RESPECT LIFE

The Respect Life Committee will meet Monday, June 13th at 5:00pm in the multipurpose room. All are welcome!

The Power of Prayer

Our church has a petitions book in the gathering area where any parishioner can write in a special prayer intention for the living, seriously ill or for any family crisis. The written petitions are remembered at mass during the Prayer of the Faithful as we respond, “Lord, hear our prayer” to the intercessions. Please use this opportunity to include your family and community in our prayers.

Please join us in prayers as we ask for God’s guidance and protection of our troops serving around the world. Our prayer “Lord, hold our troops in Your loving hands,” especially those associated with our Parish:

- Gregory Collins
Timothy McAteer
Jonathan Meier
Christopher Morris
Michael Coulombe
Bailey Bray
Stephen Hassink
Andrew McElravy
Joseph Orlando
John Udall, III

Blessed are the Peacemakers who serve our Country. If you wish to add the name of a parishioner who is serving in the Military, please contact the Parish Office 764-0357.

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity Reflection

Happy Trinity Sunday! In today's Gospel, we hear Jesus declare together all three Persons of the Trinity. "Go therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

Made in the image and likeness of God, we are called to imitate God's immanence by giving and receiving love with one another in community. However, this is not limited only to those close to us, though that's where love often starts. We also imitate the economy of God when we go out, when we extend our love and care in a life-giving way. "Go therefore?"

Every believer is sent on mission. Every believer is invited to follow Jesus and the Apostles "to the nations," to the margins, to the people who require a little extra reach. This could be a distant relative, the residents of your local homeless shelter or even the forgotten neighbor next door! When we love well, we create something beautiful—a relationship, a holy moment, a foretaste of heaven. This Trinity Sunday, take some time to examine the relationships in your life. How well do you love those nearest to you? How well do you reach out to those farther away? How are you creating something beautiful?

NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

Manuel Fedora Warrior of Light

homeofthemothert.org/en/magazine/selected-articles/saints/11874-the-warrior-of-light

Manuel was born to Beppe and Enza Fedora on June 21, 2001 in Calatafimi, a town with six thousand inhabitants in Trapani, Sicily.

At the age of four, Manuel complained about a strong pain in his right leg as well as a terrible fever and loss of appetite. A few days later, he was admitted to the Children's Hospital of Palermo. Doctors diagnosed him with "a massive infiltration of stage IV neuroblastoma that has spread to the iliac crest of the pelvis." At that moment, his "Way of the Cross" began, and it was to last five years. Little Manuel was going to suffer several operations, thirty chemotherapy cycles, a transplant, blood transfusions, and indescribable pain. It was the beginning of a unique, painful, yet very joyful journey for this little one who eventually felt the presence of Jesus speaking to him like a close friend.

At first, he wanted to go to school and play with his friends, and he cried because he could not go. Then, after some time, the inexplicable occurred: Manuel accepted his treatment, becoming serene and docile.

Sister Prisca, a Franciscan religious from the hospital, was the first to notice this change and commented: "He was very small, only four years old. Before receiving treatment, he always came to me saying, 'Sr. Prisca, take me to the chapel because I want to see Jesus!'. Very gently, I took him into my arms and brought his little head close to the tabernacle. He was very happy because he wanted to be Jesus' dearest friend.

At the end of the summer of 2005, Manuel returned home to his family and loved ones. After playing games, he always asked them to pray the Rosary because "the Hail Marys make me feel better." He often asked those near him to recite Hail Marys in moments of pain because "they make it go away," or when he was afraid because "they give me strength and peace." As time passed, his relationship with Our Lady intensified and became almost palpable.

Many priests who visited him heard him say, "I love you. I pray for you. Take Jesus to children, to those who suffer, to the sick. Take Jesus to everyone you meet." The bishop of Palermo also went to visit him and heard him say, "I am offering myself for you and for your priests...but give me a gift: tell your priests to remind the faithful that they always have to receive Jesus in a state of grace, without sin, and afterwards to always spend at least fifteen minutes giving thanks. Jesus is very great! He's God and has to be treated like God."

Towards the end of Manuel's life in the early summer of 2010, he suffered excruciating headaches. After a test, the doctors found two tumor masses in his head, but his mother decided not to inform Manuel. Fr. Ignacio recalls, "One day after receiving Communion he broke down in tears and confided to his mother, and later to me, what Jesus had said to him. We had asked him what was wrong since he was crying, and he told us that Jesus had given him a special gift and that he was crying because he was happy. Jesus gave him two thorns from His crown and he had them in his head. I was dumbfounded by his words because it was humanly inexplicable. The two things perfectly coincided: two tumor masses and two thorns from the crown of Jesus—as a gift—in his head."

The last days of his agony arrived. His hemoglobin levels went down to a historical low. The doctors stopped giving him transfusions, because there was no hope. To the doctors' amazement, the heart of this "warrior" continued to beat for four more days. His mother understood immediately. "Manuel, you made another agreement with Jesus, didn't you?" The little boy affirmed with a gesture. He clearly offered his last drops of blood for someone whose name will never be known .

July 20 was his last day on earth. He was lying on his bed with his Rosary tightly held in his hands. Mass was celebrated in his room. After receiving Communion, he whispered, "I have finished."

Meditation During Eucharistic Adoration Eucharistic Adoration is a special time to meditate on God and his action in the world. It is best to select one approach to meditation and spend 20-30 minutes with it, allowing time for silence and listening to the Lord. Ask for the help of Mary, the Mother of God, who "held all these things in her heart" (Luke 2:19, 2:51). Scriptural Meditation. Read a brief passage of Scripture and meditate on each line slowly.

Thank God for the gift of grace poured out by Jesus Christ through Mary, all his blessings in your life, and for the fruits of this Holy Hour. Express your thanks to God in your own words OBLATES OF THE VIRGIN MARY ST. CLEMENT EUCHARISTIC SHRINE 1105 BOYLSTON STREET, BOSTON, MA

The Sermon on the Mount is so much at variance with all that our world holds dear, that the world will crucify anyone who tries to live up to its values. Because Christ preached them, He had to die. Calvary was the price He paid for the Sermon on the Mount. Only mediocrity survives. Those who call black black, and white white, are sentenced for intolerance. Only the grays live.

Adoration Testimony

In recent times I had a feeling I wanted to do more than go to Mass each week. I felt in recent times, as if the Lord was calling me to do a little more. Then one Sunday a few months ago, a speaker from the Apostolate of Eucharistic Adoration was speaking at all the Masses in our Parish. During his talk he invited people to think in terms of a weekly commitment to Eucharistic Adoration. Weekly Adoration for at least two days a week was about to begin in our Parish. There was emphasis on the need for commitment of an hour a week and that the spiritual benefits to individuals, families and the parish were enormous. A card was given to us as we entered the Church and the speaker invited us to fill out that card. I did so quite reluctantly as I was afraid of not been able to keep the weekly commitment. But since I have started weekly Adoration I look forward so much to my hour with the Lord. It is now, even after a short time, a real priority in my life. I continue to pray that other members of my family will follow. I keep telling them how much it means to me and that you have to experience it to appreciate it.
