THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

FAITH FORMATION
A JOURNEY FOR LIFE

A Prayer for The New Year

*O God of new beginnings and wonderful surprises,
Thank You for the gift of a new year.*

May it be a time of grace for me, A time to grow in faith and love, A time to renew my commitment to following your son, Jesus.

May it be a year of blessing for me, A time to cherish my family and friends, A time to renew my efforts at work, A time to embrace my faith more fully.

*Walk with me, please, in every minute of this New Year, That the light of Christ might shine through me, In spite of my weaknesses and failings.
Amen.*

On Behalf of the ABC Women's Center in Middletown, we want to "Thank You" for your generous donation 2021. We appreciate it and May God Bless You.

We wish to thank everyone in our parish who supported our annual parish raffle this year. We were able to raise $ 12,074.00. The drawing was held on Sunday, December 19, 2021 at St. Colman Church. Congratulations to the following winners:

POST-SYNODAL APOSTOLIC EXHORTATION
AMORIS LÆTITIA
OF THE HOLY FATHER FRANCIS
ON LOVE IN THE FAMILY

follow him, to rise again after they have fallen, to forgive one another, to bear one another's burdens".⁶⁶ Christian marriage is a sign of how much Christ loved his Church in the covenant sealed on the cross, yet it also makes that love present in the communion of the spouses. By becoming one flesh, they embody the espousal of our human nature by the Son of God. That is why "in the joys of their love and family life, he gives them here on earth a foretaste of the wedding feast of the Lamb".⁶⁷ Even though the analogy between the human couple of husband and wife, and that of Christ and his Church, is "imperfect",⁶⁸ it inspires us to beg the Lord to bestow on every married couple an outpouring of his divine love. Sexual union, lovingly experienced and sanctified by the sacrament, is in turn a path of growth in the life of grace for the couple. It is the "nuptial mystery".⁶⁹ The meaning and value of their physical union is expressed in the words of consent, in which they accepted and offered themselves each to the other, to share their lives completely. Those words give meaning to the sexual relationship and free it ⁶⁶ Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1642. ⁶⁷ Ibid. ⁶⁸ Catechesis (6 May 2015): L'Osservatore Romano, 7 May 2015, p. 8. ⁶⁹ Leo the Great, Epistula Rustico Narbonensi Episcopo, Inquis. IV: PL 54, 1205A; cf. Hincmar of Rheims, Epist. 22: PL 126, 142. from ambiguity. More generally, the common life of husband and wife, the entire network of relations that they build with their children and the world around them, will be steeped in and strengthened by the grace of the sacrament. For sacrament of marriage flows from the incarnation and the paschal mystery, where by God showed the fullness of his love for humanity by becoming one with us. Neither of the spouses will be alone in facing whatever challenges may come their way. Both are called to respond to God's gift with commitment, creativity, perseverance and daily effort. They can always invoke the assistance of the Holy Spirit who consecrated their union, so that his grace may be felt in every new situation that they encounter. In the Church's Latin tradition, the ministers of the sacrament of marriage are the man and the woman who marry; ⁷⁰ by manifesting their consent and expressing it physically, they receive a great gift. Their consent and their bodily union are the divinely appointed means whereby they become "one flesh". By their baptismal consecration, they were enabled to join in marriage as the Lord's ministers and thus to respond to God's call. Hence, when two non-Christian spouses receive baptism, they need ⁷⁰ Cf. Pius XII, Encyclical Letter Mystici Corporis Christi (29 June 1943): AAS 35 (1943), 202: "Matrimonio enim quo coniugessibi invicem sunt ministri gratiae ..." not renew their marriage vows; they need simply not reject them, since by the reception of baptism their union automatically becomes sacramental. Canon Law also recognizes the validity of certain unions celebrated without the presence of an ordained minister.⁷¹ The natural order has been so imbued with the redemptive grace of Jesus that "a valid matrimonial contract cannot exist between the baptized without it being by that fact a sacrament".⁷² The Church can require that the wedding be celebrated publicly, with the presence of witnesses and other conditions that have varied over the course of time, but this does not detract from the fact that the couple who marry are the ministers of the sacrament. Nor does it affect the centrality of the consent given by the man and the woman, which of itself establishes the sacramental bond. This having been said, there is a need for further reflection on God's action in the marriage rite; this is clearly manifested in the Oriental Churches through the importance of the blessing that the couple receive as a sign of the gift of the Spirit. Seeds of The Word and imperfect situations "The Gospel of the family also nourishes seeds that are still waiting to grow, and serves as the basis for caring for those plants that are ⁷¹ Cf. Code of Canon Law, cc. 1116; 1161-1165; Code of Canons of the Eastern Churches, 832; 848-852. ⁷² Ibid., c. 1055 §2. wilting and must not be neglected."⁷³

God Bless Our Military

Almighty God and Father, look with love upon our men and women in uniform and protect them in their time of need. Give them health and stability and allow them to return to their loved ones whole and unshaken. Be with their families and sustain them in these uncertain times. Grant strength and peace of mind to the Veterans who have given their best for the country they love. Support them in infirmity and in the fragility of old age. Teach us to remember their sacrifices and to express our gratitude. Manifest your tender care to those in the Military Academies who prepare for future service and to those who serve our Nation far from home. Teach us to remember the sacrifices of those whose efforts contribute to ensuring our way of life. Hear us as we present our prayers to You through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Please pray for all of our members of the United States Armed Forces serving in our country and abroad including: Michael Molnar, USMC and Captain Andrew Krebs, USMC, Alec Surprenant, Army Staff Sgt., Travis Menard, John Menard, Domitilo Pastorin, US Navy, and LCdr.
