CLOSING HYMN

melody #936 O God Beyond All Praising

I vow to thee, my country, all earthly things above,
Entire and whole and perfect, the service of my love;
The love that asks no questions,
the love that stands the test,
That lays upon the altar the dearest and the best;
The love that never falters, the love that pays the price,
The love that makes undaunted the final sacrifice.

And there's another country, I've heard of long ago,
Most dear to them that love her, most great to them that know;
We may not count her armies, we may not see her King;
Her fortress is a faithful heart, her pride is suffering;
And soul by soul and silently her shining bounds increase,
And her ways are ways of gentleness,
and all her paths are peace.

THE 14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME JULY 3, 2022

WHAT IS ORDINARY ABOUT ORDINARY TIME?

Ordinary" is not in contrast to "extraordinary" but rather stresses the Latin notion of "ordinal" or "numbered". The Latin conveys that these Sundays are a "measured" time to immerse in Jesus' incarnation, ministry, passion, death, and resurrection.

It is the longest season of the liturgical year. It begins after January 6, the Epiphany, and goes until the day before Ash Wednesday. Ordinary time picks up again after Pentecost, until Advent. Ordinary time offers us the opportunity to connect the experiences of our lives with those of Jesus.

A GOSPEL REFLECTION WHAT TRUE FREEDOM WILL GIVE US

St. John Chrysostom says "the only person who is free is the one who lives for Christ." When one lives for Christ, they live in pursuit of virtues that enlighten one's soul and strengthen one's character. Rather than having the ability to acquire or do more things, true freedom asks us to be detached. Privileges, rights, and responsibilities are important, but they do not define us.

"I am sending you like lambs among wolves," Jesus tells his disciples. The secular definitions of freedom and liberty promise us a great deal. It is no wonder Jesus asks his disciples to travel with very little. The Gospel is not dependent upon anything those with worldly power can say or do. When one chooses to live for Christ, they choose to live with peace. That's what true freedom will give us.
