Catholic Funerals: Every baptized Catholic has a right to the prayers of the church at the time of life threatening illness and death even if they have not been practicing their faith up until that time. The parish provides a guide for funeral planning and is prepared to assist at the time of a death in the family. Ordinarily the funeral home will contact the parish to schedule a funeral though families are always welcome to contact the office. Customarily a Catholic funeral has three distinct moments: the vigil prayers, funeral and rite of committal at burial.

Sacrament of Baptism: The Catholic custom of baptizing infants is founded upon the testimony of Scripture and Tradition and demonstrates the priority of grace as a gift in the Christian life. Customarily baptism occurs as soon as possible after birth. Please contact the parish office with requests for dates prior to selecting godparents for whom there are some requirements that need documentation.

Sacrament of Marriage: Please contact the parish office at least six months prior to a desired wedding date and prior to committing to a reception facility. Parish wedding dates can only be confirmed after meeting with the priest and completing initial documentation establishing a person's freedom to marry as a Catholic. The parish offers marriage preparation which is required in anticipation of the wedding.

Merry Christmas to parishioners and your family and friends. Thank you all for gathering for the observance of Christmas at St. Joseph and St. Rose. Thank you for your kindness to me and your cooperation in parish life. We have much to be grateful for within parish life. Thanks to the staff. Please join me in thanking them for their generous and hard work. Thanks also to the many generous volunteers who prepared the churches for the Christmas season. Thanks to musicians to help raise our minds and hearts in prayer to God. We are grateful for the craftsmanship of Chuck Royce who installed a beautiful sanctuary floor at St. Joseph church. We are very happy to welcome Amanda Ferriter and her family. Amanda begins her service as Parish Catechetical Leader and is eager to support families in communicating the faith to children of all ages. The superabundance of God's love witnessed in the Incarnation is the source of love that prompts us to love our neighbor. We continue to be grateful for the practical helps offered by staff and volunteers in the many ways through Parish Social Ministry. May we, in relationship to the Holy Family, gaze upon the face of Christ—source of our faith, hope and love.

Prayer for Family Commitment

Dear God our Father, you have called all Christian families to be a sign of your love to the world.

Help us to be generous with the gifts of life and love that you have showered on our family. May we share them so that our homes become true signs of unitive and fruitful love.

Let us never forget to thank you each day for all that sustains us and to look to Christ, who comes to us in the events of family life, in the sacraments of the Church, and in serve to the poor.

In all of this, our family becomes a living expression of your Church, a hallowed home of life and love. By the power of the Holy Spirit, may all of us—spouses, parents, and children—share, as members of his Body, in Jesus' mission to build a civilization of love. Father, we ask this in Jesus' name in union with the Holy Spirit. Amen.

St. Stephen | Feast Day December 26

The Acts of the Apostles tells the story of St. Stephen, the first Christian martyr. A man filled with grace and power, he worked great wonders among the people. Some Jews debated with St. Stephen but could not match his wisdom and spirit. Eventually, a charge of blasphemy was brought up against him, and the local population demanded that he be tried and sentenced. He was seized and carried before the Sanhedrin.

Despite the danger he faced, in front of the Sanhedrin and his accusers, St. Stephen gave a long speech about the history of Israel and the blessings that God had given upon His chosen people. He talked about how Israel had become disobedient despite God's abundant mercy. This enraged his accusers, and eventually the crowd dragged him out of the city and stoned him to death.

Even in his final moments, St. Stephen displayed great forgiveness and even asked God not to hold the sins of his attackers against them. Hundreds of years after his death, he is still a role model for us to follow.

Looking for news from the Church in Maine? You'll find that and so much more, including prayer resources and social service programs on the diocesan web site www.portlanddiocese.net

Fr. Paul and the parish staff are pleased to offer parishioners and guests a gift—The True Meaning of Christmas. In the hustle and bustle of the season, coupled with competing cultural notions of about the holidays, Michael Barber offers an accessible and thoughtful instruction about the birth of Jesus and the origins of the season of Christmas as observed by Catholic. We hope you will read and discuss aspects of this book with family, friends and parishioners. Feel free to pass the book along to children, grandchildren, colleagues and those in the community who may have drifted from active participation in Catholic life at St. Rose and St. Joseph parishes.

"With dexterity and clarity, Dr. Barber uses serious biblical scholarship to tie together the Old Testament and the New, Christmas carols and the Church's tradition, to illuminate the true meaning of Christmas."

Fr. Matthew Monnig, S.J., Boston College

Fuel Assistance Programs

Once again, this year, there are fuel assistance programs available in both parish communities.

FOR FRANKLIN COUNTY

The ECU HEAT SHARE program provides one 50-gallon fuel delivery (or equivalent in solid fuel) per household per heating season (November 1 – March 31). Oil, kerosene, wood, pellets, propane are all delivered by the applicant's regular fuel vendor. Each applicant fills in the "$50 for Heat" application with needed information, attaches a $50 money order payable to the fuel vendor, and mails or delivers the form to Western Maine Community Action (WMCA) for processing. A delivery is made as soon as the fuel vendor is in the neighborhood again. The balance due for that delivery is paid by ECU HEAT, using funds raised by FAEM for that purpose.

FOR LIVERMORE AND LIVERMORE FALLS

The FOOD, FUEL AND FIBER FUND provides one 50-gallon fuel delivery (or equivalent in solid fuel) per household per year (October 1—April 30). Oil, kerosene, wood, pellets, propane are all delivered by the applicant's regular fuel vendor. Each applicant fills in the Food, Fuel and Fiber application with needed information, attaches a $50 money order payable to the fuel vendor, and mails or delivers the form to St. Rose or calls Stephanie Crowe 897-2173 ext 1203 for processing. A delivery is made as soon as the fuel vendor is in the neighborhood again. The balance due for that delivery is paid by St. Rose Food, Fuel and Fiber Fund. If you would like to help a neighbor in need, donations to this program can be sent to St. Rose of Lima – Fuel fund.

There are no income guidelines for either of these programs and applications are available at the entrances of both parish halls.
