A Message from Monsignor Bob

As we approach Ascension Day this week, we listen to Jesus' farewell discourse in John's Gospel. Christ's message to us on his final days on earth is powerful and beautifully summarizes the ministry He shared with us. While He returns to the Father, He assures us that we will not be abandoned or forgotten but that the Holy Spirit will descend upon us and dwell with us forever.

"I have told you this while I am with you. The Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid. You heard me tell you, 'I am going away and will come back to you.' If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father; for the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you this before it happens, so that when it happens you may believe."

Even though Jesus offers the disciples this assurance, their fears and anxieties were heightened. They were aware how quickly people could turn against the teachings of Jesus they were asked to preach and teach and that they could experience the same suffering and humiliation Jesus did. Would this promised Advocate free them from their fears and give them the courage and faith they needed to carry on the mission Jesus gave to them? We know that when Jesus ascended into heaven, the disciples returned to that upper room, shuttering the windows and locking the doors for fear of those enemies of Christ. They prayed. They hoped. They struggled to believe they could accomplish what Christ asked of them. They were only human; how could God protect them? They began the first novena in our Church; nine days of prayer for the fulfillment of yet another promise made to them. Would their faith and trust in Jesus sustain them during this time of waiting for the Spirit? It is very easy for us to identify with the disciples during this period. It is very difficult for us not to be afraid and to trust. Are we willing to let that Spirit permeate our lives and give us the courage we need to stand against the world in the ways of truth? These are all questions to be answered as we approach Pentecost and the coming of the Spirit once again in our lives. Let us enter into our own novena of prayer and seek the strength we need to witness to Christ so that we stand unafraid in the midst of the world.

ASCENSION THURSDAY MASSES (A Holyday of Obligation)

Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

Thursday at 6:45 a.m. 9:00 a.m. (livestreamed/parking lot) 5:30 p.m.

We have completed our sacramental celebrations of Confirmation and First Communion with the young of our parish. Please pray for these children and young men and women for the faith they need. More importantly, please pray for their parents that they keep their children close to the heart of Christ by encouraging them to live the sacraments and graces they have received. As you know, it is very disheartening to me on the Sunday after they have been confirmed or received Holy Communion to have so few in church. With the way the world is going, these families need to be together in prayer and faith.

Thanks to all the men of the parish who participated in our 22nd Men's Fellowship Weekend. It has been a blessing for me to see so many of our men take some time for themselves and join with other men in prayer, in listening, in discussing and in silence. Time with the Lord and other men of faith reminds all of us that we are not alone in our beliefs or the way we chose to live a Catholic Christian life. Special thanks to the 10 men of the team who met once a week for over six months to prepare their witness talks and the weekend for the retreatants. Thanks to their wives and families for allowing them this time away. Miracles happened once again in the lives of these men and how blessed we are to be witnesses of them.

Thanks for all the good wishes and prayers offered for Fr. Tomasz on his 12th anniversary of ordination and my 49th. Your support is our richest blessing! Know how grateful and blessed we are!
