Year of the
EUCCHARIST

"Christ is the Word of life. And how was it made known? For it existed from the beginning but was not made known to men. It was, however, made known to angels, who saw it and, like their own bread, consumed it. What says Scripture? 'Man ate the bread of angels.'"

Saint Augustine

December 26 ~ Feast of the Holy Family:

Every parent can relate to this Gospel. The thought of a child getting lost, no matter their age brings anxiety and stress! The relief of Mary and Joseph is palpable in this passage even though the 12-year-old Jesus acts surprised about his parents' concern. However, what is most important to glean from this gospel is the fact that upon returning to Nazareth, Jesus "was obedient to them; and. . . Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor." Their years together provided important time for growth for the Holy Family. The vocation of parents, grandparents and guardians is both rewarding and challenging. Take time to think about the example of the Holy Family and let them be a source of strength for you and for all families.

The Birth of Jesus According to Luke 2:1-21

In those days Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world. (This was the first census that took place while Quirinius was governor of Syria.) And everyone went to their own town to register. So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David. He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger, because there was no guest room available for them.

And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger."

Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest heaven, on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests."

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let's go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about."

So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger. When they had seen him, they spread the word concerning what had been told them about this child, and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them. But Mary treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, which were just as they had been told.

On the eighth day, when it was time to circumcise the child, he was named Jesus, the name the angel had given him before he was conceived.

DECEMBER- BOOK OF THE MONTH:

BEAUTIFUL HOPE: FINDING HOPE EVERY DAY IN A BROKEN WORLD

PLEASE NOTE– WE HAVE THIS BOOK AT THE COLLABORATIVE OFFICES IF YOU NEED A COPY!

“Some of the authors in this book are professional authors and speakers, but many are not. Many have never published anything ever before. They are everyday American Catholics doing their best to live the Gospel. The reason for this is simple: God’s hope can be experienced and spread at any age, in any state of life, anytime, anywhere.” Matthew Kelly

AUTHOR: Various Contributors offer short reflections on finding hope in the world including Pope Francis, Archbishop Jose H. Gomez, Matthew Kelly, Dr. Allen Hunt, Fr. Mike Schmitz, Sr. Miriam Heidland, Fr. Jacques Philippe and more

Week #4—Becoming Hope

- How can you become an “instrument of giallo” in your life? Could you encourage a friend or loved one in some way? Could you write a thank you note to someone who might not feel appreciated? Could you provide a meal for someone in need?
- Create your own ABCs of hope for your life or that of someone you love
- Name the people in your life that bring you hope. Reach out to one of those people this week and thank them for being a source of hope for you.

PRAYER: Loving Father, Open our hearts and minds and allow us to see the beauty of our faith. Show us what is possible and fill us with the grace, strength, and wisdom to live all the good things we explore here together. Send your Spirit upon us so that we can discover your dream for us to become the-best-version-of-ourselves, and have the courage to defend and celebrate this true self in every moment of our days. We ask you to bless in a special way the hungry, the lonely, the sick, and the discouraged. Remind us of our duty toward them and inspire us to be filled with a profound gratitude. We ask all this through your Son, Jesus. Amen
