Parish Mission Statement

"We, the parish family of St. Joseph the Worker, are called to be a Christ-centered community seeking to renew our lives through conversion and spiritual growth.

By the power of the Holy Spirit, we strive to spread the Good News of Jesus Christ by word, worship, welcome and service. By the Word of God, we encourage and strengthen one another through prayer, education, outreach and evangelization."

16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. - Mk 6:34

Adoration Through the Franciscan Lens

“We too, with our own eyes, see only bread and wine, but we must see further and firmly believe that this is his most holy Body and Blood, living and true.”
Francis of Assisi, “The Admonitions,” Omnibus, p.79.

While gazing in adoration, at the body of Christ held so beautifully in the monstrance which seemed to radiate like the sun, even as I heard the pouring rain on the roof, I reflected on the presence of Jesus in front of me and my own reflection of Jesus to others. One of the primary Franciscan traditions is to acknowledge the presence of Jesus in our lives. Both Francis and Clare built their lives around this idea. According to the first admonition of St. Francis, the gift Jesus gave us in the Eucharist is the opportunity to expand the work of the kingdom of God to everyone.

When we participate in adoration, we put ourselves in direct contact with the God of presence and mission. Our action as adorers, pales in the face of God’s action of infusing us with the spirit of the Divine Being. In this time and in this space, in this Presence, is the invitation to an essential turning toward God. Few of us take the time to spend an hour or so in adoration of the Most Holy Eucharist. It is uncomfortable for many at first, for we are so used to rushing around, and, “we don’t have time”, and we are uncomfortable with silence, but as one continues to gaze in silent adoration, the gift becomes more evident with each time spent in the presence of Christ. As we give our worries over to God’s care, we learn to allow our adoration to strengthen our faith, trust, hope and compassion. We are changed dramatically just by being in this living presence and being open to the action of our gracious God. We become instruments of God’s peace, mercy, joy, consolation or courage. The more we celebrate the small miracles of life, the more we realize the very personal action of God in our daily living. Imagine, God trusts us to spread His presence everywhere. It is our challenge to recognize God’s action in our lives and to follow His promptings as life unfolds around us. One of the best ways to do this is to put ourselves in His presence, be quiet and listen.

More than imitating Jesus, we must be Jesus to others in our everyday life experiences.

At the end of your day take time to examine the unusual actions of God in your life and rejoice in the surprises God sends your way.

May the Lord give you His Peace,

Charlotte Kelly OFS

Saint Bridget of Sweden's Story

Saint of the Day for July 23

From age 7 on, Bridget had visions of Christ crucified. Her visions formed the basis for her activity—always with the emphasis on charity rather than spiritual favors.

She lived her married life in the court of the Swedish king Magnus II. Mother of eight children—the second eldest was Saint Catherine of Sweden—Bridget lived the strict life of a penitent after her husband’s death.

Bridget constantly strove to exert her good influence over Magnus; while never fully reforming, he did give her land and buildings to found a monastery for men and women. This group eventually expanded into an Order known as the Bridgetines.

In 1350, a year of jubilee, Bridget braved a plague-stricken Europe to make a pilgrimage to Rome. Although she never returned to Sweden, her years in Rome were far from happy, being hounded by debts and by opposition to her work against Church abuses.

A final pilgrimage to the Holy Land, marred by shipwreck and the death of her son, Charles, eventually led to her death in 1373. In 1999, Bridget, Saint Catherine of Siena and Saint Teresa Benedicta of the Cross, were named co-patronesses of Europe.

Reflection

Bridget’s visions, rather than isolating her from the affairs of the world, involved her in many contemporary issues, whether they be royal policy or the years that the legitimate Bishop of Rome lived in Avignon, France. She saw no contradiction between mystical experience and secular activity, and her life is a testimony to the possibility of a holy life in the marketplace.

Decimo sexto Domingo de Tiempo Ordinario

“Al volver los apóstoles donde estaba Jesús, le contaron todo lo que habían hecho y enseñado (Mc 6.30).

Entonces Jesús les dijo: vamos algún lugar tranquilo a descansar un poco. Un merecido descanso después de todo lo que habían hecho (6.31b). Se alejan entonces en una barca.

Es el momento de reflexionar sobre todo lo que habían vivido, de hacer un recuento de las experiencias que habían tenido.

La gente los reconoce y van por tierra a su encuentro. Al poner un pie en la tierra, Jesús se ve abrumado por una multitud. Se compadece de ellos porque eran como ovejas sin pasto, y les empieza a enseñar lentamente, con mucha paciencia.

La expresión “apiadada” en griego es muy importante. “Literalmente sus entrañas se conmueven, como la de Dios a su pueblo (Os 11,8). Y esta compasión de Jesús se compara con la de un pastor por su oveja descarriada.

Nótese que Israel tenía pastores que no eran como Moisés o David que eran modelos (Ez 34.11 31) El pueblo de Dios ha conocido y conoce a guías que son muy indignos de su misión. Por eso Dios les prometió a Israel un pastor en la persona del Mesías.

En el evangelio de hoy, Jesús aparece como un pastor divino que finalmente viene a cuidar al máximo a su pueblo. Antes de alimentarlos, de dar pan, Jesús satisface primero a los hombres con su palabra.

Reflexion que debemos tener presente en nuestro diario vivir.

Bendiciones,

Thank you, thank you, thank you!

