EASTER SUNDAY

He bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. - Jn 20:5-7

The Virtue of Hope

Dear Sisters and Brother in Christ,

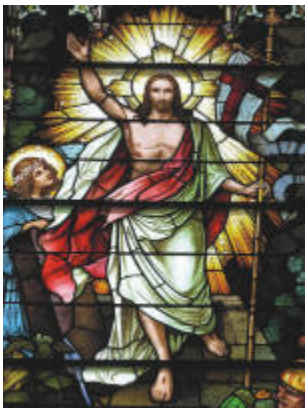
May the peace and love of The Risen Christ be with you!

Before the pandemic, I often played pick-up basketball with men on Monday night at the Msgr. Hackett Center. After a couple of hours of running and sweating out all our destress, I just wanted to close the door and go back to the rectory to rest so I can celebrate Mass the next day. But the other men often wanted to stay back to chat with their friends. So I told them "you do not have to go home. But you cannot stay here." Many of us probably want to unleash from our home after more than a year of social distancing or some kind of quarantine. We are like the Secretariat horse from the Kentucky Derby who wants to be unleashed from the gate. As a matter of fact, Google Search Engine says the most recent trend sought lately on the web is vacation destination.

Hope is a wonderful virtue. It is one of the three theological virtues when we received the Sacrament of Baptism. Today, on this Easter Sunday, throughout the whole world, our Christian sisters and brothers venerate and celebrate our Risen Lord. It is the death and resurrection of Jesus that He gives us hope again: Jesus washes away our sins on Good Friday. Therefore, we infuse the virtue of hope so that we can receive New Eternal lives with Our Father in heaven along with all the Saints and Angels one day. Thus, we dare to hope now. St. Paul says: "hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us." (Romans 5:5) Whatever you are hopeful for, may Our Risen Lord continue to guide you and lead you there.

Wishing you and your family a Happy Easter!

Many Prayers and Blessings!
Fr. Huy



Easter Collection - Clergy Trust

The only collection on Easter Sunday benefits the Clergy Trust which provides programs and support to care for the health and well-being of all active and senior diocesan priests in good standing. By supporting this collection you are helping to ensure that our active priests receive the care they need to continue their important work and our senior priests, like Fr. Peter Martocchio and Bishop Dooher, have support and access to quality care. This collection is a critical source of funding for the Trust and your generosity is needed and appreciated.
On behalf of myself and my brother priests who benefit from the support of Clergy Trust, we thank you.
Most Rev. Mark O'Connell

Easter Sunday
The Resurrection of the Lord

Our readings today remind us the message of Easter is one of joy and good news. It is a message that we cannot keep to ourselves. St. Peter makes clear in today's first reading that we are "commissioned" to preach and bear witness. While limitations on gatherings still need observing, how will you bear witness to Christ's saving love this Easter? Who are the people in your life that need to hear this good news? The message is clear - Christ our hope is risen. Go – tell the good News!

Readings: Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

First Reading: Peter proceeded to speak and said: "You know what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name."

Responsorial Psalm: This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

Second Reading: Brothers and sisters: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

Gospel: On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

"Pray, hope and don't worry. Anxiety doesn't help at all. Our Merciful Lord will listen to your prayer."
Saint Padre Pio

Happy Easter !

We prayed, fasted and gave alms—and now we rejoice because Christ is risen! Our Lenten journey with CRS Rice Bowl challenges us as we begin the Easter season to share the joy of having a loving God that is alive and accompanies us always. Let us do the same by being present to our global family by caring for their material and spiritual needs. Do not forget to turn in your CRS Rice Bowl to the Basket located in the Church vestibule, or donate online crsricebowl.org/give. Visit crsricebowl.org to learn more.

PLEASE NOTE

The Sunday, 5:00pm Mass at Saint Jerome Parish will be discontinued after Palm Sunday (March 28) and will resume in the Fall.
