Maysoon Khair will be at our church in May 21 & 22, 2022 representing over a hundred Christian families who make their livelihood through the selling of their hand carved olive wood religious articles.

After all Masses there will be a display of these beautiful hand carved religious items; such as nativity scenes, crucifixes, rosaries, last supper and many other beautiful religious statues.

Please stop by and look over the carvings that are available and help support this self-help project to help the Children and the Christians living in the Holy Land.

HEARING THE VOICE OF THE SHEPHERD AND FOLLOWING

The young pastor was teaching the 23rd Psalm to the school children. He told them that they were sheep who needed guidance. Then the priest asked, “If you are the sheep, then who is the shepherd?”— Obviously indicating himself. A silence of a few seconds followed. Then a young boy said, “Jesus. Jesus is the Shepherd.” The young priest, obviously caught by surprise, said to the boy, “Well then, who am I?” The boy frowned thoughtfully and then said, “I guess you must be a sheep dog.”

Today’s gospel is one of the shortest gospels ever proclaimed at Mass. Jesus simply describes his relationship with his followers as the relationship between a shepherd who really cares for his sheep and the sheep. While most of us have never seen a shepherd and even fewer have ever been a shepherd, all of us have at times been shepherded. We’ve been herded for our own safety or for the safety of others, or even just for the convenience of others. As school children, we probably were shepherded into lines in and out of the classroom. As adults, we’ve been shepherded into lines when shopping or visiting amusement parks. Airports are one of the places where we are shepherded through security and onto the plane. One way or another, we have been part of the crowd, herded around. We probably have all experienced shepherds who were kind and concerned, as well as those who’ve treated us like sheep rather than like a human person.

Christ the Good Shepherd calls us to listen intentionally, wisely for his voice in the depths of our hearts, to listen for his voice in the love and joy, the pain and anguish, the cries for mercy and justice of those around us. Christ speaks in many voices — including our own. We can be the “voice” of Christ’s compassion, comfort, forgiveness and peace in even our smallest and simplest words and acts of kindness and generosity.

Jesus did make it clear that the “sheep that BELONGS to me LISTENS to my VOICE I know them and they follow me” (John 10:27). The downfall of our spiritual journey had always been our inability to listen to the voice of God. Our world is actually filled with a lot of noise coming from various distractive sources: friends, relations, neighbors, television, telephone, internet and other means of communication in our highly technologized world.

Today is also Mother’s Day. We thank God for our mothers, pray for them and honor them by celebrating Mother’s Day and by offering our mothers on the altar of God and by praying for them. Our mothers are the good shepherds we all experienced. Let us entrust our mothers to our Heavenly Mother, Mary, the mother of Jesus who gave her as our mother, as his last gift to us from the cross, before his death.

Today is also “World Day of Prayer for Vocations.” It is a day when Christians are invited to reflect on the meaning of God’s call and to pray that they may answer the call to dedicate their lives to serve the Church in a special way, i.e. to shepherd the Church communities. Therefore, “Vocations Sunday” is not just for a few selected for directly religious vocations, it is for all of us. If we will all actively respond to that call what a wonderful community we will be! For, “We are his people, the sheep of his flock.”

Let us pray – God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, help us to attune our minds to the sound of your Son’s voice, lead our steps to the path he has shown, that we may know the strength of his outstretched arm and enjoy the light of your presence forever. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

May God continue to bless our Mothers and guide them in all their endeavors!

Happy Mother’s Day!

Please stay safe and healthy! I love you and I miss you!
