A Sense of Humor

Without the ability to laugh at ourselves and with others, life becomes a burden almost too heavy to carry. How many times have people found themselves overburdened because they take themselves too seriously? With pressures of modern living, especially with COVID and Omicron, each of us has to learn to lighten up.

This story is told about Socrates, the great Greek philosopher. One day his wife scolded him with bitter words and then dumped a bucket of water over his head. Unlike most men, being a philosopher, he remarked that after so much thunder and lightning, he expected a shower.

Though it is not recorded in the life of Christ, we can be certain that living with his Apostles, each a unique personality, there were many sessions of hearty laughter. No doubt this was instrumental in helping them to gladly give up their lives for the Master. The light-hearted soul is also the contented and courageous soul.

The Monthly Prayer Requests for Priests Ministry provides a monthly calendar that lists one individual priest in the Boston Archdiocese each day and a suggested prayer. This is a convenient way to pray for all our priests individually by name throughout the year. At www.mprpapostolate.com click the "This Month's Calendar" on the home page and you can download and print the calendar for the Archdiocese of Boston. All of our clergy, but especially our priests, need our prayers!

"Backpack Blessings" Initiative & Clothing Drive

Will you help sponsor a backpack for those in need this winter?

With your support, we hope to distribute at least 100 backpacks filled with toiletries, winter clothing, hand warmers, snacks, a first-aid kit, and other critically needed items to those who have been living on the streets in Boston and local communities. Many battle addiction, hunger, homelessness and/or mental health issues. In a coordinated effort with the city, backpacks will be carefully distributed to men and women willing to seek treatment, those moving to transitional housing or provided to those truly in need.

How can you help?

Monetary donations can be made online with QR code, link below or by check payable to St Paul Parish - memo: Backpack Blessings - drop off at either Resurrection or St. Paul rectory or mail to St Paul Parish, Attn: Linda, 147 North Street, Hingham, MA 02043.

As the temperature gets colder, the homeless need our help more and more. Jesus calls us to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, shelter the homeless. Let's see what we can do to help.
