“Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.”

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

The Sisters of Saint Joseph of Philadelphia Invite You to Celebrate Laudato Si Year

Pope Francis designated the period between May 24, 2020 and May 24, 2021 as Laudato Si Year to commemorate the 5th anniversary of his landmark encyclical on the care for our common home. The Sisters of Saint Joseph will provide excerpts each week from the encyclical as a way for parishioners to participate in this global commemoration.

The Earth Charter asked us to leave behind a period of self-destruction and make a new start, but we have not as yet developed a universal awareness needed to achieve this. “Let ours be a time remembered for the awakening of a new reverence for life, the firm resolve to achieve sustainability, the quickening of the struggle for justice and peace, and the joyful celebration of life.”

Live the Liturgy

Inspiration for the Week

With our world in such constant turmoil and conflict, it makes such good sense to return to the simple directives given in the Ten Commandments. God's unassuming guidelines provide the perfect recipe for ordering our relationships with God, others, and even ourselves. But yet, we are so quick to glance beyond them and even remove them from public view because we foolishly believe we can create something better. Arrogance runs far deeper in the members of our society than we can ever imagine. Lent is a perfect time to call ourselves back to our foundations and the basic relationships that comprise our lives. It is also a time to remember that Jesus is the true sign of God's presence. Everything he says and does, including his suffering and death, is a sign of the God who sent him. The anger we witness when Jesus exhorts those in the temple to stop making his Father's house a marketplace can equally be seen in his anger and frustration over humanity's constant mission to turn God's creation into a secular world. We have a lot of work to do for sure. ©LPI

SALESIAN REFLECTION

3rd Sunday of Lent (3/7/2021)

The Temple was built as a house where God's glory would dwell in the midst of his people. The buyers and sellers of offerings had compromised the sacredness of the Temple. Jesus' zeal to restore its sacredness leads him to clear the Temple.

But this parable-in-action had a deeper meaning, as his disciples understood later.

When the Jews asked for a sign for why he had acted this way, Jesus responded: "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews thought he was talking foolishly. Later on, the disciples understood that Jesus was talking about the temple of his own body. Jesus is the sacred place where God's glory dwells in the midst of his people.

After the disciples experienced the tragic death of Jesus on the Cross and became witnesses to his resurrected body three days later, and the Holy Spirit had come upon them and filled their minds and hearts with light, they were able to look back at all they had experienced with Jesus in a new light. They began to understand that they were now part of the Body of Christ – the continuation of the sacred place where God's glory remained in the midst of his people. As they preached Jesus Christ crucified and raised, they experienced the power and wisdom of God at work in Jesus' name. Some people who heard them found a crucified Savior to be a stumbling block; others thought it utter foolishness. Still many others accepted it as saving grace.

You and I are among those who have accepted saving grace. We have been incorporated into the Body of Christ by our baptism. As Church community, we are to be the sacred dwelling place of God in our world. And each of us has been taught to reverence our body as a temple of the Holy Spirit.

Hearing the account of Jesus cleansing the Temple is a good Lenten reminder to us individually and as a community. Am I keeping the temple of my body sacred?

What kind of ...continued in the next column effort do I make to keep the community (both Oblate and Church) sacred? Is Jesus inviting me to a cleansing in some way?

Lord Jesus, you are the power and wisdom of God. Open each of us to the cleansing you want to do in your temple during this Lent.

Executive Director of the De Sales Spirituality Center

Faith Formation

Men of the Parish, "The Sign of the Times" is the theme of TMIY's next weekly session on Monday, March 8 at 7:00PM in the Parish Hall, Knights of Columbus Room. Steve Bollman's subjects will include Mistaking Technical Progress for Human Progress, and Supporting Actors to the Ideologies of Evil.

Please contact Earle Hughes 609-884-8635 or emhughs1@comcast.net for further information.

"You shall not carve idols for yourselves in the shape of anything..." - Exodus 20:4

How many "gods" do you put before God? "Idols" do not always take the shape of physical things, things we can touch and feel. Those are easy to recognize. Many times they take the form of things we cannot touch and are much harder to spot like pride, power, ego, time, comfort or health. Pray for God's help to be good Stewards by pruning our vices and growing in virtue.

Outreach Opportunities

Electronic Giving: PARISH GIVING is a safe, secure, and easy way to make on-line church related donations and payments. It is easy...and offers you a variety of ways to make consistent or special contributions. Please give it a try and visit our parish website: www.ladystarofthesea.org and click on the Parish Giving Button.

Until further notice, Good Samaritans are available to do errands for you only. They cannot transport passengers at this time.

Still not sure what to do for Lent?

Challenge yourself, and go beyond the usual practice of "giving up" something. Now is a great time to take stock of your spiritual life and to grow in it. Not sure where to start?

- ★ When you first sit down in front of your computer at work, or at the very end of your workday, try a 10-minute guided prayer from Sacred Space based on the spiritual exercises of St. Ignatius.
- ★ Go to (or watch) a weekday Mass one day during the week.

FAMILY PROMISE UPDATE

Beginning in March, the Family Promise staff and volunteers will resume a regular schedule of hosting one family at a time. The guest families will no longer be sleeping in church buildings. They will be overnighting in Hospitality Houses provided by a number of churches in the network. Consequently, volunteers will no longer be asked to "sleep over" during their scheduled week. Star of the Sea is scheduled to support the Cape May United Methodist Church during the weeks of May 3-7 and July 26-30. If you are interested in learning more about the many very satisfying opportunities to serve our community, please contact me for details:
