From the Pastor's Desk

A liturgia da Palavra deate domingo coloca-nos perante um tríplice apelo ao universalismo cristão. Assim cair as barreiras de separação, os egoísmos, o individualismo. O cristão não pode pensar apenas na sua devoção, no seu bem spiritual, na sua salvação. Leva-nos a perceber que, muitas vezes, nós somos muito fechados e levantamos barreiras impedindo que outros, por causa das nossas atitudes, se aproximem do Senhor.

A comunidade cristã deve ser universal, católica, isto é, disposta a acolher qualquer ser humano que deseje a salvação. Pensemos na nossa atitude para com os outros: se tem sido de acolhimento ou de antipatia a oposição para com eles.

Peçamos perdão ao Senhor se porventura caímos nesta postura ou noutras, que levem ao distanciamento da salvação oferecida pelo Senhor.

Reflect on this passage from a catechetical instruction by St. Cyril of Jerusalem:

If there is any slave of sin here present, he should at once prepare himself through faith for the rebirth into freedom that makes us God's adopted children. He should lay aside the wretchedness of slavery to sin and put on the joyful slavery of the Lord so as to be counted worthy to inherit the Kingdom of Heaven. By acknowledging your sins strip away your former self, seduced as it is by destructive desires, and put on the new self, renewed in the likeness of its Creator. Through faith receive the pledge of the Holy Spirit so that you may be welcomed into the everlasting dwelling places. Draw near to be marked with the supernatural seal so that you may be easily recognized by your Master. Become a member of Christ's holy and spiritual flock so that one day you may be set apart on His right hand and so gain the life prepared as your inheritance.

If anyone here present is thinking of putting God's grace to the test, he is deceiving himself and he does not understand the nature of things. You are but a man; there is One who searches out men's thoughts and hearts. You must keep your soul innocent and free of deceit.

The present is the time for the acknowledgment of sins. Acknowledge what you have done in word or deed, by night or day, and on the day of salvation you will receive the treasures of heaven.

Wash yourself clean so that you may hold a richer store of grace. If you have done little work you will receive little; if you have achieved a great deal, great will be your reward. The race you are running is for your own advantage; look after your own interests.

If you have a grudge against anyone, forgive him. You are drawing near to receive forgiveness for your own sins; you must yourself forgive those who have sinned against you.
