Stewardship Reflection

Our Gospel today conveys how we are called to imitate Jesus through humility and service.

We are reminded that the Son of God became man and surrendered His life into the hands of men so that we might be saved. The life of Jesus was centered around His Father's mission and the service of mankind. And this is how we ought to live — in imitation of Christ.

James and John wanted to ensure they had a spot in heaven with Jesus. They were concerned about themselves in that moment — "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left."

Jesus quickly reminded them, "whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all."

Our culture constantly encourages us to do what we can to get ahead in this world, to do what feels good, no matter the effects — that power, authority, and wealth should be our goals in life.

Our faith offers us something different and fulfilling — a life of humility and service. As Christian stewards, we are called to live our lives in service of God and neighbor, just as Jesus did. Our life is not about us. It is about fulfilling God's glorious plan for each one of us.

So, we must ask ourselves, are we living out God's plan for our lives? Is my life centered on Christ and those around me or is it centered on me?

It can be difficult to know God's plan for our entire life. He sees the whole picture — we only see the now. All we can do is seek Him daily. If each day is centered on Him, then our entire lives will become the work of Jesus.

Confessional or Reconciliation Room

The Confessional or Reconciliation Room is where God sacramentally forgives sins and restores broken relationships through the ministry of the Church. Canon Law dictates that the best place to celebrate the Rite of Penance is in a church. "The bishops of the United States have directed that the place for sacramental confession be visible and accessible, that it contain a fixed grille [or screen to insure anonymity if desired by the penitent], and that it allow for confession face-to-face for those who wish to do so." (Living Stones, 103)

"In planning the reconciliation area, parishes will want to provide for a sound-proof place with a chair for the priest and a kneeler and chair for the penitent. Since the rite includes the reading of Scripture, the space should also include a bible. Appropriate artwork, a crucifix . . ., [icons] help to enhance the atmosphere of prayer. Warm, inviting lighting welcomes penitents who seek God's help and some form of amplification as well as braille signs can aid those with hearing or visual disabilities. Additional rooms or spaces will be needed as confessional areas for communal celebrations of penance, especially in Advent and Lent." (105)

Where are the Confessionals in your church?

Saint Patrick's 175th anniversary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

It is with great joy and gratitude that I extend my heartfelt congratulations to the entire St. Patrick's Church community as we celebrate 175 years of faith and service! This milestone is not just a reflection of the years gone by but a testimony to the enduring presence of God in our parish and the many lives touched by His love throughout the generations.

For 175 years, St. Patrick's has stood as a beacon of hope. It has been a place where the Word of God has been proclaimed, sacraments have nourished souls, and hands and hearts have joined in service to those in need. From the countless baptisms, weddings, and confirmations to the solemn prayers for those who have gone before us, our church has been a sacred home, forming us into a family united in Christ.

As we celebrate this anniversary, we give thanks for the legacy of faith built by the many parishioners, priests, religious sisters, and lay leaders who came before us. Their dedication, sacrifices, and unwavering trust in God laid the foundation upon which we now stand. In particular, we remember those who persevered through challenges like wars, economic hardships, pandemics, and cultural shifts yet remained steadfast in their faith.

Our celebration today also calls us to look forward with renewed hope. Just as those before us responded to the needs of their time, we are invited to do the same. There are new opportunities to grow in faith, deepen our relationships with one another, and continue the mission of Christ by reaching out to those on the margins. With God's grace, we can embrace the future with the same spirit of courage, generosity, and love that has marked our past.

I encourage each of you to take this moment as an opportunity to reflect on what St. Patrick's means to you personally. Let us renew our commitment to Christ and His Church, trusting that the Holy Spirit will guide us into the next chapter of our parish's story. Whether you've been with St. Patrick's for decades or are a newcomer to the parish, you are an essential part of this family, and together we will continue to bear witness to God's love in this community.

As we celebrate, let us remember that the heart of St. Patrick's Church is not just the building but each one of you, the people who gather to worship, to learn, to serve, and to grow. Thank you for your faithfulness, for your contributions of time and talent, and for making this parish a place where Christ's light shines brightly.

May the next 175 years be marked by the same spirit of faith and unity that has brought us to this joyful moment. And may the intercession of St. Patrick, our beloved patron, inspire us to continue sharing the Gospel with zeal and joy.

With gratitude and prayers,
Rev. Brian P Dowd
Pastor

The tour of our beautiful Stained Glass windows continues . . .

THE TRANSFIGURATION

High on a mountain top, Christ reveals His glorious nature and proves He is the Son of God to three of his disciples: Peter, James, and John. The earthly witnesses, depicted in this piece of stained glass art, look upon the Messiah in wonder.

JESUS GIVES PETER THE KEYS TO THE KINGDOM

This stained glass window depicts a scene where Jesus is handing a set of keys to the apostle Peter, symbolizing the biblical passage in Matthew 16:19 where Jesus says "I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven," signifying Peter's authority as the foundation of the Church.
