NEW PARISH OFFICE SCHEDULES

It has been decided that the St. John Paul II Parish Office will remain open with the previous schedule:

Monday - Thursday from 9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

Michelle Francesconi has joined the St. John Paul II team as the Financial Assistant to Lary Grossman and will be working with Terry in Adams on Mondays.

The St. Mary's Office will be open on Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

SNOW CANCELLATIONS

If the local schools are cancelled or delayed due to inclement weather, Daily Mass will be cancelled for that day. Please listen for cancellations throughout the winter. As always, if you are uncomfortable driving or are uncertain about road conditions on any given day, please use your best judgement and stay home when needed. Thank you!

2022 MISSALS

Remaining copies of the 2022 Missals will be available at all churches for parishioners to use during Masses. Copies will be available in the back of the churches in Adams and at the side vestibules in Cheshire. There are a limited number of copies to use.

We understand that some parishioners recently purchased their own copies, as that was the policy prior to the start of the new year. If you purchased a copy, you are welcome to keep it for your personal use. If you have any questions about the change, please contact the parish offices.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

“Who is this Christ? Is he like you?” Perhaps you’ve heard this story, often attributed to the life of St. Teresa of Calcutta. A sick man asked her this question, as he marveled at her tireless service to himself and others in the name of someone named Jesus Christ. “He is nothing like me,” the saint is said to have answered. “But I hope I am like him.”

Though the authenticity of this exchange cannot be verified, its message rings perfectly true: all the value of our stewardship lies in its relativity to the one in whose name we perform it. Consider the figure of John the Baptist — a magnificent, towering character even purely from a literary or historical perspective. A martyr who fed on wild locusts and boldly spoke truth to power — a man so great some mistook him for the Messiah.

But why is he great? Because he prepared the way. All his accomplishments and escapades mean nothing if they are taken out of the context of salvation history. He only makes sense relative to Christ — and this is exactly as he wanted it. “One worthier than I is coming,” he insists. And because of that humility and that total embrace of God’s will, he is given one of the greatest honors in the New Testament — he baptizes the Son of God.

Let’s examine our lives in the light of their relativity to Christ. How do we prepare the way? When Christ comes to us, what do we do? How do we leave ourselves open to be actors in God’s plan? — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPI

ROSARY SODALITY UPDATE

On December 12, 2021, the St. John Paul Rosary Sodality held their Annual Christmas Banquet at the Bounti-Fare Restaurant. Forty members and guests were present. The President introduced Fr. Barrent Pease, Fr. William Cyr, and Deacon Greg LaFreniere along with Alice DiCioco and Laura Dellea from Pittsfield, sister and friend of member Anne Stawarz. Fr. Pease said Grace and members and guests were served a most delicious meal. The tables were decorated with red Poinsettias and favors quilted by Treasurer Mary Belding of Christmas trees and Santas with a pocket that held a scratch ticket.

On behalf of the Sodality, the President presented to Fr. Pease, Fr. Cyr, and the Sodality Spiritual Adviser Deacon LaFreniere a monetary Christmas gift. The President thanked all the members of the Sodality and the officers for their support and participation by attending the meetings and respectfully reaching out as representatives of our Blessed Mother. A special monetary drawing was held for members only and the winners were: Tanya Guerin, Ann Robinson, Anne Stawarz, Barbara Bennett, and Joyce Turoczy. Twenty Christmas packages donated by the officers were drawn for along with the red Poinsettias.

Fr. Pease bestowed a Christmas blessing on the Sodality members and guests. Deacon LaFreniere closed the Annual Christmas Banquet with a Christmas prayer of thanksgiving. The President wished all in attendance a Merry Christmas and Happy and Healthy New Year.

KEEPING OUR FAITH ALIVE

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

"We are called to live our baptism every day, as new creatures, clothed in Christ."

— Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear. ©LPi
