LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Human beings easily get bored. Life's routines can become so predictable that there is often little time for excitement or freshness. Today is all about the new and the wonderful. In celebrating the beauty and simplicity of the Epiphany, we see in tangible ways God's creative, redemptive, and restorative power. This refreshment and revitalization is offered not only to a select few but to everyone throughout the world. There is nothing routine or static about God. Surprises, wonders, miracles, opportunities, healings, and joy without measure are available to those who believe. There are never any endings, just beginnings. And, when darkness, boredom, and gloom seem to be the order of the day, a bright new light now shines pointing us to truth and reminding us that we are loved.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

The patron saint of Catholic schools, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton (August 28, 1774 – January 4, 1821) was born in New York City to a prominent family of the Episcopal faith. When she turned 19, she married a wealthy businessman with whom she had five children. He later died of tuberculosis in 1803, leaving her a young widow. After discovering the Catholic faith in Italy, where her husband had died, she returned to New York and converted to Catholicism in 1805.

After several years struggling as a single mother, Elizabeth moved in 1809 to Emmitsburg, Maryland, where she founded the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph, the first community for religious women established in the United States. She also began St. Joseph's Academy and Free School, which started a chain reaction of Catholic-based education in the United States that continues today.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton was canonized September 14, 1975 in St. Peter's Square by Pope Paul VI and was the first citizen born in the United States to be given the title of "saint."

"Backpack Blessings" Initiative & Clothing Drive

Will you help sponsor a backpack for those in need this winter?

With your support, we hope to distribute at least 100 backpacks filled with toiletries, winter clothing, hand warmers, snacks, a first-aid kit, and other critically needed items to those who have been living on the streets in Boston and local communities. Many battle addiction, hunger, homelessness and/or mental health issues. In a coordinated effort with the city, backpacks will be carefully distributed to men and women willing to seek treatment, those moving to transitional housing or provided to those truly in need.

How can you help?

Monetary donations can be made online with QR code, link below or by check payable to St Paul Parish - memo: Backpack Blessings - drop off at rectory or mail to St Paul Parish, Attn: Linda, 147 North Street, Hingham, MA 02043.

Amazon Wish List - https://www.amazon.com/hz/wishlist/ls/26SM2B3RZ4WBD?ref_=wl_share

Bring gently used (or new) winter clothing or blankets to church: please check your closets We'll be collecting gently used or new blankets as well as men's and women's jackets, gloves, and hats for distributions. These can be dropped off at either rectory in the coming weeks. Thank you.

As the temperature gets colder, the homeless need our help more and more. Jesus calls us to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, shelter the homeless. Let's see what we can do to help.

If you have questions, please contact Carol Costello at 617.448.5413 or Tony Viola at 617.501.7900.

Thank you for your generosity and prayers.

Afghan evacuees in the South Shore need assistance

Hingham and the South Shore are serving as a respite for families evacuated from Afghanistan through the generosity of the Glastonbury Abbey and several local families who have offered temporary housing.

- Provide items for welcome baskets (toothpaste, shampoo, conditioner, soap, deodorant, shaving cream, razors, toothbrushes, face cloths, tissues, face masks, sanitizers, snacks such as dried fruit, granola bars, packaged soup or cereal).
- Buy Stop & Shop gift cards for the families once they arrive in the South Shore

Contact Jocelyn @ jcdunphy1@gmail.com if you have any of the above that you would like to donate.
