13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

And another said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home." To him Jesus said, "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God." - Lk 9:61-62

Parish Office Hours:

Tuesday 8:00 AM-Noon and Thursday 8:00 AM-2:00 PM

St. Joseph: Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday 9:30 AM-10:30 AM

Catholic Funerals: Every baptized Catholic has a right to the prayers of the church at the time of life threatening illness and death even if they have not been practicing their faith up until that time. The parish provides a guide for funeral planning and is prepared to assist at the time of a death in the family. Ordinarily the funeral home will contact the parish to schedule a funeral though families are always welcome to contact the office. Customarily a Catholic funeral has three distinct moments: the vigil prayers, funeral and rite of committal at burial.

Sacrament of Baptism: The Catholic custom of baptizing infants is founded upon the testimony of Scripture and Tradition and demonstrates the priority of grace as a gift in the Christian life. Customarily baptism occurs as soon as possible after birth. Please contact the parish office with requests for dates prior to selecting godparents for whom there are some requirements that need documentation.

Sacrament of Marriage: Please contact the parish office at least six months prior to a desired wedding date and prior to committing to a reception facility. Parish wedding dates can only be confirmed after meeting with the priest and completing initial documentation establishing a person's freedom to marry as a Catholic. The parish offers marriage preparation which is required in anticipation of the wedding.

Contemplating God we learn the secret of community, wonderfully defined by St. Augustine as a multitude united by agreement about the things they love.

Speaking with God—the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit—reveals God to us and us to us. Entering into the mystery of God reveals something of the nature of the human community. We are united by loving the same things. When we love God and the mysteries of God we are drawn into the communion of charity.

The analogy of train travel in a recent bulletin is meant to suggest certain characteristics about common life. Something about traveling by train seems particularly humane given its combination of leisure and efficiency. People, in my limited experience, seem more comfortable and congenial which contributes to conversation as people make their way. A common though not identical destination allows for a shared sense of purpose and sparks conversation. Train travel also allows for a sense of accompaniment.

As we emerge from the seasons of Lent and Easter, in the present context, it would be wise to revisit quality and norms of common life—within families, among neighbors and friends as well as within parish life.

The Benedict Option by Rod Dreher has sparked a lively conversation since it was published in 2017. David Brooks of Harvard University refers to the book as "the most discussed and most important religious book of the decade." Others have followed with the aim of articulating common norms for resilience within communities. Dreher draws on the historical context of the founding of Benedictine monasteries as resilient communities based on principles of order, hospitality, stability and prayer. From these principles Dreher suggests we can draw from history lessons that inform the present moment. If you are in the habit of summer reading, you are encouraged to take a look. Also, if you are inclined you are encouraged to reach out to participate in reading and discussion with others.

St. Rose 8:30 AM Mass Texts

Entrance Antiphon: The Spirit of the Lord has filled the whole world, alleluia; and that which contains all things, knows every language spoken by men, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered; and let those who hate him flee before his face.

Responsorial Psalm: "Send forth your Spirit, Lord, and renew the face of the earth."

Eucharistic Prayer IV is currently being used at all Masses

Communion Antiphon: Suddenly, a sound came from heaven like the rush of a mighty wind, in the place where they were sitting, alleluia; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and announced the great things God had done, alleluia, alleluia.

Marian Antiphon After Communion

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy, hail, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve: to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears. Turn then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy towards us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus, O merciful, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary! Amen.

What can individuals do:

- View the websites www.respectlife.org, www.walkingwithmoms.com, and www.prayfordobbs.com
- Choose a time during the day (ex: 6 PM) to say a prayer for the case
- Fast once a week: For example, skip a meal; limit yourself to two small meals that do not equal a third, regular meal; or abstain from food for a day. Or, fast from something else, like your schedule, by offering an hour of your time to God in prayer, or fast from videos, television, or social media for a day.

PARISH SOCIAL MINISTRY AND HOMELESSNESS

As we begin to engage, as parishes, with issues of housing and homelessness, I have been thinking about how we frame our conversation and how we think about all the people we serve – those who are hungry, ill or in prison, strangers...

In the Gospel of Matthew (chapter 5: 43-48), Jesus dismisses the notion that it is sufficient to merely love our neighbor – the folks we know. Instead, He instructs us to “love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you, that you may be children of your Heavenly Father...” By this instruction, Jesus effectively does away with the false dichotomy of us (neighbors) and them (enemies, persecutors). He goes on to say that our Heavenly Father “makes His sun to rise on the bad and the good, and causes rain to fall on the just and the unjust.” What Jesus is saying, clearly, is that there is no them; there's just us. We are all God's children. We don't all look the same, come from the same backgrounds, have the same opportunities, make the same choices, but we're still neighbors; we're still us. While sometimes it seems easier to notice differences, I believe Jesus wants us to be attentive to (and even search for) what we have in common, what makes us neighbors, what makes us us. And when that's difficult (and it often is), let's remember that the Father causes the same sun to shine on all of us. Janet Brackett

Parish Social Ministry Staffing

Stephanie has resigned from her position as Parish Social Ministry Coordinator. After conversations with Stephanie and Liz Allen, the diocesan Human Resource Director, I have accepted her resignation effective July 1st. Stephanie steps away with our gratitude and the assurance of our prayers. Thank you, Stephanie, for your service to the parishes and communities in the work of Parish Social Ministry priorities and goals. I am especially grateful for your self-sacrificing service during the long days of the pandemic. Fr. Paul

ST. ISIDORE CORPS

The parishes in collaboration with the Catholic Company are partnering to create an opportunity for young people to serve as lay missionaries in rural America. And why not start in Maine and within our parishes! Last summer we welcomed four young adults to live and serve with the staff and volunteers. Christopher who was among them has remained with us throughout the academic year and served well in a variety of contexts. Christopher will remain with us for the summer and host other summer missionaries: Andrew, Alessandra who are arriving this week. Thomas and Grace who will arrive in July.

Meet the Summer Missionaries at St. Joseph's this weekend

Join us on June 26th after the 10:30 am Mass in the GAB for meet and greet with the summer missionaries or after the 5:00 PM Mass in the GAB for a lite social and welcoming!

THRIFT STORE Use Horan Street Entrance of Community Center

Tuesdays 12:00 pm to 4:00 pm and

Liturgy and Devotions

Parishioners of St. Rose and St. Joseph expressed their devotion to the Eucharist by participating in Eucharistic Processions on the feast of Corpus Christi. It was a beautiful way for us to express our devotion to Christ who is fully present - Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity - in the Eucharist. Thank you to all who helped plan and serve the Procession.
