is human, except for sin... ..He who makes rich is made poor; he takes on the poverty of my flesh, that I may gain the riches of his divinity. He who is full is made empty; he is emptied for a brief space of his glory, that I may share in his fullness.”

But, while St. Gregory’s words may transport us into the Mystery of the Divine Majesty of God made manifest, the greeting of the angels to the shepherds that we hear proclaimed in the Gospel of Luke lead us deeply into Christ’s humanity:

“Do not be afraid; for behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. For today in the city of David a Savior has been born for you who is Christ and Lord. And this will be a sign for you: you will find an infant wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger.”

In this Christmas celebration, we recall the mystery of Christ, true God and true man, and offer thanksgiving that “God so loved the world, that he gave us his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but have eternal life,” and remember that every time we celebrate the Mass we encounter the same Christ present among us in the Church gathered, in the Word proclaimed, and in the Sacrament of the Eucharist—and what a Christmas gift that is!

Gospel: Luke Lk 2:41-52

Each year Jesus' parents went to Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, and when he was twelve years old, they went up according to festival custom. After they had completed its days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it.

Thinking that he was in the caravan, they journeyed for a day and looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances, but not finding him, they returned to Jerusalem to look for him. After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers. When his parents saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety." And he said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" But they did not understand what he said to them. He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man.

HELPING HANDS Our Helping Hands ministry assists our senior parishioners, providing companionship, as well as social and spiritual support. Although we typically provide help to parishioners 80 years of age and older, we also assist younger seniors who do not have family, friends or neighbors they can call upon for help. We have a wonderful, caring group of volunteers just waiting for an opportunity to offer a 'helping hand'. To learn more, call the parish office, 860-828-0331, or Mark Duplin at 860-977-9931 or mfduplin@outlook.com.

Living with Grief During the Holidays

By Andrea Jackson with The Evangelical Catholic, December 7, 2024

If you're carrying grief during December, all the holiday cheer in the air can feel more like an assault than a blessing.

Grief doesn't follow a schedule, doesn't pause for Advent and Christmas, and can feel more acute in contrast with the joy and wonder of the season.

When I didn't want to decorate my apartment for Christmas one year, my husband teased my "Grinch-y" behavior. But he also asked what was going on. At that point, we had been trying to get pregnant for a few years. All I wanted for Christmas was a baby. No Christmas tune or string of lights could lift the weight of that longing and grief.

But while lights and familiar songs are the ways we've chosen to celebrate the "reason for the season," the reason goes far deeper than the syrupy-sweet tone December can take on.

In this week's readings, the prophet Baruch tells the people who have seen their sons and daughters scattered by war and exile, driven from their homeland, and made slaves to a foreign nation to "take off your robe of mourning and misery."

He's not dismissing their grief. He's telling them that God knows that things aren't the way they should be. Everything is not alright. And that's why he's coming.

He's coming to be with us.

He's coming to lead us into joy.

He's coming to restore justice.

He's coming to show us he remembers our suffering.

He's coming to restore us to wholeness.

He's coming to recreate us as his sons and daughters.

He's coming to level the obstacles between us and him.

He's coming to complete the good work he began in us.

He's coming to lead us into salvation.

If you're living with grief this holiday season, I'm so sorry. I know how difficult it can be. If it helps, skip some of the parties, lights, and music. They're not what Christmas is about anyway.

And if you can, invite Jesus to join you, just as you are. What we really celebrate at Christmas is that God saw our misery and didn't want to make us face it alone. Though my prayers for a baby haven't yet been answered and my longing hasn't gone away, somehow Jesus has transformed the place of my mourning into a place of deep companionship with him.

He is God-with-us, Emmanuel. God with us in our grief. God with us in our suffering. God with us in our longing. Jesus may not take away your grief or your suffering on December 25, but, no matter what, he wants to give you the gift of himself.

Christmas is for you.

Breakfast with Santa The Knights of Columbus held their annual Breakfast with Santa event in the school gym on Dec. 8th They provided a very nice hot breakfast and activities and crafts for the children. What fun to have a visit from Santa - and Mrs. Clause too! The Knights offered this event at no charge, but are very appreciative of the free will offerings donated by parishioners that help cover some of their costs.

"Santa, it wasn't me. It was the other guy!"

"Hmm. How can I snag a few more Candy Canes from that bowl without him noticing."

Thank you to
Mr. & Mrs. Clause!

ANGEL TREE 2024

Thank you so very much to all who donated Christmas gifts to our Angel Tree Project.

The gifts will be distributed to several local charitable organizations, in addition to the Franciscan Center of Baltimore, sponsored by the Franciscan friars. That ministry distributes hand and foot warmers and warm winter socks to the city's homeless.

The Franciscan Center's outreach to the homeless was overseen by †Br. Michael Duffy, OFM Conv. Sadly, Brother Duffy passed away on December 6, 2024 at the age of 65. "Duff" was not only a brother friar of our priests here at St. Paul, he was a dear friend as well. Fr. Martin gave one of the eulogies at his funeral Mass. The links to the video recording of the Mass and to the obituary are posted on our website. Br. Michael, who had a heart for service and for helping the poor, passed away on the feast of St. Nicholas. Your Angel Tree donations of hand and foot warmers and winter socks will be distributed to the homeless in his memory. The Franciscan Center is most grateful for your charitable assistance!

Eternal rest grant unto Brother Michael, O Lord, and may perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace. Amen.

SAINT PAUL SCHOOL

Our eighth grade students with their "Mass Buddies"

Our 4th grade students recently made their very own Advent wreaths during religion class. The students were encouraged to light their candles with their family each Sunday and pray together at home.

Saint Paul School is blessed to a group of volunteers who work together weekly to help our Lunch Coordinator, Mrs. McPherson, serve lunch to the students and they also help watch over the students during the lunch waves. The volunteers, SPS grandmothers and an aunt, have become a close group of friends. We are very thankful for all that they do for our school community!
