Mother Teresa of Calcutta

Mother Teresa of Calcutta, the tiny woman recognized throughout the world for her work among the poorest of the poor, was beatified Oct. 19, 2003. Among those present were hundreds of Missionaries of Charity, the order she founded in 1950, as a diocesan religious community. Today the congregation also includes contemplative sisters and brothers, and an order of priests.

Born to Albanian parents in what is now Skopje, Macedonia, Gonxha (Agnes) Bojaxhiu was the youngest of the three children who survived. For a time, the family lived comfortably, and her father's construction business thrived. But life changed overnight following his unexpected death.

During her years in public school, Agnes participated in a Catholic sodality and showed a strong interest in the foreign missions. At age 18, she entered the Loreto Sisters of Dublin. It was 1928 when she said goodbye to her mother for the final time and made her way to a new land and a new life. The following year she was sent to the Loreto novitiate in Darjeeling, India. There she chose the name Teresa and prepared for a life of service. She was assigned to a high school for girls in Calcutta, where she taught history and geography to the daughters of the wealthy. But she could not escape the realities around her—the poverty, the suffering, the overwhelming numbers of destitute people.

In 1946, while riding a train to Darjeeling to make a retreat, Sister Teresa heard what she later explained as “a call within a call. The message was clear. I was to leave the convent and help the poor while living among them.” She also heard a call to give up her life with the Sisters of Loreto and instead, to “follow Christ into the slums to serve him among the poorest of the poor.”

After receiving permission to leave Loreto, establish a new religious community, and undertake her new work, Sister Teresa took a nursing course for several months. She returned to Calcutta, where she lived in the slums and opened a school for poor children. Dressed in a white sari and sandals—the ordinary dress of an Indian woman—she soon began getting to know her neighbors—especially the poor and sick—and getting to know their needs through visits.

The work was exhausting, but she was not alone for long. Volunteers who came to join her in the work, some of them former students, became the core of the Missionaries of Charity. Others helped by donating food, clothing, supplies, and the use of buildings. In 1952, the city of Calcutta gave Mother Teresa a former hostel, which became a home for the dying and the destitute. As the order expanded, services were also offered to orphans, abandoned children, alcoholics, the aging, and street people.

For the next four decades, Mother Teresa worked tirelessly on behalf of the poor. Her love knew no bounds. Nor did her energy, as she crisscrossed the globe pleading for support and inviting others to see the face of Jesus in the poorest of the poor. In 1979, she was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize. On Sept. 5, 1997, God called her home. Blessed Teresa was canonized by Pope Francis on Sept. 4, 2016.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

The great method of prayer is to have none. If in going to prayer one can form in oneself a pure capacity for receiving the spirit of God, that will suffice for all method.

SHEPHERDS OF HOPE

Shepherds of Hope pledges | June marks the start of the 3rd year since we opened the Shepherds of Hope Capital Campaign. We are just short of 75% of our goal so we are looking for more support. Project work is underway or being completed at most church sites with many projects still to do. Please help if you can. If you have already donated, please consider doing so again, if you are able. Send donations to: Good Shepherd Parish, 271 Main St., Saco 04072.

Note | Any checks or cash can be dropped in weekend collection basket, inside a blank envelope and must have a name and ID number to receive credit. Check payments should be made out to: Good Shepherd Parish; "Shepherds Of Hope" in memo line.

Current totals | 788 household gifts , pledges | $1,491,673 | 74% of goal Cash collected, available for projects as of April 30 | $848,715

Shepherds of Hope Pledge Payments | Please note that if you intend to use ACH or credit card for payment and/or installments on pledge, you must do so by signing into the parish's online giving service, WESHARE. Please do not include bank account information or credit card number on pledge card. Go to the parish website to sign up and make a payment or set up a recurring payment schedule. If you decide to use WESHARE, mark that on your pledge card so we handle the pledge properly.

We have created a link with the Shepherds of Hope logo at goodshepherdparish.us/. For assistance, call Amy Loring at 282-3321, ext. 105.

* ACH withdrawals from bank account: Fee is 10 cents per transaction plus 1%, calculated as follows: For example, a $50 donation will include a 50-cent charge, plus 10 cents, for a total fee of 60 cents. The $50 donation results in a net donation to the parish of $49.40.

* Credit, Debit Card Transactions: Fee is 3.25%, calculated as follows: A $50 donation will include a 3.25% transaction fee and amount to a charge of $1.63. The $50 donation results in a net donation to the parish of $48.37.

Since the credit/debit card fees are more than double ACH fees, we prefer use of ACH. Please consider this when deciding your source of payment. Thank you for your generosity.

COMMUNITY

Baby Bottle Drive | The Knights of Columbus have reported that $7,300 has been collected so far for the Baby Bottle Drive and funds continue to trickle in. If anyone still has bottles or funds they want to donate, please call Guy Cadorette at 205-4271 or Denis Roy at 286-6101.

