Catholic Funerals: Every baptized Catholic has a right to the prayers of the church at the time of life threatening illness and death even if they have not been practicing their faith up until that time. The parish provides a guide for funeral planning and is prepared to assist at the time of a death in the family. Ordinarily the funeral home will contact the parish to schedule a funeral though families are always welcome to contact the office. Customarily a Catholic funeral has three distinct moments: the vigil prayers, funeral and rite of committal at burial.

Sacrament of Baptism: The Catholic custom of baptizing infants is founded upon the testimony of Scripture and Tradition and demonstrates the priority of grace as a gift in the Christian life. Customarily baptism occurs as soon as possible after birth. Please contact the parish office with requests for dates prior to selecting godparents for whom there are some requirements that need documentation.

Sacrament of Marriage: Please contact the parish office at least six months prior to a desired wedding date and prior to committing to a reception facility. Parish wedding dates can only be confirmed after meeting with the priest and completing initial documentation establishing a person's freedom to marry as a Catholic. The parish offers marriage preparation which is required in anticipation of the wedding.

A few years ago the parishes undertook a process, assisted by the Catholic Leadership Institute, resulting in the parish pastoral plan. The three-part focus has been a helpful way, it appears, to direct out efforts in productive manner. Inevitably this pastoral planning will have to be renewed as what was envisioned was a three year period which is now complete. Obviously this past year was not so conducive to convening parish groups to planning purposes though we look forward to the opportunity moving forward. I once heard of a simplified pastoral plan, so called, attributed to St. John Vianney. Saints have a way of simplifying things. By pastoral plan the Cure Ars, as he is known, was to feed the hungry children at the orphanage named La Providence and then to beautify the churches. It strikes me that we, amid our own more detailed plan, have gravitated in the direction of feeding the hungry and contributing to the beauty as well as the functionality of the churches. After some conversation with the Liturgy and Devotions Commission, consultation with the Parish Council and the recommendation from the Finance Council to delay the project, we have decided to move ahead with the painting of the sanctuary ceiling at St. Rose. We have received a generous gift that allows this project to be scheduled for June. The approach will be to accentuate the marian blue associated with the statue of Our Lady of Grace as well as the blue of the stained glass windows and also the blue façade pipes of the new organ. The ceiling will be blue with gold stars. This way of representing the sanctuary ceiling can be seen in many churches and expresses the analogy among the beauty of creation as God's original temple, the ancient temple of Jerusalem itself and the beauty of that place where the holy sacrifice of the Mass is offered. Thank you for your patience with the process and thanks to Seth Goepel for accepting the challenge. Seth has worked professionally in other churches in Maine including the Basilica of Sts. Peter and Paul as well as the Cathedral in Portland.

WELCOME TO STAFF AND MISSIONARIES

As we continue to welcome Lisa Gulino to the staff, know that she has moved into St. Joseph rectory. Look for office hours in the near future. Fr. Paul has moved into the new individual apartment at St. Rose as we seek to make better use of the building. We are also happy to welcome summer missionaries Dale, Annie and Mary Catherine. They are here to serve the parish priorities and goals. We look forward to opportunities to welcome them.

HOSPITALITY

Thank you to all of our Mass greeters who have served the parishes so generously with their time over the past several months. We are currently looking for additional greeters to welcome people at Mass. Would you be interested in serving in this important ministry? You would be added to a rotating schedule and can choose the Mass that you prefer. For more information, please reach out to Kathleen Pike at 897-2173.

Prayer to St. Joseph the Worker by Pope St. Pius X

O Glorious St. Joseph, model of all those who are devoted to labor, obtain for me the grace to work conscientiously, putting the call of duty above my natural inclinations, to work with gratitude and joy, in a spirit of penance for the remission of my sins, considering it an honor to employ and develop by means of labor the gifts received from God, to work with order, peace, moderation and patience, without ever shrinking from weariness and difficulties, to work above all with purity of intention and detachment from self, having always death before my eyes and the account that I must render of time lost, of talents wasted, of good omitted, of vain complacency in success, so fatal to the work of God. All for Jesus, all through Mary, all after your example, O Patriarch, St. Joseph. Such shall be my motto in life and in death. Amen.

Sacred Pause

Lisa M. Gulino, Parish Life Coordinator

My parents were simple, hardworking, fun-loving, faith-filled folks. It is because of my parents—that I have love for God.

I would like to take this week's Sacred Pause and rejoice in the beauty of faith and family.

Despair not if both are messy—life is messy! Your faith is lived—I bet more than you realize—let's name such moments of faith in daily life.

Tangible faith are brief moments of thanksgiving to God—for the gift of another day, for food on our table, work, and health;

Perceptible faith recognizes God's presence in creation, in your relationships, in both the stillness and the hecticness of life;

Charitable faith cares for those in need.

Faith encountered meets Jesus in the Sacraments such as Eucharist and Reconciliation;

Lived faith is being Christ to others by a simple smile, a greeting, and offering reconciliation through forgiveness;

Empowered faith is the confidence to ask the deep questions of life—who am I? What is the meaning of life? Is there more to life? What is my purpose?

Transformed faith celebrates the grace that strengthens us and rejoices that we are wonderfully made and eternally loved by God.

Transformative faith is creative sacred rituals flowing from your family's heritage and our Catholic traditions. It is never too late to create a few simple prayer rituals for your family.

At the heart of this domestic church are parents—the unsung heroes of daily life. Here now is a Litany of Gratitude from the bottom of my heart to all who parent: biological, adoptive, step-parents, Godparents, guardians, and grandparents.

Thank you for the countless times you have supported your children in building dreams to chase and to reach;

believed in their talents to reach their goals;

taught them about their God-given dignity and worth—they are loved and are worthy of love;

spent countless hours helping with homework, being proud of their successes;

continued to hold their dreams for them when they struggle to see the possibilities;

given a shoulder to cry on when struck by disappointment;

prayed with your children at meals, before their going to sleep, and pray with them for their significant (and small) events in their life;

brought your children to this community of faith to worship and praise God for the blessings received and to ask for the graces necessary for their journey;

braved the struggles in your own life and your own faith to give your children an eternal perspective that transforms lives and gives hope eternal.

Thank you for forming your children in the love of God and the gift of faith. God loves you!
