MARCH 15 - 21, 2025

The new Knights of Columbus Sacred Heart traveling pilgrim icon was on display for veneration before the Jan. 3 Mass at St. Mary Church, part of Blessed Michael McGivney Parish. Photo by Paul Haring

A reproduction image of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus is making its way around the world and may be viewed in parishes in the Archdiocese of Hartford this year.

This reproduction is one of more than 300 icons, each bearing the Apostolic Blessing of Pope Francis. It is the most recent addition to the Knights of Columbus traveling pilgrim icon program. The icons are currently traveling around the world as part of the Knights of Columbus Pilgrim icon program.

The Sacred Heart of Jesus pilgrim icon program was launched by the Knights of Columbus on Jan. 3 at St. Mary Church, part of Blessed Michael McGivney Parish in New Haven. During that prayer service, an icon depicting the most famous image of the Sacred Heart of Jesus -- painted by Pompeo Batoni in 1767 and now venerated in the Church of the Gesù in Rome -- was displayed for veneration. It bears the blessing of Pope Francis through the Papal Almoner.

The Sacred Heart of Jesus pilgrim icon program also coincides with the 350th anniversary of the visions of St. Margaret Mary Alacoque,

NEW PILGRIM ICON DEPICTS IMAGE OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

- Story by Karen A. Avitabile

a French Catholic nun who gave the Church the Twelve Promises of the Sacred Heart and the First Friday devotions.

In one of the apparitions, Jesus Christ told Alacoque: "Behold this Heart which has so loved men that it has spared nothing, even to exhausting and consuming itself, in order to testify its love." This quote is central to the Sacred Heart of Jesus Catholic devotion. The heart refers to Jesus' physical heart and his boundless love for mankind.

Pope Clement XIII officially recognized and approved the devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus in 1765, some 75 years after St. Alacoque's death. In 1920, St. Margaret Mary Alacoque was canonized by Pope Benedict XV. Today, she is recognized as the patron saint of people who suffer from polio, the loss of a parent and those who devote themselves to the Sacred Heart.

The publication of the fourth encyclical of Pope Francis, Dilexit Nos (He Loved Us), is devoted to the Sacred Heart. "In many ways, Dilexit Nos can serve as a mission statement for the Knights of Columbus in today's world," Supreme Knight Patrick Kelly says.

"The pope observes that we live in a fragmented and divided society, but the heart of Christ is a unifying center. It is the source of truth and goodness that we all need."

Archdiocese of Hartford priest and Knights' founder Blessed Michael J. McGivney was deeply devoted to the Sacred Heart. His family displayed an ornate devotional plaque of the Sacred Heart in their Waterbury home. The plaque is still in the Knights' possession and is on display in the Blessed Michael McGivney Pilgrimage Center in New Haven.

The Sacred Heart of Jesus is the 20th traveling pilgrim icon venerated through the Knights' program since its formation in 1979. Our Lady of Guadalupe was the first pilgrim icon. Since then, the program has enabled more than 23 million people to honor Our Lord, Our Lady and the saints.

Parishes in the Archdiocese of Hartford should contact their local Knights of Columbus council to host the icon for veneration and schedule a Sacred Heart holy hour. For more information about the Knights of Columbus pilgrim icon program, visit kofc.org/sacredheart.

Second Sunday of Lent: Strengthened by Jesus

By Deacon Frank Bevvino

In our gospel this Sunday, Jesus brings His disciples away from the noise and business of the market place and takes them up a mountain. This is not unusual. We know from the gospels that Jesus often went to the mountain top to pray on His own. While they are on the mountain, something strange happens. Jesus is transformed beyond all recognition. Imagine the surprise and shock of those who were with Jesus.

As we continue our Lenten journey and Jesus continues His journey towards Jerusalem, He knows what He is facing. He will be betrayed, denied, condemned and crucified. Perhaps He feels and senses the disciples' fear and anxiety and so wants to reassure them. So, He gives them a glimpse of the shape of things to come; He is revealed to them in all His glory.

Maybe this brief, glorious glimpse of Jesus is also meant for us today. Perhaps like the disciples, we experience fear, doubt and even a lack of faith. Perhaps we also need to be encouraged and strengthened by Jesus, especially as we continue our journey through Lent. We need to know that our prayer, fasting and sharing with the poor is not an end in itself. We are heading towards the resurrection and the new life of Easter, but we have a distance to go. But the experience of Jesus transformed offers each of us a taste of what lies ahead for us. If we share in the suffering and passion of Jesus, we will also share in His resurrection.

This is the hope in which we are asked to have faith as we make our way through Lent. When we are tempted to give up and give in, let us look to Jesus, changed and transformed. May we see in Him the future that is promised to us, not only at Easter, but in the fullness of God's Kingdom. As we continue to make our way through Lent, let us do what the voice of God says to each of us: "This is my Son, Listen to him."
