A Message from Monsignor Bob

Through the eyes of those who live in the secular world today's Gospel would certainly be interpreted differently than those with the eyes of faith. For them this paints Jesus as someone demanding, uncompromising, lacking compassion and unrealistic. Those He was calling only wanted to do what anyone of us would want to do before we left everything and everyone to follow Him. "Let me go first and bury my father" and "First let me say farewell to my family at home" are more than reasonable requests! Why did Jesus react as He did: "Let the dead bury the dead" and "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God." Harsh words indeed! But what is the true meaning of these interactions? Jesus wants us to free ourselves of the things of this world in order to not simply follow Him but to be sure our priorities are in order. Can we keep God first in our lives no matter what we may be doing or going through? We are great with excuses which block us from doing what we should be doing or doing what is right. We can find an excuse for just about everything. But when it comes to the things of faith and trust in God, those excuses pale in comparison. In fact, they often seem nonsensical. Jesus is trying to free us from ourselves and allow us to be clear about what truly matters. We can be so caught up in the anxieties and worries of the times that we fail to trust that He will see us through them. We are so caught up in concern of things that may never happen that we lose the grace of the time in which we are living.

More importantly, we forget how God chooses to walk with us through life by placing so many obstacles in our way which do not create a clear path for us to walk with Him. So put all the excuses aside and take the leap of faith that keeps us in the path of truth, light and peace! Saint Paul confirms that in his letter to the Galatians "For freedom Christ set us free; so stand firm and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery." Let us ask ourselves what yokes we continue to carry that prevent us from freely following Christ and walking firm in the hope that is ours in Christ. Be ready when you are called to follow Him, not with excuses but with an open heart!

It is always difficult to say thanks for all the support of our annual carnival when the bulletin has to go to press before the carnival even begins! I am writing in great hope and trust that God blessed us with a successful and happy week! I can say thanks for the following at this writing:

- + Thanks to all the behind the scene workers who have given hours planning this year's event: Mary Jo Runkle, Doreen Morrissey, Rich Fenaroli, Chris Locke, Guy Mascolo, Jon Miodanka, Jeff Leja, Fred Ventresca, Dave Cicchesi, Joe Jackson and Rich Tortora
- + Thanks to Kathy Cragin for coordinating the annual Carnival Sweepstakes and to all of you who supported it. It looks like one of our best years! As you know, should we lose a night due to weather, we depend heavily on this Sweepstakes for our profit margin.
- + Thanks to all the area restaurants who supported us with food donations. This is not the easiest time to seek these donations on the heels of the pandemic and the constantly increasing food prices, but once again they said yes to us for which we are most grateful! Please support them as generously as they supported us.
- + Thanks to all the parishioners who signed up to volunteer. We could never do this carnival without our great volunteers. It is wonderful to see parishioners who never volunteered before joining us!
- + Thanks to all the Carnival Sponsors, both businesses and individuals. You saw their signs throughout the carnival grounds. Please say thanks when you visit their businesses, offices or use their services.
- + Thanks to all of you who helped fill our pantry with the supplies we needed for the carnival. Many times throughout the week when I was working in my office, I watched car after car drop off donated items to help us. What a blessing and what generosity especially in these times.
- + Thanks to all of you who donated bracelets for families in need of financial assistance. I am sure they never would have been able to attend the carnival were it not for you. They had a good time and many smiles thanks to you!
- + Thanks to everyone who took a rosary and prayed for the blessings of safety and good weather....I know whatever happened was God's plan, but it doesn't hurt to ask!
- + Thanks to all of you who attended and supported the carnival. I must admit it was great to see so many familiar faces once again and see people reconnecting or making new friendships...that is why we do what we do!
.....more thanks next week!

We'll go the extra mile.
Maybe you've never considered our funeral home because you think it's too far.
Our service, attractive facility and affordable prices will make it worth the trip.
After all, why would you go the extra distance for anything less?
There's a reason you should, too.