Counting on You For The Snack Attack | Little kids are always hungry. They graze throughout the day. Did you know that a 7-year-old should eat or drink something every 2-3 hours? Snacks are good for kids because they give them an energy boost between meals and it helps them stay focused at school. Guess what? Not every child is sent to school with a snack. Our elementary schools could use some assistance. We will be collecting prepackaged, individually wrapped snacks for elementary school age children during the month of August. Donation boxes will be located at church entrances. Please help us! Here are some ideas: Ritz cracker sandwiches with peanut butter or cheese, granola or cereal bars, raisins, fruit snacks, pretzels, popcorn, goldfish packets, and graham cracker snack packages. Thank you from all the hungry little kids and the Social Justice Committee!

Your most important work may be after you retire | Would you like to make a significant contribution with your life to the lives of others? The Ignatian Volunteer Corps (IVC) is a national organization, now open in Portland, that offers adult men and women the opportunity to share their life skills and wisdom in service to the poor. IVC Portland Service Corps Members commit to work in social service organizations, schools, and non-profits for 1 to 2 days per week. In addition, they meet monthly to prayerfully reflect on their service and to deepen their spirituality in the Ignatian tradition. There are several open placements in the greater Portland area that need volunteers. FMI about IVC Portland, visit: www.ivcusa.org/Portland and contact Kathy Crosson, IVC Portland Regional Director at 808-8029 or kcrosson@ivcusa.org.

Crutches for Africa | The Social Justice Commission is joining the Saco chapter of Rotary International in collecting mobility devices such as crutches, canes, wheelchairs, etc. to be shipped to countries in Africa. The collection box for Good Shepherd Parish will be located in the lobby of Most Holy Trinity church for the next two months. Your donations would be greatly appreciated.

St. Margaret Mass Ministries Invitation | Have you always wanted to help out at Mass but not sure what you could do or thought that someone would say, “We are all set and you are probably not needed - We need you! St. Margaret Church needs sacristans for Saturday and Sunday Masses What is a sacristan? The sacristan prepares the materials necessary for the celebration of the Mass: the books, the vessels, the bread, and the wine. Training and guidance are provided. Greeters are also needed for the Saturday Mass at St. Margaret. Greeters welcome people to Mass, help them find a seat if needed, handing out bulletins, counting parishioners as needed, and bidding them farewell when the Mass concludes. GOSPEL MEDITATION

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The lens through which we view life makes a difference. It also determines who we choose to learn from and what we allow to shape our thoughts and feelings. For many, life is simply what it appears to be, a given that either through evolution or some other means just came to be. There is no apparent rhyme or reason to things and things can be dissected and understood only in terms of what they empirically present. To the person using this lens, a tree is a tree and a flower is a flower. Their composition and existence can be understood only to the extent that current human knowledge allows. Through this lens, what gives life purpose and meaning? This lens has an essentially unknown beginning and definite end. Once those are accepted, the middle becomes some kind of pursuit of happiness, with values and principles being things that are self-created and found acceptable.

But there is a Divine lens that also exists and deserves mention. It is found when one stumbles upon faith and begins to see things differently. This lens is of God and reveals a Divine Energy and Life that flows through and in all things. Faith then shows us that all that lives come from this one Source of Love. This is the only true lens that can give human beings the purpose and meaning they desperately need.

From this perspective, all of life is much more than what is immediately apparent! It now tells and reveals a story about God generous, creative, and unconditional love! The unfolding of the human story is the unfolding of God’s story. What meaning our lives have when they are viewed as a part of God’s love affair with humanity! We are indeed special.

The lens of our faith asks us to learn from Jesus Christ. Jesus, as the real Bread of Life, shows us our eternal destiny and completes and frames our lives. It is only in allowing ourselves to be taught by Jesus, that faith, hope, and love take on much greater importance. All the relationships in our lives are now structured and ordered using God’s primary commandment of love. Jesus, then, is not just some man who lived at some point in history. Jesus is the incarnate Son of God who shows us the way, the truth, and the life. Using this lens changes things up a great deal. Looking at the creation that surrounds you and the special unique people you love, what is God trying to teach you about His love for you and the eternal life He wants you to have?

Young Adult Catholics To Gather This Summer and Fall For Retreats

A pair of upcoming special events will provide the opportunity for Catholic young adults (ages 21-35) in Maine and beyond to gather for fun, prayer, and in celebration of their shared faith and desire to spread God's love and mercy in the world.

From September 10-12, the Diocese of Portland is teaming up with the Diocese of Manchester, New Hampshire, to offer a young adult retreat on rest and renewal at Camp Marist in Effingham, New Hampshire. The retreat aims to offer participants a break from the "hustle and bustle" of everyday life in which they can rest from the busy world and renew in mind, body, and spirit. The retreat will include social and free time, time for prayer, talks, small group sharing, and more. The cost of the retreat is $125. For more information or to register, contact Hannah at the email address or phone number above. The purpose of Catholic Young Adult ministry in the Diocese of Portland is to deliver comprehensive programming for young adults with catechesis being the foundation upon which such programs are developed. It provides leadership, resources, services, retreats, and conferences for the education, formation, and evangelization of young adults and their families, promoting their important role in the Church in the process.

For more information, contact Hannah Gonneville in the Diocese of Portland's Office of Lifelong Faith Formation, at (207) 773-6471, extension 7885, or hannah.gonneville@portlanddiocese.org.
