Catholic Funerals: Every baptized Catholic has a right to the prayers of the church at the time of life threatening illness and death even if they have not been practicing their faith up until that time. The parish provides a guide for funeral planning and is prepared to assist at the time of a death in the family. Ordinarily the funeral home will contact the parish to schedule a funeral though families are always welcome to contact the office. Customarily a Catholic funeral has three distinct moments: the vigil prayers, funeral and rite of committal at burial.

Sacrament of Baptism: The Catholic custom of baptizing infants is founded upon the testimony of Scripture and Tradition and demonstrates the priority of grace as a gift in the Christian life. Customarily baptism occurs as soon as possible after birth. Please contact the parish office with requests for dates prior to selecting godparents for whom there are some requirements that need documentation.

Sacrament of Marriage: Please contact the parish office at least six months prior to a desired wedding date and prior to committing to a reception facility. Parish wedding dates can only be confirmed after meeting with the priest and completing initial documentation establishing a person's freedom to marry as a Catholic. The parish offers marriage preparation which is required in anticipation of the wedding.

St. Rose 8:30 AM Mass Texts

Entrance Antiphon: The Spirit of the Lord has filled the whole world, alleluia; and that which contains all things, knows every language spoken by men, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered; and let those who hate him flee before his face.

Responsorial Psalm: "Send forth your Spirit, Lord, and renew the face of the earth."

Eucharistic Prayer IV is currently being used at all Masses

Communion Antiphon: Suddenly, a sound came from heaven like the rush of a mighty wind, in the place where they were sitting, alleluia; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and announced the great things God had done, alleluia, alleluia.

Marian Antiphon After Communion

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy, hail, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve: to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears. Turn then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy towards us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus, O merciful, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary! Amen.

Contemplating God we learn the secret of community, wonderfully defined by St. Augustine as a multitude united by agreement about the things they love. Speaking with God—the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit—reveals God to us and us to us. Entering into the mystery of God reveals something of the nature of the human community. We are united by loving the same things. When we love God and the mysteries of God we are drawn into the communion of charity.

The analogy of train travel in a recent bulletin is meant to suggest certain characteristics about common life. Something about traveling by train seems particularly humane given its combination of leisure and efficiency. People, in my limited experience, seem more comfortable and congenial which contributes to conversation as people make their way. A common though not identical destination allows for a shared sense of purpose and sparks conversation. Train travel also allows for a sense of accompaniment. As we conclude the Easter season, Catholics have embarked on a sort of pilgrimage throughout the days of Lent and into the Easter season. This weekend we see the movement of Church in parishioners participating in Eucharistic Processions. This movement is like a picture of grace that moves us toward Christ who accompanies us along the Way.

As we emerge from the seasons of Lent and Easter, in the present context, it would be wise to revisit quality and norms of common life—within families, among neighbors and friends as well as within parish life.

Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health

What can individuals do:

- View the websites www.respectlife.org, www.walkingwithmoms.com, and www.prayfordobbs.com
- Choose a time during the day (ex: 6 PM) to say a prayer for the case
- Fast once a week: For example, skip a meal; limit yourself to two small meals that do not equal a third, regular meal; or abstain from food for a day. Or, fast from something else, like your schedule, by offering an hour of your time to God in prayer, or fast from videos, television, or social media for a day.

HOUSING INSECURITY IN FRANKLIN COUNTY

The Parish Social Ministry working group on housing participates in the Franklin County Homeless Advisory Team with other concerned agencies and groups. Without an emergency shelter in Franklin County at this time, there are currently 40 homeless households in motels being paid for by Maine Housing's Emergency Rental Assistance program (ERA). About the same number of households are homeless but not in motels. They may be with relatives, with friends, or not sheltered, and so are more difficult to remain in contact with.

ERA guidelines will change June 1st. The length of the benefit will be reduced from 18 months to 12 months, and the cost per night will be capped at $96/night. Those in federally subsidized housing will no longer be eligible for the ERA benefit. These program changes will allow the ERA program to be funded for a longer period, hopefully thru 2022. Program changes necessarily will affect outcomes for those without a place to call home. The PSM working group on housing has researched the many causes of homelessness and are prayerfully considering how to make a difference, especially in Franklin County.

ST. ISIDORE CORPS

The parishes in collaboration with the Catholic Company are partnering to create an opportunity for young people to serve as lay missionaries in rural America. And why not start in Maine and within our parishes! Last summer we welcomed four young adults to live and serve with the staff and volunteers. Christopher who was among them has remained with us throughout the academic year and served well in a variety of contexts. Christopher will remain with us for the summer and host other summer missionaries: Andrew, Alessandra who are arriving this week. Thomas and Grace who will arrive in July.

Meet the Summer Missionaries at St. Rose this weekend!

Join us on June 18th for a welcoming and introduction of the summer missionaries during the Community Meal after the 4:00 PM Mass at the Community Center or for Coffee and Donuts with the Summer Missionaries after the 8:30 AM Mass at St. Rose Community Center.

