We Need Your Help!

We are looking for new lectors to help with readings at our Masses particularly for our weekend liturgies. We will be holding an introductory meeting on June 8th at 7:00 PM in the Blessed Joseph Gerard Room. We would like to also invite those who presently serve in this important ministry for a learning experience and to talk with those considering the ministry.

We anticipate a two-hour meeting with discussion of the ministry and a one hour video presentation on the three paths to holiness authored by Father Robert Barron who is now a Bishop in California.

We ask that you call the rectory to let us know how many will be attending.

Spirit Sunday - Weekend of June 4th & 5th

Fifty days after Easter, we celebrate the Feast of Pentecost. This is when the Holy Spirit, whom Jesus promised would come to us after his Ascension, came upon His followers as tongues of fire. Some people consider this feast the “birth” of the Church. The gift of the Holy Spirit dwelling within each of us is crucial to our Faith and helps us to follow His way.

But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts. Nevertheless I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Counselor will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. And when he comes, he will convince the world concerning sin and righteousness and judgment: concerning sin, because they do not believe in me; concerning righteousness, because I go to the Father, and you will see me no more; concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world is judged.

On the first Pentecost, the eleven, Mary, and many others were all together in one place. As promised by Jesus before the Ascension, the Holy Spirit was then sent down from Heaven. He came with a noise like a gust of wind and settled as tongues of fire on everyone's head. Everyone started speaking different languages. There were Jews from different nations who were staying in Jerusalem; each one of these heard the new Christians speaking in their own language. That is the power of the Holy Spirit... it can bring the world together in Jesus' name.

Once again, we are going to celebrate Spirit Sunday here at St. William's on Pentecost. We are asking everyone to please wear RED at Mass that weekend. Many Parish organizations will have tables set up in the Parish Center after all the Masses, so please come check out everything St. William's has to offer. Maybe you'll discover a new way you can share your time and talent with your fellow parishioners!

Please help us make this a success for our Parish Community, by joining us for this very special occasion.

ST. WILLIAM'S BLESSED VIRGIN MARY SODALITY AND MEN'S CLUB

O God, let all the nations praise You!.....(Ps.... 67)

DO NOT BE WORRIED OR AFRAID... I WILL GIVE YOU SHALOM!

We all have friends. We have people in our lives whom we love, respect, and count on, challenge, and are challenged by them in return. It is hard for us to say goodbye to a good friend who is moving away, a son/daughter going away to college, a spouse called to active duty, or a best friend who dies. Our best friend is leaving town. I was in Buffalo, NY for six years. I remembered when I had to leave the parishes in Buffalo. I had to say goodbye to the people in the parishes. I had to say goodbye to my friends. It is hard to say goodbye. We always do the 'promise' thing, "I'll write you often, maybe I will visit in a couple months when you get settled, let's keep in touch through emails, text message, on social media, on Facebook, etc." It's hard to see someone we care about take leave from us.

Jesus and his friends were no different than us. Jesus knew that there would come a time when they would have to say goodbye. The apostles, like many of us, knew deep down that this was going to happen, but they didn't really understand it. Jesus began to prepare them for his departure as early as the Last Supper. During the past couple of weeks, we have been invited to journey with Jesus as He speaks His farewell words to His disciples. Jesus reminds them that He will always be present to them and will remind them of all they have been taught. The final words of Jesus serve as a constant reminder of the living presence of Christ in the lives of all who are called to a special friendship with our God.

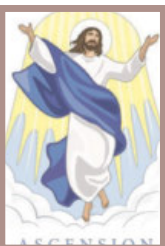

The living presence of Christ guides, sustains, and comforts us in the challenges and struggles of daily living. What a gift to know and truly believe that we are never alone! Jesus promised all of us that He would never leave us alone, He promised to send an Advocate, the Holy Spirit who 'will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you.' Jesus says, "Whoever loves me will keep my word..." Keeping the words of Jesus means forgiving our enemy...turning the other cheek...feeding the hungry...confronting injustices, etc. We cannot do it on our own. So, Jesus is making sure he leaves us what we need to fulfill his teachings and experience his new life deep within ourselves, and in the community. The Spirit will continue the work of Jesus by reminding us what Christ taught us to do: to not be selfish but work and share in community; let go of bitterness and grudges to forgive; overcome fear and take on the daring deeds of self-sacrifice.

Through the Holy Spirit, this is how Jesus keeps in touch with his disciples. This is how Jesus keeps in touch with us. Jesus also tells us that the peace he gives is not the kind given by the "world." It does not mean, necessarily, the absence of conflict. He does tell us not to be afraid. It is his presence that gives peace, even when we are faced with hardships and difficult challenges. The peace of Jesus sustains all who are sick and suffering. It is something we can give to others on his behalf. I hope we can remember this the next time we hear at Mass, "Let us offer one another a sign of peace." As we continue the Lord's work of building God's Kingdom on earth—as it is in heaven—let us rely on the Holy Spirit to give us guidance in our need. Come Holy Spirit!

Let us pray – Father, we pray that this season of Easter has deepened our awareness of the promises that you continue to make to us. Open our hearts and our minds to the fullness of the vision that you have for us, so that we can truly embrace this great gift. Amen

Please stay safe and healthy! I love you and I miss you!
