Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets. — Lk 9:16-17

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ Reflection

Jesus went to those most in need. He forgave the sinner, ate with the outcast, defended, and fed those who were poor and hungry. He worked for true justice, risked being unpopular, willingly accepted suffering and death, and always stayed connected with his Abba, Father. Jesus also consistently reminded folks that God’s compassion, love, and mercy trump everything, even the law. This is the Christ that the Eucharist calls us to be. As we look around our churches, our towns and cities, and our world, there are many people who need to see the face and body of Christ. Some of those most in need may be right within our families. But it is always in the poorest of the poor and those most vulnerable that we find the greatest need. There are many who cannot function on their own. When the gift of the Eucharistic Christ takes root in our hearts, we can more readily see the face of Christ in others.

What Makes A Dad

God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,

The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight,

The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family need,

Then God combined these qualities,
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete,
And so, He called it ... Dad

Pro-Life Answers to False Pro-Choice Arguments

The Argument: "Women cannot be free unless they have the right to control their own reproductive lives."

Many pro-choice advocates believe that a woman's right to abortion is part of an ongoing feminist struggle for equality and freedom and any restriction on abortion is threatening to women.

This mindset is epitomized by Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg. When the Supreme Court upheld the ban on the gruesome partial birth abortion procedure, Justice Ginsburg wrote an astonishing dissenting opinion. According to Ginsburg, the right to life of the unborn baby is subordinate to the interest of women having complete autonomy over their "reproductive decisions." In her view, if women do not have this autonomy, they are relegated to "when women were regarded as the center of home and family life with attendant special responsibilities that precluded full and independent legal status under the Constitution." In other words, a woman's right to abort her unborn baby is essential to her being a complete woman.

Pro-Life Response: It is indeed hard to understand the depraved concept that a woman cannot be a real woman unless she has complete autonomy to direct a doctor to abort her own baby.

The truth, of course, is that abortion is not about controlling reproduction. In pregnancy, the biological reality is that reproduction has already taken place. Abortion is about taking the life of the child that has been produced and is alive.

It is a perversion to believe the right to abort one's own offspring is a symbol of freedom. In fact, it is the opposite because abortion denies the woman of her ability to achieve her God-given potential as a mother, even as she pursues her other goals and interests. As pro-life feminist Frederica Mathewes-Green once wrote, women have abortions for the same reason an animal will gnaw off its own leg to get out of a trap. She pointed out that abortion is not a sign women are free, but proof they are desperate. Hence, the pro-life community lovingly offers many resources to assist women through their diverse and very personal challenges of unplanned pregnancies.

Finally, Saint Theresa of Calcutta reminds us: "It is a poverty to decide that a child must die so that you may live as you wish."
