SALESIAN REFLECTION

4th Sunday of Lent (3/27/2022)

We have just heard Jesus tell us a very familiar story – a story of arrogance, foolishness, loss, and humility; a story of love which forgives and celebrates; a story of anger, hurt pride and invitation to learn.

The father stands at the center of the story – a person filled with unconditional love. The father is willing to give all to his children. The younger son presumes on his father's generosity and then foolishly wastes what he's been given. His father is waiting patiently for him to come to his senses and runs out to embrace him when he returns. The father's all-embracing love is capable of accepting his son in all his foolishness and welcoming him home with a party.

The older son is angry at his brother's return and hurt that his father is so generous with someone so foolish. What he's seeing simply isn't fair. We're told that his father leaves the party, and we hear him invite his son to grow – to learn to see with his father's eyes, with the eyes of love.

It's probably easy for us to identify with the younger son. There have been times when we have arrogantly and foolishly chosen to have our own way and we've experienced our own disasters in the process. How generous our God has been with his forgiveness!

We might even find ourselves in the place of the older son. We try so hard to be faithful and watch as others live as they want. It's doesn't seem fair that forgiveness is so free. What about us who try so hard?

The point of Jesus' story is that we are invited to take the place of the father.

We're invited to discipline ourselves to love unconditionally. We're invited to discipline ourselves to forgive unconditionally because that's what love does. We're invited to discipline ourselves not to make judgments about others. Love accepts each person where he or she is at the moment. We're invited to learn to trust that our efforts to love are pleasing to God. Our God is always loving us unconditionally, and everything God has is ours.

Jesus never tells us the ending of the story. Perhaps that is our invitation. Are we willing to come in and join the celebration? Are we willing to discipline ourselves to love as our Father loves us?

Executive Director of the De Sales Spirituality Center

Catholic Funeral & Burial ~ Your Catholic Cemetery
Essential Component of Catholic Life

As Catholics, we are blessed with the promise of life everlasting. To be with our Lord in Heaven, we are baptized, we follow the Holy Scripture, and we keep the Lord in our hearts throughout our earthly journey. Death is not the end but rather the next step. At death, we present our bodies to a sacred Catholic funeral and burial to be prepared for the Resurrection. Just as you have chosen to be a part of a Christian community, you will want the burial of your remains to reflect that same Christian faith while choosing to rest in peace with other Christians in a Catholic cemetery. Choosing a final resting place on consecrated grounds is your choice, your privilege and the right of every Catholic, as well as a confirmation of faith in our everlasting union with our Lord.

Visit SouthJerseyCatholicCemeteries.org or call us at 855-MyPrePlan (855-697-7375), someone will assist you.

"No longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate of the yield of the land of Canaan."
 (Joshua 5: 12)

Over the forty years that the Israelites journeyed through the desert, God provided them with manna to eat. As soon as they were able to enjoy the fruits of the Promised Land, the manna ceased.

Likewise, God's blessings to us may change over the years, but it is important to trust that God will always provide His Stewards with all that we need.