Meet the Summer Missionaries at St. Joseph's next weekend

Join us on June 26th after the 10:30 am Mass in the GAB for Coffee and Donuts with the summer missionaries or after the 5:00 PM Mass in the GAB for a lite social and welcoming!

Welcome to Jakob Wyder who was home for Christmas. As you may know, Jakob is the son of Chris and Diane who are now both retired. In their retirement they have moved to Norridgewock. Jakob was kind to visit and join us for Mass as he is home on semester break from the seminary where he is progressing in his studies and formation to serve as a Catholic priest. I asked Jakob to provide a brief update which serves to educate us on aspects of Catholic tradition that may be unfamiliar to many; namely, that often we conflate Catholic Church with Roman Catholic Church.

Hello, parishioners of St. Joseph! I am in my third year of priestly formation at Our Lady of Lebanon Maronite Seminary in Washington, DC. Our seminary has eleven seminarians and we take our classes at The Catholic University of America. This Christmas I was at the Maronite Cathedral in Brooklyn, New York, and afterwards I returned to Maine for a relaxing week with family.

What is the Maronite Church, you might wonder? The Maronite Church is an Eastern Catholic Church, the only Eastern Church that has always been in full communion with Rome. While the Roman Catholic Church traces her origins to Rome, the Maronite Church comes from the city of Antioch, and her liturgical language is not Latin but Syriac, a dialect of Aramaic, the language of our Lord. The Maronite Church has historical and cultural connections to Lebanon, but is a universal and apostolic church that beautifully compliments the Latin Church. I think that the Maronite Church, and all the Eastern Churches, help the Universal Church to "breathe with both lungs," as Pope St. John Paul II famously said. Thank you to everyone for your prayers and support. God bless!

FRANKLIN MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

The current visiting hours at FMH are from 9:30 am to 3:30 pm. Masking is required and a screening process is in place at the main entrance. Requests to see a priest should be made by families to the clinical and pastoral care staff of the hospital. Pastors from local churches are not as yet able to make routine pastoral care visits as has been the case for many months.

Coming and Going: In a periodic segment of the bulletin we hear from parishioners who are coming and going. We want to work together to help make any new persons to the parishes feel welcome. If you are new or if you know someone who is new to the parish, we would be happy to hear from you. Also, it may be fitting for us to allow an opportunity for parishioners who are moving away to offer a reflection on their time in the parish. This feature in the bulletin provides one expression of how we share a common life as parishioners.

Saying goodbye to St. Joseph from Brent & Ella Jellison for we are invited to live in N.C. with our youngest daughter to get away from cold and snowy winters and be closer to more family. We'll miss all our friends at St. Joseph but health reasons are making it hard to cope.

Ella loved teaching classes (4th grade), going to Altar Guild and helping with rummage sales. Brent joined the Knights and made the big salads for the dinners. He also carves and makes canes and walking sticks. Ella makes porcelain dolls and made a life size baby for both churches of Holy Jesus for Christmas. We also had fun helping with St. Joseph food booth at the Farmington Fair. Fr. Roger married us in 2001. We raised goats and chickens for awhile and sold eggs and made cheese and soap with goat milk.

But time to move when eyes don't see well and memory is bad and bodies won't take the cold anymore.

May God Bless all our friends here at St. Joseph Parish. We'll be living with our youngest daughter, who has come to visit us many times up here and loved going to St. Patrick's dinners and the Warming Center when she came in March almost every year. Larry and Karen are driving us to N.C. since we won't do well by ourselves. They will do bicycle marathons while there in N.C.

Goodbye (soon) St. Joseph and Fr. Paul, thank you for everything

Liturgy and Devotions

Corpus Christi Processions

On the weekend of June 18-19, Corpus Christi Sunday (the Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ), we will have outside Eucharistic Processions in both parishes.

At St. Rose, on Saturday, June 18, the Procession will begin immediately after the 4:00 PM Mass.

At St. Joseph, on Sunday, June 19, the procession will begin immediately following the 10:30 AM Mass. Adoration will continue in the main church following the procession until Benediction at 4:45 PM.

Processions on Corpus Christi began in the 14th century and are approved and recommended as a public profession of the Catholic faith in the Real Presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. These processions are reverent and sacred, with the priest carrying the monstrance containing the Blessed Sacrament, accompanied by altar servers with lighted candles and incense, followed by parishioners in solemn procession. Children scatter flower petals before the Blessed Sacrament and the priest stops at altars decorated with candles and flowers along the processional route, to pray and adore the Blessed Sacrament.

Please consider joining us for this special devotion on this Feast honoring the Real Presence of Our Lord in the Most Blessed Sacrament.

"Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament has His hands full of graces, and He is ready to bestow them on anyone who asks for them." (St Peter of Alcantara)

Home gardeners - Do you grow lovely flowers in your garden in the summer? Would you like to share them with the parishes? We would welcome parishioners donating cut flowers to the churches in the summertime so that your flowers can beautify our sacred spaces. We could also use help in making simple arrangements with the flowers for the weekend liturgies. If you would like to be involved in this effort, we would be delighted to speak with you! Please call the parish office.
