Grounds Apostolate Seeking Men Volunteers

The Sacred Heart Grounds Apostolate was established six years ago as an opportunity for men of the parish to help maintain the church grounds. Volunteers help with snow removal from the side-walks in the winter and with cutting the grass in the spring and summer.

While this effort saves the parish money from not having to pay someone to do this work, it was mainly instituted to encourage men to take some ownership in the life of the parish.

If you are willing and able to help please contact Deacon Matt via email mlaidley@sacredheartlaplata.org or on his cell at 301 643-1683

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION

The Sacrament of First Holy Communion will be celebrated at the 5:00 PM Vigil Mass on Saturday, May 21, 2022. Please pray for the students who will be receiving their First Holy Communion.

Our faith community will participate in raising funds for the Catherine Foundation. The Foundation offers help to families and babies in crisis. This fundraiser is an excellent opportunity for families, and individuals to honor the sanctity of human life. It is a practical way for everyone to support a local mission that helps save the unborn and support families with children. Take a bottle home, fill with change, cash or checks payable to The Catherine Foundation and then return the bottle to the church or parish office by Tuesday, May 31st. Your support of this fundraising effort will be greatly appreciated.

SACRED HEART SUMMER CAMP

Registration for Sacred Heart Summer Camp is now open! We will have 6 weeks of camp beginning June 20, with some new and exciting camps alongside some of our favorites from last year. All children ages 4-13 are welcome. For rates, camp options, registration, payment, and volunteering opportunities, visit our website: <https://www.sacredheartlaplata.org/summer-camp.html>

NEW GROUP FORMING

Caregiver Support Group "Caring for the Caregiver"

A caregiver support group is forming and the first meeting will be June 26th at 2pm in the Friendship Room at Sacred Heart Catholic Church. Anyone caring for a parent, spouse, child or friend is welcomed. This group will give anyone a chance to ask questions, seek help in the resources available in the county, share their stories and seek comfort in this most challenging time. Through prayer, sharing and in receiving comfort all will find some respite and strength to carry forward. Anyone interested or needing more information please contact Kathy Greene at kdgknitter@gmail.com or call 240-416-1122.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Priest's Corner

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

This weekend we welcome the first of the six seminarians who will be with us this summer. I know you're thinking, "Six seminarians?" Yes. We have Danny Morrison whose two older brothers are already priests of the Archdiocese, and he is assigned to our parish for two months by the Cardinal. Then we have Gregory Lawrence and Dalton Newsome both newly accepted seminarians who will be helping with our discernment program for guys considering priesthood. And then we have Marco who is from our parish and has finished his first year as a Seminarian, and he will be working at our summer camp as a counselor. Last but not least, we have been sent two more newly accepted seminarians who are leaving careers to enter seminary at the end of the summer, and they will also be working at our summer camp.

In addition to these men, we are blessed to have four other young men who will be working in our parish in the Summer Discernment Program. This is a program I felt the Lord call me to start about 10 years ago to assist men in discerning a potential vocation to the priesthood by living as much of the life of a priest as is possible by spending the summer assisting me in the parish ministry. They visit the sick, help at the school, help with youth programs and young adult activities, and assist at Masses, weddings, and baptisms. They do manual labor at the parish, homes of the elderly and widowed, and starting last year they help some at the Carmel Monastery. Through this program, while most simply grow deeper in their love of the Lord and in their commitment to the faith, a number of men have entered the seminary, which is where they discern more deeply the call to the priesthood.

You might now be wondering where are you going to house all these seminarians and discerners? Fortunately, two families from our parish have again come forward this year to offer to house them, while a few of the seminarians will stay in the guest rooms of the rectory. How will they be paid? Fortunately, there have been some very generous donors who have offered to provide funds to pay them for the summer so they can fully give themselves to the service of the parish and to discerning their vocations.

This past week was Good Shepherd Sunday where the church has traditionally asked us to pray for priests and for more vocations to the priesthood. Please pray for these young men (both those already in seminary and those open to being called to enter seminary) throughout this summer. They will all be arriving in drips and drabs over this month and next and I will introduce them at Masses and have them up in our new vocations section of the bulletin board at the entrance of the church. We are very blessed as a parish to be able to help these young men who are here to discern a potential call to the priesthood. I hope everyone gets to meet them and that their time with us this summer may help them to experience the same welcome and kindness I have experienced in my ten months as your Pastor. Finally pray that Fr Jack and I may be good examples to them of the priesthood to inspire them and aid in their discernment of God's will in their lives.

Your Father and Brother in the Risen Christ, Fr Scott

Please pray for our sick

Men's Discernment Mass and Brunch—Men who are college age or older and interested in the priesthood are invited to this event on Sunday, May 22, from 10 a.m. to 12:15 p.m., at Saint John Paul II Seminary in D.C. The morning will include Mass, brunch, and a chance to talk with priests, seminarians and other young men about vocations. If you have any questions, please contact Fr. Mark Ivany, Director of Priest Vocations, at 202-636-9020 or vocations@adw.org. There is no cost to attend, but you must register at <https://dcpriest.org/2022-mens-discernment-mass-and-brunch>.

What Happens if the Supreme Court Reverses Roe v Wade?

With ongoing court action surrounding this summer's anticipated decision by the U.S. Supreme Court in Dobbs v Jackson Women's Health Organization about Mississippi's Gestational Act protecting unborn children after 15 weeks, there is much speculation in the press and among pro-abortion groups about the future of Roe v Wade and the post-Roe landscape in the nation.

While we are still awaiting a final decision from the Court, media outlets have opined about the landscape in the event of Roe's downfall.

While most pro-abortion organizations adopt a "sky is falling" stance claiming that if Roe were overturned by the Court, abortion would be illegal in a majority of the country; the reality is actually more complicated. Some states have laws protecting unborn children that predate Roe v Wade; other states have taken steps to pass "trigger laws" that would become effective to protect unborn children in the event of Roe's reversal. A plurality of states, including Maryland, either by state court decision or legislative action, would allow abortion on demand within their border.

In Maryland, Democratic lawmakers, 60% of whom were endorsed in the last election by the National Abortion Rights Action League (NARAL), are acting in the best interest of the abortion industry, not Maryland women and families. Maryland was one of the first states to codify Roe v Wade in 1992, which means abortion will remain legal in Maryland unless the legislature repeals that law.

The Maryland primary election in July is the best opportunity for Maryland voters to cure the government of its abortion extremism by electing more pro-life legislators. Now is the time to educate yourself about every candidate's pro-life stance. Your vote does matter and is important.

One more request, pray for the safety of our Supreme Court Justices and their families as they render the final decision. Pray for peace in our nation and that every child may celebrate a birth day!
