End of Life Presentation

Tuesday, May 31 –7:00PM—Friendship Room

Come and be informed about Catholic end of life issues. What does the Catechism of the Catholic Church say about the end of life? What is ordinary versus extraordinary means of medical care? This is an opportunity to prepare for the end of life for your loved ones. Presentation given by Fr. Scott, Fr. Jack and Laura Wannall.

Our faith community will participate in raising funds for the Catherine Foundation. The Foundation offers help to families and babies in crisis. This fundraiser is an excellent opportunity for families, and individuals to honor the sanctity of human life. It is a practical way for everyone to support a local mission that helps save the unborn and support families with children. Take a bottle home, fill with change, cash or checks payable to The Catherine Foundation and then return the bottle to the church or parish office by Tuesday, May 31st. Your support of this fundraising effort will be greatly appreciated.

St. Rita of Cascia | May 22

St. Rita of Cascia (1381 – 1457) had the opportunity to live her life as a wife, mother, widow, and eventually, member of a religious community. Born in central Italy, St. Rita felt the calling to become a nun, but was pressured at a young age into marriage. During her 18-year marriage to a cruel man, she raised two sons. When her husband was killed in a brawl and her sons died, St. Rita decided to go back to her first love and attempted to join the Augustinian nuns in Cascia. Her status as a widow caused some complications to her entering, but she eventually succeeded in professing vows.

Throughout her lifetime, St. Rita of Cascia was known for her prayerfulness and charity. She also experienced stigmata on her forehead, meditated frequently on Christ's passion, and cared for the nuns of her religious community and those in the lay community who came to her for counsel. © LPi

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Priest's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

On Saturday many of our 2nd graders and some of our 3rd graders will make their First Holy Communion. This great sacrament will be their second sacrament of initiation, leaving just Confirmation to complete their sacramental initiation in the Church. And we shouldn't ignore the 23 young people who received confirmation just a few weeks ago. Or the 8 people who received the Sacraments at the Easter Vigil. In the past month alone another 9 people have requested Baptisms for their newborns and there are several marriages happening here over the next few months!

I give that quick sacramental update to hopefully inspire a little hope in the current spiritual situation in the parish. And that doesn't include the numerous confessions that are heard throughout the week nor does it include the many people who are returning to Mass after not being able to come these past few years. It is a great sign of the Holy Spirit moving people to return to the Lord or to find Him for the first time! We ought to praise God for that!

But we know that no one comes to the Lord alone. Jesus came to earth in the flesh once and continues to be in-carnate ("in the flesh") to this day. He desires for us to help each other find Him. We must return thanks to God for these souls who are fed in the Eucharist, cleansed in Baptism and Confession, and strengthened in Confirmation. But we should give thanks also to the many people who have helped them along the way.

Primarily to the parents who have instilled faith in them and who gave them life. But also, to the many members of this church community - especially Bill Wannall, our Pastoral Associate, to Anna Albright, our youth minister and confirmation coordinator, to the office staff who has done so much to organize and direct those seeking sacramental graces, and to the numerous catechists who have sacrificed so much time in order to form these young Catholics. All of them have done a wonderful job teaching the faith since their year started in September and have earned a prayer of gratitude.

But they also witness to the reality that God wants us to be a part of others' conversions. We need to take seriously the call of Christ to "make disciples of all nations" (Matthew 28:19). We, in a mysterious way, take on the flesh of Christ when we invite others to Mass, even those we know will probably say no. We do an act of mercy when we help others to find what they seek, which is ultimately the Lord. So, as we celebrate these wonderful accomplishments, let us also seek to build upon them and build up the Kingdom.

God Bless, Fr. Jack

Grounds Apostolate Seeking Men Volunteers

The Sacred Heart Grounds Apostolate was established six years ago as an opportunity for men of the parish to help maintain the church grounds. Volunteers help with snow removal from the side-walks in the winter and with cutting the grass in the spring and summer.

While this effort saves the parish money from not having to pay someone to do this work, it was mainly instituted to encourage men to take some ownership in the life of the parish.

If you are able to help please contact Deacon Matt via email mlaidley@sacredheartlaplata.org or on his cell at 301 643-1683

Blessing of the Child in the Womb

This special blessing will be offered to all mothers for the child within her womb at all Masses on May 28th and 29th. We recall how the Blessed Mother visited her cousin, Elizabeth, and how her child leaped for joy at the sound of Mary's greeting. We celebrate the feast of the Visitation on May 31st.

End of Life Presentation will be held on Tuesday evening, May 31st, at 7pm with Fr. Scott, Fr. Jack, and Laura Wannall.

In light of the promise of sharing in divine life, which Christians believe will reach its full realization in eternity, life on earth is not our final destination. Nonetheless, life remains a sacred reality entrusted to us, to be preserved with a sense of responsibility and brought to perfection in love and in the gift of ourselves to God and to our brothers and sisters.

A desire for good health and a long life are aspirations common to almost everyone. Advances in medical technologies bring with them new promises of curing disease and living longer, healthier lives than ever before. But new medical capabilities can also be the source of heightened patient anxiety about a needless prolonged, painful, and expensive dying process. Medical advances bring with them new and complex questions regarding medical treatments and moral decision making.

It is important not to let the questions raised by new technologies eclipse what should be transcendent and grace-filled moments in the dying process: attending to spiritual needs, healing broken relationships, and saying goodbye. Our Catholic faith offers both a long tradition of reflection and a wealth of teaching to help guide us through these complicated issues.

Difficult decisions about the use of medical technologies at the end of life may be made easier if we take the time to express our wishes about end-of-life treatments before illness strikes. In order to make wise decisions about complex treatments in grave illness or as life's end approaches, and to discern what kind of advance medical directives to prepare, it is important that Catholics be familiar with what our faith teaches about human life.

Please join us for this faith-filled presentation.

Next weekend, May 29 the second collection will be for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD). Your support for this collection brings change to communities across the country and empowers those living in poverty to transform the places where they live into reflections of the Kingdom of God. Thank you for your generosity.
