EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

Collect Prayer

O God, who on this day, through your Only Begotten Son, have conquered death and unlocked for us the path to eternity, grant, we pray, that we who keep the solemnity of the Lord's Resurrection may, through the renewal brought by your Spirit, rise up in the light of life. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Meditation - He is Risen!

"I rose up and am still with Thee." After His labors and His humiliations, Christ finds rest with His Father. "I am still with Thee." This is perfect beatitude. Through His cross He entered into the possession of eternal glory. Christ has gained the crown of victory; through Christ men also win their crowns of victory. Humanity was under a curse and subject to the wrath of God. Now that they have risen with Christ, their guilt has been destroyed. "I rose up and am still with Thee." The liturgy places these words in the mouth of the Church that she may pray them with Christ.

"The earth trembled and was still when God arose in judgment." The resurrection of Christ is the judgment and condemnation of those who have turned away from God. This judgment was prefigured by the angel who passed through the land of Egypt destroying the first-born of the Egyptians. The Israelites marked the doors of their houses with the blood of the paschal lamb. We are the new Israel, and "Christ our Pasch is sacrificed." We mark ourselves with His blood, which we enjoy in the Holy Eucharist. We have been pardoned, we are saved, we shall live.

"He is risen." The resurrection of Christ is a pledge of our own resurrection. It is the foundation upon which our faith rests. It is the guarantee of our redemption and God's assurance that our sins are forgiven and that we are called to eternal life. "This is the day which the Lord hath made; let us be glad and rejoice therein. Give praise to the Lord, for He is good, for His mercy endures forever. Alleluia." "Christ our Pasch is sacrificed. . . . The Lamb redeems the sheep. Christ, the innocent One, hath reconciled sinners to the Father."

Become real branches on Jesus’ vine: Let us become real branches, filled with fruit, on Jesus’ vine. Let us welcome Him into our lives whenever He wants to come in. He comes as Truth which must be spoken, as Life which must be lived, as light which must be reflected, as Love which must be loved, as the Way which we must take, as Happiness which we must spread, as Peace which we must plant, as Sacrifice which we must offer in our families and with our neighbors—whether near or far (SMT, 37). - Saint Teresa of Calcutta

FOOD PANTRY. This Sunday is our monthly food collection for the St. John the Baptist Bread of Life Food Pantry. Thank you for donating non-perishable food items, which may be left on the last pew at the back of the church. Your donations make a big difference in the lives of those in need.

MASS INTENTIONS. Offering a Mass for someone is a powerful intercessory prayer and a priceless gift. A Mass can be offered for anyone, living or deceased, on any occasion, such as a birthday, an anniversary, in time of illness or even for a special intention. When you offer a Mass intention, you can request a Mass card appropriate to the occasion, which you can send as a gift or have as keepsake. Every week, Mass intentions are included in the church bulletin. To arrange for a Mass, call or stop by the rectory.

Jesus revealed to his disciples the deepest meaning of his mission when he told them of his passion, death and resurrection, in fulfilment of the Father’s will. He then called the disciples to share in this mission for the salvation of the world. Pope Francis (Saint John Lateran, 11 November 2020)

Dear Parishioners,

“Christ is risen from the dead, by death He conquered death, and to those in the graves He granted life.” (Paschal Troparion, Byzantine Catholic Liturgy) Jesus has triumphed over sin and death. His victory means eternal life for those who believe in Him and follow Him faithfully. Life has won out over death. New joy and true peace have been poured out upon God’s creation by God Himself. Christ is risen! He is truly risen!

On behalf of Fr. Joseph Chacko and Fr. Roger Landry I wish you all a Happy and Blessed Easter! May the Risen Savior fill you with His grace and strength and turn your sorrows into joy just as he did for his Mother Mary, the Apostles, the Holy Women, and all his disciples.

We are grateful to Archbishop Gabriele Caccia, Apostolic Nuncio, Permanent Observer of the Holy See to the United Nations, for coming today to Holy Family Parish to celebrate our 11 AM Mass.

Thanks to all of our parishioners who have so generously supported our parish during the coronavirus pandemic.

Happy Easter! May the Risen Lord bless you and your family and friends.

God bless you.

Fr. Gerald E. Murray, Pastor
