PRAYER OF PENTECOST

O Creator God, who created the feast of Pentecost, come and show us how to make today a feast.
May Pentecost be a day to feast my eyes on the colors, forms and textures of your creation.
May Pentecost be a day to feast my ears by unplugging them of old habits and deaf routines, and opening them to laughter and joy and newness.
May Pentecost be a day to feast my heart, knowing that I share life with fellow Christians, a community of family and friends who are disciples.
May this day truly be a feast day.
As I give glory to your Holy Spirit, trembling at the fire, swept away by the wind, willing to encounter your presence more fully.
Amen.

Pentecost Sunday Reflection

"God is always more." Have you ever heard that? If we truly believe that He is infinite, then this statement is worth exploring. Today, we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit in power upon the early Church. But Pentecost wasn't the first time the disciples received the Holy Spirit. The Gospel actually occurs chronologically before Pentecost. Soon after the Resurrection, Jesus already "came and stood in their [the disciples'] midst... he breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit.'"

God is always more. Sometimes we might think the grace of God as one and done. God might break through in people's lives, but it's a one-time event on a retreat or preceding a dramatic conversion of life. But there's always more to come. Even today's Gospel isn't the first time the breath of God stirred. In Genesis, it's God's breath that stirs life into Adam in the garden. Jesus breathes on the Apostles, giving them the Holy Spirit in the quiet and silence. Later, that breath will stir into a "driving wind", and the Spirit will descend with flame...not unlike Moses on Mount Sinai.

God is always more. He has spoken throughout salvation history, and continues to speak into our lives through His Church and through the Holy Spirit alive in our hearts. This Pentecost Sunday, let us come before Him with expectant hearts!

CHILDREN'S LITURGYSharing the Gospel

The disciples must have missed spending time with Jesus after he went back to heaven. But they knew that the Holy Spirit would always be with them, helping them remember what Jesus taught them. The disciples kept learning about God and kept growing closer to him. The Holy Spirit will help you remember Jesus, too.

Dear God, thank you for sending the Holy Spirit.

OUTREACH

A big "Thank You!" to the many IHM cooks who have resumed preparing casseroles for the residents of the House of Joseph and the Mary Mother of Hope House. Our parishioners have been making and delivering casseroles for more than 20 years. The residents are very happy IHM parishioners are sharing their wonderful meals again.

Thank you, Bread Pick Up Teams for a job well done! Over the last 2 years, the 60+ volunteers never missed a day of picking up bread from local businesses and delivering it to agencies that provide food for those in need.

Your dedication, dependability and teamwork is greatly appreciated.

The Power of Prayer

Our church has a petitions book in the gathering area where any parishioner can write in a special prayer intention for the living, seriously ill or for any family crisis. The written petitions are remembered at mass during the Prayer of the Faithful as we respond, "Lord, hear our prayer" to the intercessions. Please use this opportunity to include your family and community in our prayers.

Please contact the Parish office 764-0357 to place or remove names on the sick list.

LITTLE SISTERS OF THE POOR

The Little Sisters of the Poor will be here next weekend to talk about the work they do and to ask for your support.

Please pray for the departed parishioners and friends, especially:

Agnes Chiappardi
 Pasquale Diodato
 Mary Gentile

*Grant eternal rest unto them O Lord, and let the perpetual light shine upon them.
 May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
 Amen*

“Marriage and Family Life Corner”

MARRIAGE MOMENTS Spouses often say to each other – “If you love me, you would...” Don’t turn your love into a bargain. Give it freely to each other and keep your word.

PARENTING POINTERS : Church is a holy place but so are our homes and the people we live with. Consider how Jesus may come, stand, sit, and play with us as we spend time together today. Peace & love often sound like clichés. Help it to come alive with your children this weekend.

Save the Date – Friday, September 23rd, 2022.

The IHM Golf outing, hosted by the Knights of Columbus, Santa Maria Council and the IHM Athletic Association, tees off once again at the Ed Oliver Golf Club. Starting with a boxed lunch, afternoon golf will be followed by dinner and silent auction. All proceeds from the silent auction will go to the “Cool the School” fundraising initiative to air condition the IHM school.
