KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

The Santa Maria Council of the Knights of Columbus is hosting a devotional hour to St. Joseph, the protector of the Holy Family of Nazareth. Fr. Bill Melnick will lead a special prayer service on Tuesday May 17 at 7:00 PM in the Church. Which will include hymns, scripture and reflection, rosary, and a Litany to St. Joseph.

All are welcome to join us as we reflect on the earthly father of Jesus who provided for the Holy Family through his work and loving protection. We ask his intercession that we too can be examples of strength, integrity, and fidelity to those God placed in our care. Light refreshments will be served afterwards.

5th Sunday of Easter Reflection

“It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the Kingdom of God.” Many folks really work very hard to circumvent difficult situations. We prefer the easier way around something, rather than risk inconvenience, hurt or prolonged suffering. It’s no wonder euthanasia is rapidly becoming acceptable around the world. Through purely human eyes, there is no issue bypassing the inevitable, taking control and bringing things more swiftly to a place of peace. If this is the way God sees things, then why does Jesus make such a big deal helping us understand the experience of suffering and embrace it? God’s wisdom clearly takes us in another direction.

Imagine if we were able to eradicate ALL hardship and suffering. Where would we be? As we look at our own journeys, many of our solid more growth producing life lessons have been born of suffering, disappointment, inconvenience, darkness, and despair. There is something sacred about all of these experiences as God uses them to create something new. Envisioning a life without hardship and suffering brings us to a vision where everything is flat-lined and dull. As much as hardship and suffering are difficult crosses to bear, not taking them up runs the risk of us becoming shallow, empty, and lifeless. Helen Keller remarks that, “a happy life consists not in the absence but in the mastery of hardships.” What an incredibly wise insight! Many really successful people and saints were brought to their station in life because they suffered. Suffering teaches us about what’s important and propels us to search the depths of our souls for resources and strength we never would have known before.

This is especially true when we love as Jesus asks us to love. Love, perhaps above any other experience, can cause us great hardship, pain, and suffering especially when it’s authentic and unconditional. While it can thrust us into an incredible experience of God and life on one hand, it can bruise and wound us deeply on the other. Mastering the art of love is the secret to living life well, walking in the presence of God and investing in the joy of the Gospel. Love and suffering walk hand in hand. Compromising one will compromise the other. Maybe that’s why Jesus spent so much time convincing us to accept both.

CHILDREN’S CORNER

Sharing the Gospel

Jesus gave his disciples a new rule. He told them they had to love each other, just like he loved them. What did Jesus mean? Jesus was very patient with his friends. He forgave his friends when they let him down. Jesus comforted his friends when they were afraid. Most of all he helped them grow closer to God.

Prayer

Dear God, help me to love my friends like Jesus did.

Something to Draw

Draw a picture of yourself talking to a friend who is afraid.

Please welcome the Pilgrim Virgin traveling Statue of Our Lady of Fatima into your homes. Simply sign the binder located outside the Liturgy Office and take the traveling bag home with you on Sunday and return it on Saturday. Sign up for a week that fits your schedule. ## The Power of Prayer

Our church has a petitions book in the gathering area where any parishioner can write in a special prayer intention for the living, seriously ill or for any family crisis. The written petitions are remembered at mass during the Prayer of the Faithful as we respond, “Lord, hear our prayer” to the intercessions. Please use this opportunity to include your family and community in our prayers.

Please join us in prayers as we ask for God's guidance and protection of our troops serving around the world. Our prayer “Lord, hold our troops in Your loving hands,” especially those associated with our Parish:

Gregory Collins	Stephen Hassink
Timothy McAteer	Andrew McElravy
Jonathan Meier	Joseph Orlando
Christopher Morris	John Udall, III
Michael Coulombe	John B. Devine