On behalf St Lawrence of Brindisi Franciscan fraternity we would like to thank St Joseph the Worker parish in all they did for the profession day of our Sister Charlotte Kelly ofs. and Our Fraternity. The joy and kindness that was shown to our Fraternity was overwhelming. Fr Janusz Mocarski, Mrs. Judy Hansen, and many others who were such a big part in tending to all the details made the day such a sacred sign of the Holy Spirit's presence within your Church. They were very conscientious of social distancing and making all feel welcome. Their hospitality was beyond compare. May The Lord Bless you all and give you His peace.

Charlotte Kelly ofs is a parishioner of St Joseph the Worker and was professed into the Secular Franciscan Order on May 2nd 2021 She is such a blessing to our fraternity and a beacon of light and hope to all the world. Congratulations Charlotte !

" The Secular Franciscan Family, as one among many spiritual families raised up by The Holy Spirit in the Church, unites all members of the people of God; Laity, Religious, and Priests, who recognizes that they are called to follow Christ in the footsteps of St Francis of Assisi. We are brothers and sisters of penance called to Live the Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ with humility and charity.

Lord, make us all instruments of your peace. Where there is hatred, let us sow love; Where there is injury, pardon; Where there is doubt, faith; Where there is despair, hope; Where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy. May we all be instruments of peace and Joy.

RCIA Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

This program is for adults 18 years or older who have heard the call to accept the Good News of Jesus Christ, and desire to be baptized in the Catholic Church. These catechumens spend time growing in “faith” reflecting on the Good News, digesting the Christian way of life and becoming included in the Community. Formation during this time is more important than mere information. The Sacraments of Initiation, Baptism, Confirmation & Holy Eucharist will be received at the Easter Vigil. For the parish, RCIA reflects a time of renewal. For those Catholic adults seeking Confirmation, a special 13 week program will be offered beginning the first week of Lent of 2022.

Candidates for the Catechumenate will be accepted for and begin formation in September.

Questions, Concerns?? or to register please call Faith Formation and ask to speak to the RCIA coordinator. 631-286-2550.

The Consolation Ministry is in need of Adults who are willing to train and serve as Companions for our Parish funerals. This is a very rewarding ministry, but it does require you to be available for daytime service. (Most funerals are in the morning at 10 or 11am). A companion receives the information for a funeral from the church, reaches out to the family, assists them in choosing Holy Scripture readings and music. Prepares a program and greets and guides the family and friends through the funeral Mass. If you are curious about this ministry or think that God may be calling you to this ministry, please call the Parish office, they will contact me and I will call you back to answer any questions or concerns you may have. May the Lord give you His peace. Charlotte Kelly OFS

WE ARE CHURCH

Come as a guest, leave as a friend. You are always welcome at St. Joseph the Worker

The spiritual path
is simply the journey of living our lives.

Everyone is on a spiritual path...
most people just don't know it.

Marlene Wilkinson

On July 24, the Catholic Church celebrates the life of St. Charbel Makhlof, a Maronite Catholic priest, monk, and hermit who is known for working miracles both during his life and after his death.

On the occasion of his beatification in 1965, the Eastern Catholic hermit was described by Pope Paul VI as “a new, eminent member of monastic sanctity,” who “through his example and his intercession is enriching the entire Christian people.”

Born into humble circumstances in Lebanon during 1828, Yussef Antoun Makhlof was the youngest of Antoun Zaarour Makhlof and Brigitta Elias al-Shediyah's five children. Antoun, who had been taken away from the family and forced into hard labor, died when his youngest son was only three.

Yussef studied at the parish school and tended to his family's cow. Engaged in prayer and solitude from a young age, he spent a great deal of time outdoors in the fields and pastures near his village, contemplating God amid the inspiring views of Lebanon's valleys and mountains.

His uncle and guardian Tanious wanted the boy to continue working with him, while his mother wanted him to marry a young woman. Yussef had other plans, however, and left home in 1851 without informing anyone.

Yussef would become “Brother Charbel,” after making a pilgrimage on foot to his new monastic home. In this, he followed the example of his maternal uncles, who were already living as solitary monks at the Hermitage of Saint Paul in the Qadisha Valley.

Charbel took his monastic vows in November of 1853, during a solemn ceremony which was closed to the public and off-limits even to his family. He subsequently studied for the priesthood and was ordained, returning to the Monastery of St. Maron.

The priest-monk lived and served in the monastery for 19 years, showing great devotion to the life of prayer, manual work, and contemplative silence.

Charbel's superiors observed God's “supernatural power” at work in his life, and he became known as a wonder-worker even among some Muslims. In 1875, he was granted permission to live as a solitary monk in a nearby hermitage dedicated to Saints Peter and Paul.

Rigorous asceticism, and a profound union with God, continued to characterise the monk's life for the next 23 years. Deeply devoted to God's Eucharistic presence, he suffered a stroke while celebrating the Divine Liturgy of the Maronite Catholic Church on December 16, 1898. He died on Christmas Eve of that year.

St. Charbel's tomb has been a site for pilgrimages since his death. Hundreds of miracles are believed to have occurred through his intercession with God, both in Lebanon and around the world.

Fall Study Group

We would like to hold study groups either in the morning or evening and are looking for information from parishioners as to what time would be better.

Please pray over it and think about coming in the Fall.

World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly

Pope Francis has formally established World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly to be celebrated annually throughout the Church on the fourth Sunday in July—close to the feast of Sts. Joachim and Anne who, as the grandparents of Jesus, are the paragons for all grandparents.

The purpose of this celebration is to remind us that advanced age is a blessing—a gift that should be both cherished and freely shared, most especially in passing on the Faith.

For this year, the theme is "I am with you always" to emphasize not only the Lord's closeness with the aged, but also the intergenerational bonds shared between young and old, and most especially characterized by the passing on of the Faith.
