Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Jeremiah 23:1-6

Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock of my pasture, says the Lord. Therefore, thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, against the shepherds who shepherd my people: You have scattered my sheep and driven them away. You have not cared for them, but I will take care to punish your evil deeds. I myself will gather the remnant of my flock from all the lands to which I have driven them and bring them back to their meadow; there they shall increase and multiply. I will appoint shepherds for them who will shepherd them so that they need no longer fear and tremble; and none shall be missing, says the Lord.

Behold the days are coming, says the Lord, when I will raise up a righteous shoot to David; as king he shall do what is just and right in the land. In his days Judah shall be saved, Israel shall dwell in security. This is the name they give him: The Lord our justice". The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 23

R// The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
In verdant pastures he gives me repose;
Beside restful waters he leads me; he refreshes my soul.

He guides me in right paths for his name's sake.

Even though I walk in the dark valley
I fear no evil; for you are at my side
With your rod and your staff
That give me courage.

You spread the table before me
In the sight of my foes;
You anoint my head with oil;
My cup overflows.

Only goodness and kindness
Follow me
All the days of my life;
And I shall dwell in the house of the lord
For years to come.

Reading II Ephesians 2:13-18

Brothers and sisters: In Christ Jesus you who once were far off have become near by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, he who made both one and broke down the dividing wall of enmity, through his flesh, abolishing the law with its commandments and legal claims, that he might create in himself one new person in place of the two, thus establishing peace, and might reconcile both with God, in one body, through the cross, putting that enmity to death by it. He came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near, for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father.

Gospel of Mark 6:7-13

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick—no food, no sack, no money in their belts. They were, however, to wear sandals but not a second tunic. He said to them, “Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave. Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them.” So they went off and preached repentance. The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PARTICIPATE IN PARISH LIFE

St. Anne's would like to have different ages represented on the Parish Council. Anyone interested from Junior High, High School and upward is invited to call Ellie at 508-757-5154, ext. 12 and volunteer to attend a meeting if you are interested. We welcome your ideas.

St. Anne's thanks Marion Chaput for the many years of volunteering and keeping our altar cloths looking pristine. Marion will be retiring from that chosen duty at the end of July. If you would like to volunteer to replace her please call the rectory at 508-757-5154.

We are reactivating collectors at weekend Masses. Please call 508-757-5154 if you were part of the collectors before the pandemic and are ready to be back or if you are interested in volunteering.
