LITURGY

Great crowds were traveling with Jesus, and he turned and addressed them, "If anyone comes to me without hating his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple." — Lk 14:25-27

RCIA

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults)

If you've been coming to Mass for a while, but are not Catholic, we invite you to look deeper into the Catholic faith in an open and welcoming environment. Our RCIA process will prepare you for full initiation into the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil April 8, 2023.

Classes are held on Tuesday evenings at 7:00 PM beginning Sept. 13th in the Rectory meeting room. These gatherings are open to people who are unbaptized, those who are baptized Christians from Protestant or Evangelical backgrounds, and those who are baptized Catholic but never confirmed.

Information about the RCIA process, content, and schedule are available on the IHM website (www.ihm.org).

Please email Deacon Frank Conway (deacon@ihm.org) for questions and/or to register.

Immaculate Heart of Mary Music Ministry Choir Announcement

As COVID guidelines have become more relaxed, choirs are returning to IHM. If you choose to participate or have your child participate, please be aware that while singers and instrumentalists are welcome to wear masks, neither masks nor social distancing will be required nor are we in a position to inquire as to someone's vaccination status.

Several opportunities are available in the Music Ministry. Each of the groups include a variety of individuals, from professional singers and instrumentalists to people who have no experience but simply want to praise God and share their talents in service to the church! We would love to have you join us.

For questions or to join a group, please contact the Music Director, Leo Schloss, in the Liturgy Office at 764-1143 or via e-mail at parishmusic@ihm.org.

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Reflection

What virtue is the cornerstone of discipleship? Love. Jesus preached about it, lived it, and summarized his greatest commandment featuring it. Love is in our DNA. To follow Jesus, then, is to follow the path of love. While this may appear to be an attractive and easy option, it most assuredly is not. Authentic love always comes with sacrifice. It is the complete giving of oneself to another. The sacrificial character of love always requires that we leave something aside and pursue something else. This is at the heart of self-denial. Love asks us to make choices that are often difficult. There is a reason Jesus asks that the love of God come first. “Charity is the right attitude of mind which prefers nothing to the knowledge of God. If a man possesses any strong attachment to the things of this earth, he cannot possess true charity (St. Maximus the Confessor).” “If anyone comes to me without hating his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple.” A devoted disciple must be single-minded in her quest for God. She cannot allow anyone or anything to have more power over her soul than God. When any earthly attachments become more important than Love, we can get ourselves into trouble. The Gospel calls us to walk boldly into the darkness, confusion, and emptiness of the world clothed in the mantle of love. We are asked to walk with others on their journey, offering a supportive, healing, challenging, and faithful presence. Ours is not to judge. To walk this sacrificial journey means that I must put myself aside and focus on the needs of others. “A sacrifice to be real must cost, must hurt and must empty ourselves (St. Teresa of Calcutta).” Love helps us walk straight and focus to see things more clearly and help others to do so as well. Many folks struggle to find joy and meaning in life. People may simply need someone with the freedom to sit with them in their pain, so they don’t feel so alone. Through acts of kindness, gestures of acceptance, and words of compassion, burdens can be lightened. Believe in God’s love and seek it above all other things!

OUTREACH

HOUSE OF JOSEPH AND MARY MOTHER OF HOPE NEEDS YOUR HELP

If you have the time and the ability to make a casserole for 10-12 people, please call the Outreach Casserole phone line at 302-764-4896 any time and leave a message with your name, phone number and date you are available. Casseroles are made and delivered to House of Joseph on Tuesdays and to Mary Mother of Hope on Thursdays. You can choose any Tuesday or Thursday in August and September to make and deliver your casserole.

If you would like additional information, please call the Outreach office on Monday or Thursday. A volunteer is in the office from 9:30 to 11:30. You can also contact Pat Calderhead at 302-379-6139 or Barb Hanson at 302-218-9376. If you are unable to deliver, the Outreach volunteer may be able to find someone to deliver for you.

Thank you in advance for answering the call and feeding the residents who greatly appreciate the casseroles.

Please remember all sick, all those homebound, in the hospital or nursing homes and especially those who care for them.
